BVI earns ECVA semifinal berth with straight sets win over Grenada

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 15, 2022. BVI poured in a workman like performance to continue on their Coach predicted path to the semifinal. In 75 minutes BVI had chalked up a quarterfinal victory with scores of 25- 23, 25- 15 and 25 –15.

Coach of the winning team Stephen Payne was cautiously pleased. “The dynamics of the game showed that we eventually won but our game level in terms of execution is still not where I want it to be. However the girls fought through and we came out with another W. Today our service and attack through the middle with Shoranda (Pickering) worked well for us.” He noted.

Pickering the leading scorer by far had an opportunity to speak about her game. “I think that overall the team know that I play an important part of what we do. However, I need the five others on the court in order to execute. I am happy that we were able to win despite the average execution. At this point fatigue may be setting in but we have to want it more and that will see us through.” She said

Coach of the Grenada team was disappointed but hopeful. “The opportunity for the gold medal match has eluded us but that’s not going to stop us from giving our all in our remaining match which is for 5 and 6th place. We will go away, evaluate and come back stronger in the future.” She promised

The scoresheet validated the coach’s assessment as it showed that Middle Blocker Shoranda Pickering had 22 points -17 of them spikes. Captain Henrietta Alexander chipped in with 10 points of her own.

On the other side no one managed double figures in points with 8 points being the best contribution coming from opposite hitter Shakkina Orr.

Meanwhile BVI took pole position in the 3 key areas of the team scoresheet. 32-11 in attacks, 11 to 4 in blocks and 11 to 8 in Service Aces. They benefitted from 30 opponent’s errors and gave up 21.

BVI will now meet St. Maarten in the semifinal while Grenada has been relegated to play for a plate position.

Antigua Barbuda books passage to Semi with win over Anguilla

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 15, 2022. Antigua and Barbuda went back to winning ways when they rolled past Anguilla in quarterfinal action in the ECVA senior female competition.

Just after 2 hours Antigua was 3-1 winners ( 25-20, 20 -25, 25- 23 and 25-15 ) and in doing so booked a spot in the semifinals to play against St. Lucia.

Anguilla threatened for a moment but then the senior players for Antigua took over particularly in the 4th and final set and gave themselves a chance for redemption.

Captain of the Antigua Barbuda team Ms Rosey Simon felt despite the win their passing was poor. “If you look at the stats you would see we only have very few attacks. You have to get that pass right in order to get a proper attack. Once we get back that on track we will be ok.” She stated.

“We were confident that we would have defeated Anguilla but the quality of play is still below par. We can play better volleyball. We are still committing simply errors but fortunately it was a little less than our second and third game.” Stated Coach Fritzroy Benjamin of Antigua and Barbuda.

His opposite number Omari Hamilton was visible upset. We just had some technical difficulties that we just could not do anything about at the time. It affected our rhythm and our mental focus and once the focus goes the game plan goes. We now have to wrap our heads around this reevaluate and come out and do our best in the match for 5th place.” He stated

Captain leveret was upbeat despite the loss. “I would first of all congratulate my girls and urge them to be positive. We improved a lot in a number of areas but we still have some things to work on.in all we will encourage each other to get better.” She said.

The scoresheet supported what Coach Benjamin was complaining about as more that 61 % of Anguilla’s points came from errors. Anguilla on the other hand committed just under 50%.

Antigua Barbuda came out on top in every scoring category in Kills it was 32 to 23 in Blocks it was 6 to 3 and in Service points it was 11 to 5.

Middle Blocker Kwansia Carr of Antigua and Barbuda led all scorers with 18 points made up of 13 Spikes and 5 blocks. She got help from Outside Hitter Yuderka Martinez who had a sterling service game clocking 8 Aces.

For the losing side, both Outside Hitters captain Rikiesha Leveret and Janai Gumbs posted 10 points each.

Semifinal action is slated for later this evening with the St. Maarten taking on BVI and Antigua Barbuda versus St. Lucia.

BVI silences home crowd and defeat St. Maarten on route to finals

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 15, 2022. It was heart break for the home fans when they witnessed their home team (St. Maarten) lose 3-1 to BVI (25-15, 25-19, 17-25 and 25-23). The fans were hoping for a five setter after their team was down 2-0 and clawed their way back to win the third. They were even more optimistic when in the fourth set they slashed a big BVI lead to just 1 when BVI had set point. BVI persevered and won the point at the net that hushed the crowd.

Coach of the BVI team Stephen Payne gave his assessment of what happened. We went away from the game plan somewhat as a result of some miscommunication. However a win is a win and we are on our way to the finals. We came here and played game by game and point by point and we won't move away from that strategy." He intimated

His captain Henrietta Alexander was gleeful. "When we came here we were ranked 7th in the ECVA with an underdog label. We have not competed for several years and so some people counted us out. However we came here to upset some people and that exactly what we did, now we will be playing for gold." She Beamed.

Coach Dimitri Beauperthuy was upbeat despite the loss. "Tonight we came up short but the girls poured in a tremendous effort after a slow start. I feel proud to know that we gave everything we had and the opponents just got the better of us on the day." He said.

Captain of the home team Akila Meulens enjoyed the experience. "It was exciting as we dug a whole but was coming out of it. If we had that same energy from the start things might have been different but that behind us now and all we can do is to refocus to try to win the bronze and that exactly what's on my mind now". She said

Once again Middle Blocker Shoranda Pickering from the BVI garnered the game high points-19. That was made up of 12 Kills and 5 Aces along with 2 blocks. She got some help from Captain Alexander with 9 points.

St. Marten's charge was led by Captain Meulens who grabbed 10 points. Meanwhile BVI benefitted from a high error count- 51(or 55%) while donating 35. The rest of the team scoresheet was even with Serves tied at 10 Blocks going the way of BVI 7-4 and while St. Maarten had the edge in Kills 32 to 25.

Antigua and St. Lucia will now play to decide the other finalist.

St. Lucia remains undefeated; puts away Antigua in 4 sets

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 15, 2022. St. Lucia booked their passage to the finals of the ECVA senior female competition with a 3-1 victory over archrivals Antigua and Barbuda. On the 2 hour mark the scores were (18-25, 25-13, 25-15, 27-25) in favour of St. Lucia. This meant that they remained undefeated in the tournament so far.

A well rounded attack was the main feature that led to victory for St. Lucia. Four players had scores of over 10. Kerin Neptune 14, Chenoa Evans 13, Tyna William 13 and Amalia Louis 10. On the other hand, Sharon Payne and Tyke

Hawkins had ten each for the losing side.

St. Lucia showed their dominance in Attack with a score of 33 to 20 as well as lead in Service points 17-4, Antigua however lead in blocks 10 to 5.

Coach of the St. Lucia team Kendall Challery was still not 100% pleased. "I noticed that Antigua came out on a mission they wanted to get to finals but we could not allow that. It took us a while to get going, pick up momentum and came out on top." He said

Fritzroy Benjamin Coach of the Antigua team walked us through the game. "The ladies played well they put up a fight. However there were still lapses in concentration, some transitional problems and we need to work more on fitness." He assessed.

Captain Rosemarie Simon consoled the coach by stating that they will take the bronze in their final game tomorrow
