Copa Panamericana Mayor masculina con nivel parejo, según entrenadores

Guadalajara, agosto 14, 2023.- La XVI Copa Panamericana Mayor Masculina de Voleibol que dará el último cupo a los Juegos Panamericanos Santiago 2023 para la Confederación Norceca además de puntos en el ranking, iniciará este martes en la Arena Astros.

Cuba, México y República Dominicana ya cuentan con el boleto a los Juegos de Santiago 2023 y el mejor equipo de NORCECA del ranking de esta Copa Panamericana se adueñará del boleto disponible.

Los entrenadores de los 10 equipos participantes concuerdan que este torneo será muy nivelado, ya que la Copa Panamericana sirve para continuar con un proceso de formación de los nuevos talentos, que conseguirán más experiencia y roce de juego.

Mario Izquierdo, Entrenador de Cuba: “traemos un colectivo bastante homogéneo, con jugadores de categorías inferiores a quienes se les da la oportunidad de conseguir experiencia y así garantizar la reserva para los equipos nacionales. Hacía años que estábamos anhelando un bien llamado ‘segundo grupo’, que le da un determinado descanso a las figuras élites que tenemos establecidas dentro del equipo mayor”.

Daniel Nejamkin, entrenador de Chile: “Estos nos sirve para preparación para Santiago 2023 que nos permita llegar de la mejor manera. La apuesta del equipo es entregar el máximo en cada uno de los partidos y presentar el mejor nivel posible. Es normal tener nuevos jugadores, estamos siempre buscando nuevos talentos que vienen de las selecciones menores para que sigan el proceso para la selección adulta y los mejores están aquí. La incorporación de jóvenes la tomamos con mucha naturalidad”.

Andy Read, entrenador de USA: “Hay algunos jugadores que vienen del proceso de categoría menores, y en comparación con el equipo sub-21 este es mucho más experimentado, tenemos muchos jugadores que creemos que tendrán la posibilidad de estar en el futuro equipo nacional masculino de Estados Unidos. Esperamos verlos pronto en las listas de los Campeonatos Mundiales y en la Liga Mundial. Estamos buscando mejorar en el ranking del torneo y ojalá nos vayamos a casa con la medalla de oro”.

Carlos Schwanke, entrenador de Brasil: “Tenemos nuevos talentos con la intención de darles más experiencia internacional. Cuando Brasil está en un evento la idea es siempre estar en los primeros lugares, para representar bien al país. Siempre intentamos colocar a nuestros jugadores que no tienen espacio en VNL, en Mundiales, para que cuando vallan a estos torneos ya tengan experiencia”.

José Gutiérrez, entrenador República Dominicana: “Esta es nuestra cuarta participación en Copa Panamericana, pero este año tiene más equipos y eso es un sabor especial. La idea es tratar de seguir mejorando, que el equipo masculino siga la línea de desarrollo, porque estamos demostrando que se ha ido creciendo. Queremos que el equipo sea capaz de mantener que ha mostrado hasta ahora, más allá del resultado que se pueda presentar porque existen objetivos técnicos que necesitamos cumplir”.

Jorge Azair López, entrenador de Mexico: “Este es un torneo fuerte, bastante parejo porque las potencias no traen a sus equipos principales y eso nos hace pensar que tenemos una competencia muy pareja. Estamos en casa y como siempre el objetivo es ganar el evento. Estamos en un proceso con un equipo joven, con rotación de jugadores, pero siempre pensando en salir a ganar”.

Daniel Lewis, entrenador de Canadá: “Tenemos un grupo realmente interesante aquí, una combinación de jóvenes y jugadores con experiencia. Jugar en México es grandioso, hay muchos buenos equipos aquí y jugadores buenos de cantera, eso permite a jugadores que necesitan descansar y entrenar para otros eventos. Esperamos un torneo realmente bueno, por eso estamos emocionados y felices.”

Sebastian Ortiz, entrenador de Colombia: “Traemos un equipo mixto, con jóvenes y jugadores de experiencia, que tratarán de dar la mejor presentación y nos servirá de preparación para los próximos eventos como el Sudamericano”.

Juan Carlos Alas, entrenador de Perú: “Es nuestro primer torneo en un año, nos servirá de preparación para los Juegos Sudamericanos, pero sin dejar de competir. Nos hemos preparado bien, servirá para ajustar elementos de cara a otra competencia, estamos en un grupo difícil con equipos poderosos, pero daremos batalla”.

Oswald Antonetti , entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Es importante continuar con un proceso con los jugadores jóvenes, sabemos que son talentosos y se encontrarán con un nivel de juego serio y de nivel en la Copa Panamericana y vamos a mantenernos en constante crecimiento y aprovechar cada oportunidad que tengamos”.

Pan American Senior Men's Volleyball Cup with equal level, according to coaches

Guadalajara, August 14, 2023.- The XVI Pan American Senior Men's Volleyball Cup that will give the last ticket to the Santiago 2023 Pan American Games for NORCECA Confederation and ranking points, will begin this Tuesday at the Astros Arena in Guadalajara.

Cuba, Mexico, and the Dominican Republic have already qualified to Santiago 2023 Games; but the cup will grant to the best NORCECA team ranked at the end of the competition the last ticket for the Pan-American Games.

The coaches of the 10 participating teams agree that this tournament will be very balanced since the Pan American Cup will allow to continue a training process for the new talents, who will get more experience and tactics.

Mario Izquierdo, head coach from Cuba: "We bring a fairly homogeneous group, with players from the base categories who are given the opportunity to get experience to guarantee the reserve for the national teams. For years we have been longing for a so-called 'second group', which gives a certain rest to the elite figures that we have established within the senior team."

Daniel Nejamkin, head coach from Chile: "These help us to prepare for Santiago 2023 will allow us to get there with the best level. The team's bet is to deliver the maximum in each of the matches and present the best possible level. It is normal to have new players, we are always looking for new talents that come from the base teams to follow the process for the senior team and the best are here. We take the incorporation of young people very naturally."

Andy Read, head coach from USA: "There are some players who come from the youth process, and compared to the under-21 team this is much more experienced, we have many players who we believe will have the possibility to be in the future U.S. men's national team. We hope to see them soon on the World Championship and World League rosters. We are looking to improve in the ranking of the tournament and hopefully we will go home with the gold medal."

Carlos Schwanke, Head coach from Brazil: "We have new talents with the intention of giving them more international experience. When Brazil is in an event the idea is always to be in the first places, to represent the country well. We always try to place our players who are not able to be in the roster of the VNL or World Cups, so that when they go to these tournaments, they already have experience."

José Gutiérrez, Head Coach from Dominican Republic: "This is our fourth participation in the Pan American Cup, but this year has more teams and that is a special meaning. The idea is to try to continue improving, that the men's team follows the line of development, because we are showing that it has been growing. We want the team to be able to maintain what it has shown so far, beyond the result that can be presented because there are technical objectives that we need to meet."

Jorge Azair López, Head Coach from Mexico: "This is a strong tournament, quite even because the powerful countries do not bring their main teams and that makes us think that we have a very even competition. We are at home and always the goal is to win the event. We are in a process with a young team, with rotation of players, but always thinking about going out to win."

Daniel Lewis, Head Coach from Canada: "We have a really interesting group here, a combination of young and experienced players. Playing in Mexico is great, there are many good teams here and good youth players, that allows players who need to rest and train for other events. We expect a really good tournament, that's why we're excited and happy."

Sebastian Ortiz, Head Coach from Colombia: "We bring a mixed team, with young people and experienced players, who will try to give the best presentation and will be as preparation for upcoming events such as the South American."

Juan Carlos Alas, Head Coach from Peru: "It is our first tournament in a year, it will help us prepare for the South American Games, but we will not stop competing. We have prepared well, it will help to adjust elements for another competition, we are in a difficult group with powerful teams, but we will fight".

Oswald Antonetti, Head Coach from Puerto Rico: "It is important to continue with a process with the young players, we know they are talented and will meet a serious level of play and level in the Pan American Cup and we will keep constantly growing and take advantage of every opportunity we have."
