Pan Am and Central American Games in stake at Women's Pan Am Cup

HERMOSILLO, Sonora, Mexico, August 20, 2022.- The Women's Pan American Cup is a qualification event for the Pan American Games and the Central American & Caribbean Games to be held in 2023 in Santiago and El Salvador respectively.

Excluding Dominican Republic and Mexico, who are already qualified for both multisport events, the highest-ranking team of NORCECA will qualify to the Santiago Pan American Games, while three vacancies will go to the highest-ranking teams among NORCECA and Colombia, for the El Salvador Central American & Caribbean Games.

Coaches of the participating teams gave their first impressions ahead of the event.

Carolyn O'Dwyer, Head Coach of Canada: "We've had a long training block, with a large group of this team, so we feel really ready for the competition and excited to play against some top teams. For a lot of our athletes this will be their first international event and I am excited to see how they perform".

Eduardo Niño, Second Coach of Colombia: "Our main goal is to qualify for the Central American and Caribbean Games. We have been preparing for over two months with professor Rizola in charge, also thinking about the World Championship, our most important competition this year. The team has been working hard and keeping active for all the Olympic cycle competitions".

Pablo Acuña, Head Coach of Costa Rica: "The foundation of the team is the one from the Final Four, but we have other players which we want to observe. The team is excited and with desire to compete, we are in a hard group, but each match will be an experience for players and staff. It's a great opportunity to plan ahead and be prepared for the Central American & Caribbean Games, which I have no doubt that Costa Rica can be there".

Thomas Fernández Arteaga, Head Coach of Cuba: "This is a major competition for us because it's a qualification event and our goal is to obtain that qualification; also, to finish in the best position possible to win the most ranking points possible and that will help us qualify later on. The team is going through a psychological hit because our setter couldn't come (Greta Moreno) because of Covid, hoping she will come further in the competition. We are optimistic that Greta will recover".

Marcos Kwiek, Head Coach of Dominican Republic: “We brought some young players, some just made it to the senior team, it’s a good mix with our veteran players. Physically the team is not in good condition. We are aware of the importance of the Pan American Cup; it will be strong, and we hope to fight in the finals”.

Rafael Petry, Head Coach of Mexico: “The team is ready to compete, prepared for this strong competition, with opponents of great ambitions. We have new members of the team, to be part of the process of National teams and evaluate them”.

René Quintana, Head Coach of Nicaragua: “The team is here to take advantage of the competition, it is part of our preparation for the Central American Games coming soon in Guatemala. We acknowledge that the game level is above ours, but we will try that our opponents will work hard against us”.

Francisco Hervas, Head Coach of Peru: “Peru wants to make the most of this competition, it’s an interesting tournament with the opportunity to face teams that we usually don’t face. The team consists of experienced players and others that are moving up, it’s a balance to help us rebuild our team”.

Héctor Soto, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: “We usually have difficulties preparing our team when competitions take place in the summer because our professional league runs in this period, but at least the girls are in good physical condition, they have a good game level. We will try to determine our game style during the competition; basically, we are prepared”.

Bradley Rostratter, Head Coach of United States: “We had a great training block, three weeks to train alongside with the world championship training group and the preparation has gone really well for us. Some players have international experience, maybe 50% have played one or two international seasons, some even played VNL, we have a group of talented players”.

Juegos Panamericanos y Centroamericanos en juego en la Copa Pan Am Femenina

HERMOSILLO, Sonora, México, 20 de agosto de 2022.- La Copa Panamericana Femenina es un evento clasificatorio a los Juegos Panamericanos y a los Juegos Centroamericanos & del Caribe a celebrarse en 2023 en Santiago y El Salvador respectivamente.

Excluyendo a República Dominicana y a México, que ya están clasificados a ambos eventos multideportivos, el equipo de mayor ranking de NORCECA clasificará a los Juegos Panamericanos de Santiago, mientras que tres vacantes se irán a los equipos de mayor ranking entre NORCECA y Colombia, para los Juegos Centroamericanos & del Caribe de El Salvador.

Carolyn O'Dwyer, Entrenadora de Canadá: “Tuvimos un bloque largo de entrenamiento, con un gran grupo de este equipo, así que nos sentimos verdaderamente listos para la competencia y emocionados de enfrentar a equipos elite. Para muchas de las atletas es su primer evento internacional y estoy emocionada de ver cómo se desempeñan”.

Eduardo Niño, Segundo Entrenador de Colombia: “El objetivo principal es clasificar desde ahora a los Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe. Venimos con una preparación de más de dos meses encabezado por el profesor Rizola, también pensando en nuestra competencia más importante que es el Campeonato Mundial. El equipo ha estado trabajando fuerte y mantener al equipo activo para las competencias del ciclo olímpico”.

Pablo Acuña, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “La base del equipo que compitió en el Final Four está acá, pero traemos a otras jugadoras para observar su desempeño. El equipo está emocionado y con ganas de competir, estamos en un grupo duro pero cada partido será una experiencia para las jugadoras y el cuerpo técnico. Es una buena oportunidad para planificar y estar preparados para los Juegos Centroamericanos & del Caribe, que no tengo duda que Costa Rica puede estar allí”.

Thomas Fernández Arteaga, Entrenador de Cuba: “Esta es la competencia fundamental de nuestro equipo por ser clasificatorio y venimos con el objetivo de obtener la clasificación; además de acercarnos lo más posible a un lugar decoroso que nos otorgará la mayor cantidad de puntos de ranking y que pueda facilitar la clasificación posteriormente. El equipo atraviesa un golpe psicológico porque no pudo venir nuestra colocadora (Greta Moreno) por Covid, esperando que pueda incorporarse más adelante en la competencia. Estamos optimistas de que Greta se recupere”.

Marcos Kwiek, Entrenador de República Dominicana: “Venimos con algunas jugadoras jóvenes, algunas empezando en el equipo de mayores, hacen una buena mezcla con las veteranas. El equipo no se encuentra bien físicamente. Sabemos la importancia que tiene la Copa Panamericana, será fuerte y esperamos pelear por las finales”.

Rafael Petry, Entrenador de México: “El equipo está listo para competir, preparado para una competencia fuerte, con rivales con muchas ambiciones. Tenemos nuevas integrantes en el equipo, para ser parte del proceso de selecciones y evaluarlas”.

René Quintana, Entrenador de Nicaragua: “El equipo viene a aprovechar la competencia, nos sirve como parte de preparación para los Juegos Centroamericanos que se desarrollarán pronto en Guatemala. Sabemos que el nivel de juego acá es muy por encima del nuestro, pero procuraremos que los rivales tengan que esforzarse ante nosotros”.

Francisco Hervas, Entrenador de Perú: “Perú viene con ganas de aprovechar al máximo, este es un torneo muy interesante que nos da la oportunidad de competir contra equipos que habitualmente no nos enfrentamos. El equipo lo conforma una mezcla de jugadoras experimentadas con otras que vienen de atrás, es un equilibrio para ayudar a reconstruir este equipo”.

Héctor Soto, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “A menudo nos sucede que las competencias en verano se nos dificulta la preparación del equipo porque nuestro torneo profesional se juega en esta época, pero por lo menos las muchachas están en buena condición física, vienen con buen ritmo de juego en su equipo. Trataremos de definir nuestro estilo de juego durante la competencia; básicamente estamos preparados”.

Bradley Rostratter, Entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Tuvimos un excelente bloque de entrenamiento, tres semanas junto al equipo que va al campeonato mundial y la preparación ha sido muy buena para nosotras. Algunas jugadoras tienen experiencia internacional, tal vez el 50% ha jugado una o dos temporadas internacionalmente, algunas en la VNL, tenemos un grupo de jugadoras muy talentosas”.
