St Maarten edge past Dominica in Pool B

St. John's Antigua, July 6, 2022: St Maarten dug deep to beat Dominica 3-2, as Pool B of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Senior Men's Championships got going here at the YMCA Indoor Facility.

St Maarten thus defeated Dominica 25-23, 22-25, 22-25, 25-23, 15-9, in a ding- dong tussle for early honours.

Leading the scoring for St Maarten was Riegmar Valies with 18 points and Lenoard Jeffers recorded 17 points.

Dominica's Captain- Yahn Florent was the leading scorer for his team with 25 points,

In a post -match interview St Maarten Head Coach – Clayton Holiday assessed: "My guys started off well, but lost a little focus, eventually they walked back into their game and they did what was necessary ...It was a case about mind over matter, as we had the will power to win".

The St Maarten Head Coach said that he detected a flaw in the Dominica's play, in which they had difficulty in dealing with balls in position one, and his team exploited this to good effect

Meanwhile, St Maarten Captain- Leonard Jeffers stated, " It was a wonderful game... We came up with a well- balanced team, having experienced players and new ones and the coaches did a phenomenal job by bringing in the right players at the right time, causing the team to mesh perfectly... I cannot complain".

Looking forward to the rest of the tournament, Jeffers said " We can only get better.

For Dominica , Florent said, " I thought we had it but our service and passing let us down".

Facing their next opponents, Florent is cognisant of the abilities of the St Vincent and the Grenadines team, but said that they will be looking to correct their flaws in order to stay in contention for a semi- final berth.

Joining Florent in reviewing his team' first match, Head Coach- Ericson Le Blanc reported : " It is always disappointing when you lose, but on the night the other team wanted it more than we did ... We have to go back to the drawing board ad take some decisions so going forward in the next game we can do better".

Match two in the tournament is in Pool A, pitting Antigua and Barbuda versus Anguilla.

St Lucia stops St Vincent in five -setter

St. John's Antigua, July 6, 2022: St Lucia and arch rivals traded points and sets, but St Lucia finally trumped 25-22, 18-25, 25-23, 15-13, in an epic battle of the Saints, as Pool B of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Senior Men's Championships heated up at the YMCA Indoor Facility.

With no quarter given and none asked, Asmond Franklyn made good of 28 points for the Vincentians, while his team mates Jahmal Small and Jamaar Cropper each registered 14 points.

Tevin St Jean had 11 points for St Lucia, to be his team's topscorer.

St Vincent and the Grenadines outdid St Lucia in Blocks 11-8 and Serves 5-2. But it was St Lucia who conceded fewer errors- 38 to St Vincent and the Grenadines' 47.

A beaming St Lucia Head Coach Terry Verdant was bubbling for the win.

" I am feeling great, because in our last two outings, St Vincent and the Grenadines had beaten St Lucia and for me that was not normal so I had to take revenge tonight", Verdant said.

Stating that his team made some adjustments during the match, Verdant commented: "We tried to play an easier game, because at the beginning we were trying to rush the game... In addition, we noticed that they wanted the ball cross court, so began to block them inside".

Verdant's opposite number – Eardley Martin was gracious in defeat.

According to Martin, " The guys played their hearts out ... Playing St Lucia is never always easy... We know each other and there will always be that type of intensity between the two".

Martin believed that despite the loss , he is confident of his players resetting and coming back stronger in their remaining matches.

" We started the competition and we are going to end it", Martin projected of a St Vincent and the Grenadines versus St Lucia final.

Match four in the tournament features Anguilla and Bermuda in Pool A.

Antigua and Barbuda blanks Anguilla in Pool A

St. John's Antigua, July 6, 2022: Home team Antigua and Barbuda needed minimal expenditure of energy to dismiss Anguilla in Pool A of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Senior Men's Championships at the YMCA Indoor Facility.

Buoyed by partisan home support, Antigua won 3-0 (25-14, 25-15, 25-20).

The leading scorer for the Antiguan was Middle Blocker Cairon Davis who registered 9 points and there 8 points each coming from Jamarie James and Adrian Constant.

For Anguilla, their leading scorer was Calvin Samuel, who had 14 points.

Antigua and Barbuda also won on serves and blocks, both at 7-4.

For winning captain- Adrian Constant, it was more of a workman like win, rather than a clinical execution.

"It was not an easy win, because we made a lot of errors tonight...Personally, I do not think I had a good game, but from a team perspective we got the win", Constant related.

Looking forward to their next match against Bermuda, Constant reported that they will be trying to iron out the kinks that were evident in the Anguilla match.

Meanwhile, losing coach- Jason Liburd, thumbed inexperience at this level for the defeat.

" We have a very young squad and many of them have never been exposed to this level, so it was an eye opener for most of them", Liburd assessed.

Noting that the individual talents are evident in the team, Liburd thought it was a "decent showing", overall for his team, despite the loss.

He promised that his team will leave the tournament, an improved bunch.

Action switches to Pool B, when St Vincent and the Grenadines takes on St Lucia.
