Cuba opens with a quick win over Nicaragua at Women's Continentals

Langley, British Columbia, CANADA. September 28, 2017: Cuba didn't waste any time to defeat Nicaragua in the first match at the NORCECA Senior Women's Continental Championship and World Championship Qualification Tournament (Group B).

Although Cuba lost its focus late in the match, the Caribbean team still managed a dominant win 3-0 (25-8, 25-9, 25-19) today at the Langley Events Centre.

Cuban Daymara Lescay was the match top scorer with 13 points; Amalia Valeska Hernandez led the losing side with 11 points.

Wilfredo Robinson Pupo, head coach of Cuba : "We feel happy about the victory, and even though the competition wasn't at a high level, the team performed well....In set number three, we changed the lineup and put some younger players into the match. Sometimes they made so mistakes, but overall, we saw them improve."

"The next match, our opposition is at the same level as Nicaragua, so we have to continue to practice because our hardest match will be on the last day (against host Canada) ."

Sulian Matienzo – Cuba Captain: "We played good, but we know the level of the opposition isn't that high, but it was good preparation for the next matches."

Rene Quintana, head coach of Nicaragua: "The Cuban team, we knew they had more experience, are stronger, and they are more skilled than our team. We knew that coming into the match, and they owned the match today. But we did the best we could, and we hope to have a better result in the next matches. It was nice to have a better score in the final set."

Canada dominates St. Lucia on Women's Qualifier opening day

Langley, British Columbia, CANADA. September 28, 2017: The home crowd enjoyed a quick and decisive match at the NORCECA Senior Women's Continental Championship and World Championship Qualification Tournament (Group B) on Thursday in Langley, British Columbia.

Canada out-powered the smaller St. Lucian squad from the first whistle, wrapping it up in 54 minutes 3-0 (25-8, 25-8, 25-8).

Match top scorer was Alicia Ogoms with 13 points, followed by Alissa Coulter with 11 for the Canadian team.

In the third set, St. Lucia put on more of a challenge early on, and even kept up with Canada to tie at five, but Canada quickly re-grouped to keep the Caribbean side in check.

The top two teams from this tournament earn a berth at the Women's World Championships in Japan next year.

Marcello Abbondanza, head coach of Canada: "I appreciate the spirit in which St. Lucia played; I think they tried to give everything they had and this is what sport is about. I think my team was focused and just tried to play our best volleyball. Tomorrow we have Nicaragua and we have to try to have our best to qualify (in the top two) for the World Championships. Then we can think about Cuba (on Saturday)."

Alicia Ogoms, player, Canada: "I thought overall we just tried to focus on our side of the net. I thought we did a really good job in keeping St. Lucia's scores under 10 and limiting our errors. I'm really happy with how we performed today."

Kendell Charlery, head coach of St. Lucia: "Well, it was a bit of a tough game, because we know Canada is a tough team. We've got a pretty young team. Most of our team, this is their first time as senior members. We gave it a shot. We knew it was going to be tough, but we've got to pick ourselves up and get ready for another game tomorrow. ... You go back home and you know you've got to prepare a lot more because the teams in our region are not on this level. The exposure to completion like this is a good experience for the players and a motivator for them as well."

Cindy Wilson – St. Lucia, Captain : "The game wasn't a bad game because their level of volleyball and our level of volleyball.... Our blocking was not all there because they (Canada) play a faster game than we are used to and we weren't able to get in position to block in time."
