St Lucia overcomes Dominica in straight sets

St. John's Antigua, July 8, 2022: St Lucia's 3-0 (25- 21, 26-24, 25-23) triumph over Dominica in Pool B of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Senior Men's Championships at the YMCA Indoor Facility, ensured they stay top alongside St Maarten.

The match meant most for both, as St Lucia needed to keep their momentum after their nervy 3-2 win over St Vincent and the Grenadines, while Dominica had suffered losses to St Maarten 3-2 and was beaten 3-0 by St Vincent and the Grenadines.

But the St Lucians were clinical at crucial stages of the encounter, boxing out any hope of the Dominicans upstaging them.

St Lucia's Captain – Sheldon Descartes led from the front with 15 points, while Tevin St Jean added 12. For Dominica, Yahn Florent, who missed his team's previous match because of a hand injury, returned to lead his team's coring with 13 points. Keaun Reeve chipped with 12 points.

St Lucia also led in Serves 9-4 and Blocks, 10-7.

Reviewing his team's win, Descartes analysed: "This match, we were better prepared than when we played St Vincent and the Grenadines... We had some time to rest because we had an off day, this made us better mentally and physically prepared", Descartes stated with delight.

He noted though that they are not going to take their feet off the pedal, as they foresee greater challenges in the business end of the championships.

Dominica's Head Coach: Ericson LeBlanc believed that at one point of the match, they had the upper hand , but the players allowed it to slip.

" We were up to it to play St Lucia... We had some lapses and I don't know, we lost focus and anytime you lose focus versus teams like St Lucia, expect to be punished and in this match, St Lucia was hungrier than we for the win", LeBlanc assessed.

" In no way I am disappointed in my players... I believe in them... They are a bunch of young guys whom I plan to continue to groom", LeBlanc cited.

Match eleven pits St Kitts and Nevis against Anguilla, in another Pool A match up.

"During the match, we got better, the players learnt as they went along and that is what I want to see... They learn and improve and do so rapidly", Swan advanced.

" Bermuda was a solid team; They practically served us off the court and we never found a rhythm and struggled badly with our ball control and it was always trying to battle back". Swan summed up.

" We gave them easy opportunities to score and we did not keep the pressure on them", Swan added.

Despite the loss, Swan is hopeful for a better showing in their final match up against Antigua and Barbuda.

Match 15 features Grenada versus Antigua and Barbuda.

Antigua and Barbuda blanks Grenada 3-0

St. John's Antigua, July 8, 2022: Antigua and Barbuda inflicted a 3-0 (25-21, 25-18, 25-21) defeat on the high -flying Grenada in match 15 of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Senior Men's Championships at the YMCA Indoor Facility.

Head Coach of the Antigua and Barbuda team, Fitzroy Benjamin heaped praises on his charges for the execution of the game plan.

"The guys did well with proper execution of the game plan", Benjamin lauded.

Going into some technicalities, Benjamin informed, " We tried not to go into the centre line and hit the back court , but we had some difficulties in stopping their middle blocker".

On the downside, Benjamin lamented, "We have some serving errors which we must correct going forward".

But for Head Coach of Grenada- Raphael Braithwaite, the intensity of the championships, affected them.

"Not to make any excuses, but we had a very hard game against Bermuda and that took a toll on the players as the tiredness showed up in this match", Braithwaite explained.

On the other side, according to Braithwaite, “ Antigua and Barbuda came out and had a very good game... I must say it is the best they have played in the championships so far and they caught us struggling to find consistency”.
