2015 Norceca Women Champions Cup, Final Four La Habana, Cuba, June 3-8, 2015

Dominicanas ganan a pesar de resistencia de Canadá

La Habana, Cuba, 4 de junio 2015 – Dominicana consiguió su primer triunfo a pesar de la resistencia de Canadá, al que rindió 3-1 (25-20, 17-25, 25-19, 25-22) en la apertura del torneo femenino Final Four de voleibol con sede en el coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Las norteñas dieron la sorpresa al llevarse el segundo parcial, aunque ya desde el inicio lucharon por desestabilizar a las dominicanas, quintas en el mundial 2014.

Muy emotivo resultó el choque, de casi dos horas, especialmente en el cuarto segmento cuando las canadienses lograron seguidilla de cinco tantos y la pizarra exhibió un 17-21, que las caribeñas supieron voltear al pagarle con la misma moneda y marcar siete (24-21) y segundos después sellar el duelo.

Por las vencedoras sobresalieron Eve Mejías (13), Gina Mambrú (12) y Prisila Rivera (14), pero la máxima anotadora fue la contraria Tabitha Love (21), escoltada por sus compañeras Brittney Page y Kyla Richey, ambas con 10.

El brasileño Marcos Kwiek, director técnico de Dominicana, manifestó que no importaba con qué marcadores porque lo fundamental es ganar.

“Es un torneo en el que cada partido es una final, pudimos haber jugado un poco mejor, no obstante luchamos y vencimos, para mí es lo vital. Obvio, jugar bien es el sueño de todos, pero hay otros igual trabajando para ganarnos, así que a pesar de las dificultades nos llevamos el juego”.

Bethania de la Cruz, capitana de las quisqueyanas, que hoy no tuvo que salir a la cancha, indicó que “el principal compromiso es clasificar a la Copa del Mundo, este es un torneo en el que cada equipo va a dar lo mejor y lo que necesitábamos era dominar y así lo hicimos”

El alemán Arnd Ludwig, DT de las norteñas, reconoció que sus muchachas en el primer set comenzaron muy nerviosas.

“A partir del segundo y el principio del tercero jugamos bastante bien, en el cuarto tuvimos grandes oportunidades de concretar la victoria, pero no podemos demeritar la reacción de nuestras rivales, sin dudas muy buenas”.

Brittney Page, capitana de Canadá, consideró que tuvieron muy buenos momentos en el partido y que todo fue muy fácil para ellas en esos pasajes. “Lamentablemente perdimos muchas posibilidades y en realidad las dominicanas son muy fuertes y ahí se nos fue el éxito”.

2015 Norceca Women Champions Cup, Final Four La Habana, Cuba, June 3-8, 2015

Puerto Rico venció a Cuba en cuatro sets en Final Four

La Habana, Cuba, 5 de junio, 2015 – LA SELECCIÓN boricua derrotó a Cuba 25-17, 23-25, 25-23 y 25-17 en el segundo partido del torneo (f) Final Four de voleibol, que tiene lugar en la Ciudad Deportiva y otorga dos boletos para la Copa del Mundo, primer clasificatorio olímpico rumbo a Río de Janeiro 2016.

Aurea Cruz (17) y Karina Ocasio (16) resultaron las más productivas por las visitantes, aunque la quinceañera de casa, Melissa Vargas fue la máxima anotadora con 23, seguida de su compañera Sulian Matienzo (12) en partido que se extendió a una hora y 42 minutos.

José Mieles, el dirigente boricua, calificó el desafío de “caliente”, pero está satisfecho porque se cumplieron los objetivos tácticos.

“Fue bueno comenzar con una victoria con Cuba, que aunque el año pasado siempre le ganamos, su nuevo entrenador ha hecho algunos ajustes como Melissa en la posición de esquina, esa nena es extraordinaria y en sentido general hay que tener cuidado con este equipo, viene abriendo su brecha”.

La capitana Yarimar Rosa expresó su alegría por la victoria, “es el primer paso hacia la conquista del boleto, lucimos bien porque venimos trabajando fuerte, todas estamos en el ritmo de juego pues acabamos hace poco la temporada de competencia en Puerto Rico, eso nos ayudó para no empezar frías”.

Roberto García, entrenador de las anfitrionas, señaló que “a ellas le cuesta trabajo, en los sets cerrados, hacer acciones positivas, además perdieron muchos saques en el primero y Melissa no me rindió como atacadora auxiliar, debe mejorar mentalmente esto, por ejemplo hace 20 puntos pero comete 35 errores”.

Sulian Matienzo, la capitana local, reconoció que “Puerto Rico es un equipo experimentado y conoce las debilidades nuestras, y ellas supieron demostrar la cantidad de partidos que acumulan, pero en un futuro sabremos ganarle”.

2015 Norceca Women Champions Cup, Final Four La Habana, Cuba, June 3-8, 2015

Dominicans win despite the Canadians' resistance

Dominican Republic claimed their first victory despite the resistance demonstrated by Canada which was finally beaten 1-3 (25-20, 17-25, 25-19, and 25-22) at the opening match of the NORCECA Women's Final Four Champions Cup at the Sports City Coliseum of Havana.

The North Americans were a surprise by taking the second set away, although since the very beginning they had battled to destabilize the Dominicans who were fifth-placed at the World Championship in 2014.

The match, that lasted almost two hours, was very emotive, particularly in the fourth set when the Canadians attained a 5-point rally by taking the lead to 17-21. However the Caribbeans were able to come from behind getting them back with the same coin by scoring 7 points in row (24-21) and few seconds later claiming the final victory.

By the winning team, Eve Mejia (13), Gina Mambrú (12) and Prisila Rivera (14) excelled, although the top-scorer was the their rival Tabitha Love (21) who was followed by her team-mates Brittney Page and Kyla Richey, 10 points apiece.

Brazilian, Marcos Kwiek, coach of Puerto Rico, stated that what really matters was not the score, but winning.

"It is a tournament where each game is a final match. We could have played a little better. However we fought and won which is vital for me. Obviously, playing well is everybody's dream. But there are also others working hard to defeat us. So despite the difficulty we had in playing, we won."

Bethania De la Cruz, Dominican captain, who did not have to be on the court today said that "we are aimed at qualifying to the World Cup, but this is a qualifier event where each team will do its utmost. Therefore we needed to outclass them and we got it."

The German, Arnd Ludwing, Canadian's coach recognised his girls started very nervous at the first set.

"From the second set and up to the beginning of the third one we played quite well. During the fourth set, we had several opportunities we were not able to seize to win. Nevertheless we can not demerit our opponents' reaction. They played better."

Brittney Page, the Canadian captain, considered that they did have good moments and then it was easier for them. "Unfortunately lost several opportunities and as our opponents are really tough we were not able to overpower them at the end."

2015 Norceca Women Champions Cup, Final Four La Habana, Cuba, June 3-8, 2015

Puerto Rico overpowers Cuba in four sets

Havana, June, 5, 2015. Puerto Rican team defeated Cuba 25-17, 23-25, 25-23, and 25-17 in the second match of the NORCECA Women's Final Four Champions Cup at the Sports City Coliseum in Havana where two tickets are available for the World Cup in Japan which will be the first Olympic Qualifier for Rio de Janeiro, 2016.

Aurea Cruz (17) and Karina Ocasio (16) were the best ones at the offense by the visitors. On the host team, the 15-year-old player, Melissa Vargas was the top-scorer (23), followed by her team-mate Sulian Matienzo (12) in a match which lasted an hour and 42 minutes.

José Mieles, the coach of Puerto Rico, rated the match as "hot". However he is satisfied because they tactical aims were fulfilled.

"It was good to start winning over Cuba. Although we had always defeated them last year, their new coach has made some adjustments with Melissa as outside-hitter. She is an extraordinary player. In general the others should be careful with this team they are breaking through."

Captain, Yarimar Rosa, expressed her joy for the victory. "It is the first step to clinch one berth. We looked well as we have been working hard on it. We are all at well playing condition as we have just ended the competition season at home; and it helped us to start playing at a good level."

Roberto García, local coach, stated that "my team takes much work, in the close sets, to make positive actions. In addition, there were several losses of services in the first set. Likewise, Melissa did not perform well as outside hitter. She is called to improve it mentally. She is able to score 20 points, but she makes 35 errors."

Sulian Matienzo, local captain, admitted that "Puerto Rico is an experienced team and they know our weaknesses. Moreover they could demonstrate the number of matches they have accumulated. Nevertheless we will learn to outclass them in the future."
