St Lucia stops Antigua in straight sets

ROSEAU, DOMINICA. Sept. 19, 2023: St Lucia registered a 3-0(25-17, 25- 9, 27-25) win over Antigua and Barbuda, in the opening match of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association(ECVA) Under-23 Women’s Championships, here at the Massacre Indoor Facility.

Playing in Pool A of the championships, St Lucia started positively, hence won the first two sets with relative ease, but had to dig deep to avoid an extension of the match, as the Antiguan made a fist of it in the third set.

Both teams’ Head Coaches and Captains, gave their assessments of the match.

Stuart Albert- Head Coach of St Lucia : “It was a good win, which definitely has boosted our morale... We have five players who are playing at this level for the first time... Am glad for the win, although, so we had to dig deep in the third set, but we came out victorious”.

Amalia Louis – Captain of St Lucia: “ I believe we played a good game... We were hungry for the win... We needed the win just to start us off strong, even though we felt a little pressure in the third set”.

Rosemarie Simon- Coach of Antigua: “I am not totally disappointed in the ladies...I think they played really hard in the first set...The opposing team changed their line up in the second set so we had to make some adjustments, but our main hitter got hurt so we also had to make another adjustment and that affected the team a bit ... All in all, I am proud of the ladies”.

Jassania Joseph- Captain of Antigua: “ Despite the loss, I am very proud of my team... We came here with the mentally, so we played hard, but St Lucia played a little better”.

Match two features Dominica versus the British Virgin Islands in Pool B.

Dominica outlasts BVI

ROSEAU, DOMINICA. Sept. 19, 2023: Dominica recorded a hard fought 3-1 (25-18, 22-25, 25-14, 25-19) win over the British Virgin Islands in match two of Pool B, in the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Under-23 Women's Championship, here at the Massacre Indoor Facility.

Buoyed by home support, Dominica stayed ahead of their opponents in the first set, however, the British Virgin Islands regrouped to take the second.

Dominica readjusted their tactics employing more hitting across the court, much to their benefit in the next two sets.

In his assessment of his team's win, Dominica's Head Coach- Albert Loblack was happy with the showing of his charges.

"It was a good win for us... We really wanted to win in three straight sets, but we gave up a set, however, there were lots of positives that we came away with", Loblack commented.

He thought that his team's involvement in previous tournaments, helped in the overall preparations for the Under-23 championships.

Loblack's opposite number- Stephen Payne, thought his players gave up crucial points at critical stages of the match, hence their defeat.

"Our girls allowed the match to slip through their hands, by committing too many unforced errors", Payne related.

Undaunted by the loss to Dominica, Payne expects the British Virgin Islands to reassess the first match and return stronger in their second.

Match three is in Pool A, and features St Vincent and the Grenadines against St Maarten.
