NORCECA Men Pan American Cup

1-9 October, 2022 • La Habana, Cuba

Coaches speak before the start of the Men's U21 Pan American Cup

HAVANA, October 2nd, 2022.- Two tickets for the FIVB U21 Men's World Championship will be up for grabs at the age-group Pan American Cup that begins on Monday at the Ciudad Deportiva Coliseum.

During the preliminary inquiries each team delegate was informed that these two spots will be granted to the best two teams of NORCECA since only Chile from the South American Confederation is participating and as per regulations, four teams of each confederation must be participating to compete for one of the spots.

In the meantime, seven out of eight coaches gave their opinion regarding their goals during this tournament. United States was not able to arrive on time due to flight delays and it was determined that their match against Chile will be played on Thursday, October 6th.

On Monday, Dominican Republic faces Mexico in group A, and in group B, Nicaragua-Canada and Cuba-Haiti.

Ben Josephson, Canada: "We worked hard, we are eager to play. We have worked and prepared to qualify for Worlds. My players are college students, but I keep an eye on them and see them play as a team in college. I think that our main opponents are Cuba and the United States. We played two days ago with the locals and won in five sets".

Jesús Cruz, Cuba: "The preparation has been with ups and down, but we have been able to train and concentrate a group of athletes in this category, some went to the U19 World Championship, others have no competitive experience. That is why we took advantage of the friendly games against Canada and the Dominican Republic. That always helps a lot and more at these ages. Training is not the same as playing in front of a crowd, referees, at the venue and other tensions that competition brings. But we train to win, so we not only aspire to World Championship quota, but also to win the cup".

Iván Villarreal, Chile: "The first objective of our base teams is to give them a significant amount of competition that allows us to carry them through their development so that they can be part of the main squad. This group is a mix of the under-19 who participated in the Pan American Cup in Guatemala in May and players from the under-21. Our idea is to train them and have previous events prior to attend next year's U23 Championship. At the South American U21 we finished third, behind Brazil and Argentina (classified), and we are at the waiting room for the World Championship".

Junior Siecle, Haití: “It is our first Norceca event in which we have participated, but the objective has not changed, they want to do a good job, have a good tournament and to fight for a place in the World Championship. We have various weapons, and they are strengthened by the preparation we have done, but since we don't know our rivals, we have high expectations of knowing how they will develop”.

José Dante Manon, Dominican Republic: “We have a very young team, but I think we are ready for the qualification. We recognize that we will have strong rivals like the United States, Canada and Cuba, who has a tall and tremendously powerful team; that we were able to witness during friendly matches. Our strength is the attack, it will be our main weapon and we are going to try to develop it and show our cheerful game”.

Jorge Alberto Romero, Mexico: “We come from a three-week preparation at the National Training Center in Mexico City, and we are going to fight for the classification, looking for one of the two Norceca’s Worlds tickets. There are players who played in the U19 World Championship in Egypt; however, it is a recently assembled young team, but with a lot of talent. With all rivals we must have push, since none of them will be weak, but I think that the United States, Canada and Cuba are the teams with most options”.

Jorge Mena, Nicaragua: “The main objective is to compete, to do the best. Also, that it serves as preparation for the U21 Central American Championship to be held in our country from the 16th to the 24th of this month. We are the current champions, but we have rivals like Guatemala and Costa Rica, and any of the three can win. This Cup helps you raise the level a little more to face them. The first time we have a fairly high team and due to its age, it can still improve. We are working to have a good team in the future that later can become the base of the senior team”.

Entrenadores opinan previo al inicio de la Copa Panamericana Masculina Sub-21

LA HABANA, Cuba, 2 de octubre de 2022.- Dos boletos para el Campeonato Mundial Masculino Sub-21 de la FIVB se pondrán en disputa en la Copa Panamericana de la categoría, que comienza este lunes en el coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Durante las reuniones preliminares con cada uno de los representantes de los equipos se informó que ambos cupos corresponderán a los dos mejores ubicados del área Norceca, pues por la Sudamericana solo participa Chile y el reglamento estipula que para aspirar deben estar presente cuatro selecciones de cada región.

Entre tanto, siete de los ocho entrenadores opinaron sobre sus objetivos en este torneo, excepto el de Estados Unidos, quien no llegó a tiempo por las irregularidades en la transportación aérea, por lo que el partido ante Chile de este lunes se reprogramó para el jueves día 6.

Este lunes por el grupo A se enfrentan Dominicana-México, y en el B, Nicaragua-Canadá y Cuba-Haití.

NORCECA Men Pan American Cup

1-9 October, 2022 • La Habana, Cuba

Ben Josephson, Canadá: “Nos preparamos fuerte, estamos deseosos de jugar. Hemos trabajado y preparado para clasificar al Mundial. Mis jugadores son estudiantes universitarios, pero les doy seguimiento y observo porque participan como equipo en la universidad. Pienso que nuestros principales oponentes son Cuba y Estados Unidos. Jugamos hace dos días con los locales y ganamos en cinco sets”.

Jesús Cruz, Cuba: “La preparación ha sido con altas y bajas, pero hemos podido entrenar y concentrar un grupo de atletas de la categoría, algunos fueron al mundial sub-19, otros no tienen experiencia competitiva. Por eso aprovechamos ahora los juegos amistosos frente a Canadá y República Dominicana. Eso siempre ayuda y más en estas edades. No es lo mismo entrenar que jugar con público, el arbitraje, en la sala de competencia y otras tensiones que provoca competir. Pero entrenamos para ganar, o sea no solo aspiramos al cupo mundialista, también a conquistar la copa”.

Iván Villarreal, Chile: “El primer objetivo de las selecciones de base en nuestro país es darle un volumen importante de competencia que nos permita llevarlo en su desarrollo para que puedan acceder al plantel principal. Este grupo es una mezcla del sub-19 que participó en la Copa Panamericana de Guatemala en mayo y jugadores de la sub-21. La idea nuestra es foguearlo y que tenga eventos previos para asistir el año próximo en la categoría sub-23. En el Sudamericano sub-21 quedamos tercero, detrás de Brasil y Argentina (clasificados), nos quedamos en la sala de espera para el mundial”.

Junior Siecle, Haití: “Es nuestro primer evento de la Norceca en que hemos participado, pero el objetivo no ha cambiado, quieren hacer un buen papel, tener un buen torneo para luchar por un cupo para el Mundial. Tenemos varias armas y fortalecidos con la preparación que hemos hecho, pero como no conocemos a nuestros rivales, tenemos muchas expectativas de saber cómo es su desenvolvimiento”.

José Dante Manon, República Dominicana: “Tenemos un equipo muy joven, pero creo que estamos preparados para optar por la clasificación. Reconocemos que tendremos rivales de fuerza como Estados Unidos, Canadá y Cuba, que tiene un equipo alto y de tremenda potencia. Lo comprobamos en un juego de fogueo. Nuestra fortaleza es el ataque, será nuestra arma principal y vamos a tratar de desarrollarla, y también exponer nuestro juego alegre”.

Jorge Alberto Romero, México: “Venimos de una preparación de tres semanas en el Centro Nacional de Entrenamiento en la Ciudad de México y vamos a pelear por la clasificación, buscar uno de los dos boletos mundialistas de Norceca. Hay jugadores que jugaron el mundial sub-19 en Egipto, sin embargo, es un equipo joven recién armado, mas con mucho talento. Con todos los rivales hay que apretar, ninguno va a ser débil, pero pienso que entre los equipos con más opciones están Estados Unidos, Canadá y Cuba”.

NORCECA Men Pan American Cup

1-9 October, 2022 • La Habana, Cuba

Jorge Mena, Nicaragua: “El objetivo principal es competir, hacer lo mejor. También que nos sirva de preparación para el Campeonato Centroamericano Sub-21 con sede en nuestro país del 16 al 24 de este mes. Somos los actuales campeones, pero tenemos rivales como Guatemala y Costa Rica, y cualquiera de los tres puede ganar. Esta Copa te ayuda a levantar un poquito más el nivel para cuando los enfrentes. Primera vez que tenemos un equipo bastante alto y por su edad puede mejorar aún. Trabajamos para tener un buen equipo en el futuro y más adelante sean la base de la selección de mayores”.
