Bottom places settled as Grenada defeats Anguilla in a thrilling 5 setter

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 16, 2022. It was a match befitting of a final as both team scrabbled and rallied for very point they could muster. In doing so it took 5 sets to separate the two teams and finally determined 5th and 6th. When the dust settled Grenada won by a nose (16 -25, 25 -16, 13- 25 25 -13 and 16- 14) and took 5th place leaving Anguilla in 6th.

The scoresheet was testimony to the closeness of the game. In Kills Grenada led 32 to 29, In Blocks Anguilla led 7 to 4 while Service points were even at 7 all. Both teams gave up 54% in errors no advantage there again.

Grenada was led by two players each contributing 10 points. Outside Hitter Mitchell had all her points coming from kills while Shakina had 5 Aces in her 10. Once again Anguilla was led by their captain in Leveret who got 11 points from her outside hitting position while Middle Blocker Richardson contributed 9 points

Coach of the Grenada team Staciann Lake was very satisfied as she focused on the present and the future of volleyball in Grenada. "Although we did not achieve the ultimate goal we are very pleased in the result tonight, it was our chance to let out everything and get a win in the bag. However we have to do much more to hone the raw talent that exists at home. We have to get back active volleyball, better scouting and some more professional coaching to put our team at a level that is able to compete successfully at this level." She noted.

Their captain and setter was jubilant. "It feels so good winning that game after urging my teammates to play basic volleyball- one serve one pass one set one kill and we did just that and won the game." She said in glee.

Omari Hamilton was also optimistic about the future of volleyball in his country.

"We put out our all on the court and it just did not come out in our favor but you saw that we played our hearts out. Now we have to go back home, revamp and do a lot more work taking care of our bodies and put in the time to train and get much better." He said.

Captain leveret concurred with her coach. "We have to go back and definitely made some changes. I will start with me and commit myself to practice, practice, and practice." She said.

The focus now shifts to the medal matches which involves Antigua and St. Maarten for third and BVI vs St. Lucia for gold.

Antigua edges St. Maarten to take bronze

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 16, 2022. A noisy partisan home crowd could not save their team defeat at the hands of the more experienced Antigua and Barbuda.

Although they pushed the opponents to the end in almost every game they came up short losing in 4 sets (25 -12,29-31, 25-21 and 25 -23)

A well rounded attack helped the Antiguan cause as Middle Blocker Peters posted 17 points Carr chipped in with 13 and Payne 10. On the other side, it was only middle blocker Natalie who had double figures (10) for St. Maarten.

Antigua and Barbuda took control of the scoresheet leading 30 to 24 in attack, 11 to 8 in Blocks and 15 to 9 in Service points. Despite the win Antigua was guilty of committing too many errors. A total of 46 points of the 87 garnered by St. Maarten was attributed to errors.

This issue was not missed by coach Benjamin of Antigua. “We still have a problem with transition and we committed far too many errors particularly with our serve. We definitely can do better than this brand of volleyball displayed here. We will now look to the future to integrate the youths into our program.” He said.

Captain Simon committed to assist with that drive. We can’t just throw the youth in the deep like that we have to guide them and blend them in so as a more senior player I all for that. Having said that I must say that we are disappointed that we only got as far as the bronze medal match. From my assessment this is a tournament.

Coach ... was very upbeat in defeat. Although we lost to Antigua I am glad that the home crowd got a chance to see what we are building. In this squad, 6 players are still in High School and you saw how they fought out there, I am extremely proud of the effort and feel confident going for the future.

His captain Meulens was ecstatic. Actually this is one of the reasons I was delighted to lead the team because of the number of young players in the squad. This augers well for the future of volleyball in St. Maarten as well as the Caribbean. It was exciting playing with them. I had a blast and although we are somewhat disappointed that we did not win the bronze we know for sure that we improved our standings and standard and that’s a win in my book.” She concluded.

St. Lucia dominates BVI in ECVA female championship match

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 16, 2022. The St. Lucia team left the best game until last winning in straight sets over contenders BVI (25-17, 25 – 10 and 25-13). In doing so they retained the female championship title and remained undefeated throughout the tournament.

At the onset of the second set the St. Lucia team seemed to have switched gears to a different level and BVI had no answer. They literally had their way in all facets of the game. In attack, Louis 9, Neptune 9 and Chenoa 5 contributed the most to the overall tally of 29 points from kills. On the other hand, BVI could only manage 7 kills. St. Lucia also led at the net leading 7 to 4 in this category.

Service points were also in St. Lucia's favour 14 to 4. Altogether this was the "Lusha" pressure that BVI succumbed to. Eventually Neptune ended with the most individual points (17) on the night whereas BVI did not get their attack going and no one had double figures in points.

Coach of the BVI team Stephen Payne was gracious in defeat." The championship was all St. Lucia, they had their way and we could not find answers at the moment. However, the intension for us coming here was to medal and we have achieved that objective. I would like to say congratulations to the winners, they deserve it. We will now debrief and concentrate on future efforts." He said.

Kendall Challery coach of St. Lucia was overjoyed. "I am very happy that we got the job done the girls stuck to our game plan by thwarting their main attack once we did that we gained momentum on that and never looked back. Finally the girls start was playing the way we ought to. We have a tendency to drop our level but that did not happen tonight. So I feel very proud and I know the fans back home will be happy for us." He surmised.

The final positions at the end of the ECVA senior female competition are as follows:- 1 St. Lucia 2. BVI 3. Antigua Barbuda 4. St. Maarten 5. Grenada. 6. Anguilla 7. St. Eustatius.

St. Lucia bags majority of awards at ECVA female championship

Phillipsburg, St. Maarten October 16, 2022. When St. Lucia returns home from the ECVA championship their luggage will be overloaded with individual awards. Of the 12 awards St. Lucia copped seven and left the remaining five to be shared among the other countries.

The most prestigious award, that of the MVP went to Kerin Neptune. She played in the outside hitting position and was also judged the best in that category as well. The other outside hitting position went to Amalia Louis. Neptune was again featured as the best server as well as the best receiver to total four awards to take home. Two Middle Blocking awards were up for grabs and Tyna William took one. The final award for St. Lucia went to Chenoa Evans who was best opposite.

Shoranda Pickering picked up two awards for BVI. She was the best scorer as well as best middle blocker.

Tivona Trotman was the one to get two awards for St. Maarten. She was the best Libero and the best digger.

The remaining award went to Jomelar Billy of Grenada as the best setter.

The final team positions were

1. St. Lucia
2. BVI
3. Antigua
4. St. Maarten
5. Grenada
6. Anguilla
7. St. Eustatius

The next female competition is slated for 2025
