Head Coaches speak ahead of Women's Volleyball at the 2023 CAC Games

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, July 3, 2023.- The Head Coaches of the eight women volleyball teams spoke ahead of the 24th edition of the Central American and Caribbean Games of San Salvador 2023 that starts on Tuesday July 4 at the Sports Palace Carlos El Famoso Hernández.

Italian coaches Nicola Negro and Andrea Genova will have their first experience not only at the CAC Games but their first official event coaching the national teams of Mexico and El Salvador respectively.

Antonio Rizola, Head Coach of Colombia: "We are coming with the same motivation that we had in Barranquilla, where nobody was expecting Colombia to reach the final. But we are here in a different group, with Cuba, Trinidad & Tobago, and the host country, where every match is important, I always worry, but that motivates me. My team must not be confident that because they reached the finals four years ago, they will do the same here, we are working hard to be there".

Pablo Acuña, Head Coach of Costa Rica: "We are coming after a good performance at the Final Four, we understand these are different teams, but it was good preparation for the team and to be more confident, as well as understand what we need tactically to take a bigger step. We are in a tough group, and we must compete with a lot of focus and discipline, the team is ready for that. More than results we want to have an optimal performance according to our statistics and our process".

Tomás Fernández Arteaga, Head Coach of Cuba: "The teams' preparation has been acceptable. Our sole goal is to obtain a respectable position, which includes a medal. We are well prepared, but the results will come from the court".

Wagener Pacheco, Assistant Coach of Dominican Republic: "The team is coming from competing at the VNL, with one change of a middle player. The team is coming strong after a very demanding competition, with two important victories to close the VNL, which I believe makes us the team with the highest level of play here. But we are aware that the players are tired from a whole month of competition, the changes in time zone and the long travel which we must manage".

Andrea Genova, Head Coach of El Salvador: "We have been working for four months together, I came in February. For many players this will be their first experience and for me the first official match. We are here to gain experience as a team, to try to surprise and let's see what comes out".

Nicola Negro, Head Coach of Mexico: "I am really excited to be in the Norceca world, it's an honor. I am enthusiastic and I am just starting with the Mexican national team to bring my experience to help the team grow. Like every beginning, it takes time. The Central American Games will be the first of many competitions for 2023, we are confident to do a good job".

Saleem Ali, Head Coach of Trinidad & Tobago: "We have four players with experience and eight with not much experience; our two setters are young. This is all new for the team. We are fairly prepared, and our main goal is the Caribbean Cup that is in less than a month, so we are here to get the experience to use it at that level".

Fernando Morales, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: “This is a young talented team, with the addition of Brittnay Abercrombie and Neira Ortiz, providing more experience to the group. We are aware that we play our all in every match, and we are starting with a tough opponent (Mexico), but our players have been in difficult situations, such as our Professional League and we know they will put up with the pressure”.

Entrenadores hablan previo al Voleibol Femenino de los Juegos CAC 2023

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador, 3 de julio de 2023.- Los Entrenadores de los ocho equipos de voleibol femenino hablaron previo a su participación en los vigésimo cuartos Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe San Salvador 2023 que inicia el martes 4 de julio en el Palacio de los Deportes Carlos El Famoso Hernández.

Los entrenadores italianos Nicola Negro y Andrea Genova tendrán su primera experiencia no solo en Juegos Centroamericanos pero primera evento oficial como entrenadores de las selecciones naciones de México y El Salvador respectivamente.

Antonio Rizola, Entrenador de Colombia: “Llegamos acá con la misma motivación que estuvimos en Barranquilla, en donde no se esperaba que Colombia alcanzara la final de los Juegos. Pero acá estamos en un grupo distinto, con Cuba, Trinidad & Tobago y el país anfitrión, en el que cada partido es muy importante, siempre me preocupo, pero la preocupación me motiva. Mi equipo no puede confiarse de que porque llegó hace cuatro años a las finales, ahora también, estamos trabajando fuerte para ello”.

Pablo Acuña, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “Venimos de hacer un buen papel en el Final Four, entendemos que son equipos diferentes, pero fue una buena preparación para el equipo y entrar en confianza, además de ver tácticamente lo que necesitamos para dar un salto más grande. Estamos en un grupo fuerte y tenemos que competir con mucho enfoque y disciplina, el equipo está listo para eso. Más que resultados, estamos buscando tener un rendimiento óptimo dentro de nuestras estadísticas y nuestro proceso”.

Tomás Fernández Arteaga, Entrenador de Cuba: “La preparación del equipo está aceptable. Tenemos un único propósito que es obtener un lugar altamente decoroso, que incluye una medalla. Nos hemos preparado bien, pero en la cancha se verán los resultados”.

Andrea Genova, Entrenador de El Salvador: “Llevamos cuatro meses trabajando juntos, estoy acá desde febrero. Para muchas jugadoras será su primera experiencia y para mí el primer partido oficial. Estamos acá para adquirir experiencia como equipo, intentar dar alguna sorpresa y ver qué sale”.

Nicola Negro, Entrenador de México: “Estoy muy feliz de entrar en este mundo de Norceca, es un honor. Llego con mucho entusiasmo y recién comienzo con la selección mexicana para llevar mi experiencia con el objetivo de hacer crecer al equipo. Como cada comienzo, se necesita tiempo. Los Juegos Centroamericanos serán la primera de muchas competencias para este 2023, estamos confiados y queremos hacer un buen trabajo”.

Fernando Morales, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Este es un equipo joven y talentoso, se le suman Brittnay Abercrombie y Neira Ortiz que le darán un poco más de experiencia al grupo. Sabemos que nos jugamos todo en cada partido, iniciamos con un rival fuerte (México), pero nuestras jugadoras han estado en situaciones difíciles de juego como en nuestra Liga profesional y sabemos que aguantan la presión”.

Wagner Pacheco, Entrenador Asistente de República Dominicana: “El equipo viene de competir de la VNL, solo hay un cambio de una central. El equipo viene fuerte tras competir en un torneo exigente, con dos triunfos importantes para cerrar la VNL, por lo que considero que somos el equipo de mayor nivel acá. Pero estamos muy conscientes del cansancio de las jugadoras, de un mes de competencia, cambio de horarios y el viaje largo que hay que manejarlo”.

Saleem Ali, Entrenador de Trinidad & Tobago: “Tenemos cuatro jugadoras con experiencia y ocho no tienen tanta; nuestras dos acomodadoras son jóvenes. Esto es todo nuevo para el equipo. Estamos preparados en la medida de lo posible, y nuestro objetivo principal es la Copa del Caribe que es en menos de un mes, por lo que estamos acá para obtener experiencia para usarla a ese nivel”.
