Atmosphere is set for the Women's U20 NORCECA

FORT LAUDERDALE, United States, July 25, 2016. – As the atmosphere is set to qualify one team to the 2017 FIVB World Championship to be held in Mexico, the NORCECA Women's U-20 Continental Championship will get underway on Tuesday at the Don Taft University Center in NOVA Southeastern University of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

The full details of the tournament were explained during the general technical meeting chaired by First FIVB Vice-President and NORCECA President Cristobal Marte Hoffiz, accompanied by the Competition Director Tom Pingel of USA Volleyball.

A high leveled competition is expected as the eight teams gave their insights prior to the event. Among them, two times Olympian Laurie Corbelli as US Head Coach said "we are all competitive women; personally I'm not a very good loser".

Laurie Corbelli, United States: "I was on the 1980 boycott team that did not go to Moscow and won the Olympic silver at Los Angeles 1988, I was member of the US team for seven years which shaped me with a strong vision of the importance of hard work, setting goals and representing United States; I am honored to share my experience with my players as I'm coaching a national team for the first time. These girls are incredibly talented athletes, and whatever they decide to pursue in future competitions or being USA representatives, I wish to pass on all the positive things volleyball brings to life. We have developed a close bond as a group, they have worked hard to do their best here, to make this a growing experience and hopefully win the gold".

Andres Lopez, Costa Rica: "I've been in charge of the youth and junior teams of Costa Rica for a year and along with my national federation we set a two Olympic cycle project to recover our game level in the senior category. Six U-18 and six U-20 players are part of this team, they won the Central American championship. For us, the most important thing in this competition is to show our best volleyball, obviously our opponents are more experienced and it will be demanding".

Roberto Garcia, Cuba: "The last pool-play match against Dominican Republic is decisive; if we win we can advance directly to the semifinals. There is only one ticket available for the world championship and we must go after it from the beginning. The absence of Melissa Vargas will be noticed, she had needed a shoulder operation thinking about her future as an important member of our national team".

Wagner Pacheco, Dominican Republic: "This group has continuity in its preparation; it's a combination of youth players with six FIVB world champions. The High Performance tournament in which we competed here in Ft. Lauderdale was our preparation and the results were good, we won four of the five matches played and finished second. The team improved a lot and is at its full capacity. As always, we are aiming high but it won't be easy because USA has a good team and is playing at home".

Lezin Jean-Luc, French St. Martin: “It’s the first time that French St. Martin competes at a continental level that makes us very proud to be here. This is a highly leveled competition, we are excited to learn and gain experience to continue competing at continental tournaments. I’ve been in charge of this team for a period of four years in which we’ve worked hard to become champions of our region; this event gives us the opportunity to grow”.

Osse Jean Francois, Haiti: “We won the CAZOVA title in December which I helped to earn from four years of hard work, first as assistant coach. We aren’t used to play at this level and it’s a chance for us to evaluate what we’ve been doing and what we need to do for the future. We will be facing top teams so our strategy is based on service and defense to deal with our differences against them”.

Francisco Jimenez Mexico: “It was difficult to gather the team, but each player was active in other tournaments. All the efforts in Mexico are concentrated in the men’s Olympic qualification so our preparation has been little. We are highly committed in performing well because we will be hosting the world championship next year and we want a good result. I believe that it’s more important to focus on our game than thinking about results”.

Juan Cartagena, Puerto Rico: “We played in several club tournaments in Puerto Rico and we competed at the High Performance International Tournament here in Ft. Lauderdale, in total three weeks of intense work in which we were able to adapt our players in different positions in order to set a game plan for the continental championship. As everyone here, our mind is set on reaching the podium. This group is very solid because they have been together since the U18 category, half of them played at the FIVB World Championship held last year in Puerto Rico”.

Atmósfera lista para el NORCECA Sub-20 Femenil

FORT LAUDERDALE, Estados Unidos, 25 de julio de 2016.- La atmósfera está lista para clasificar a un equipo al Campeonato Mundial 2017 de la FIVB a celebrarse en México, para que inicie el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-20 Femenino este martes en Don Taft University Center de NOVA Southeastern University en Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

Los detalles completos del torneo se explicaron durante la reunión técnica general, dirigida por el Primer Presidente de la FIVB y Presidente de NORCECA Cristóbal Marte Hoffiz, acompañado por el Director de Competencia Tom Pingel de USA Volleyball.

Los entrenadores compartieron sus ideas indicando que se espera una competencia de alto nivel. Entre ellos, las dos veces Olímpica Laurie Corbelli como Director Técnico de EEUU dijo “somos mujeres muy competitivas; personalmente soy una mala perdedora”.

Laurie Corbelli, Estados Unidos: “Fui parte del equipo de Estados Unidos cuando se boicotearon los Juegos de Moscú en 1980 y que ganó la plata Olímpica en Los Ángeles 1988, fui parte del equipo nacional durante siete años, formándome con una fuerte visión de la importancia del trabajo duro, trazarse metas y representar a Estados Unidos y me honra compartir mi experiencia con las jugadoras siendo esta la primera vez que dirijo una selección nacional. Este grupo de niñas son atletas talentosas, y sin importar lo que decidan alcanzar en futuras competencias o como representantes de Estados Unidos, deseo transmitir todo lo positivo que el voleibol aporta en la vida. Hemos construido una unión especial como grupo, ellas han trabajado fuertemente para dar lo mejor, hacer esta una experiencia de crecimiento y ojalá ganemos el oro”.

Andrés López, Costa Rica: “Llevo un año a cargo de los equipos juveniles de Costa Rica y me tracé junto a la dirigencia de nuestra federación un proyecto de dos ciclos Olímpicos para regresar a tener una selección mayor estable, con nuestro nivel acostumbrado. El equipo lo conforman seis jugadoras Sub-18 y seis Sub-20, ellas se coronaron campeonas de Centroamérica. Lo más importante en esta competencia es demostrar nuestro mejor voleibol, obviamente los rivales son de experiencia mundial y será muy exigente”.

Roberto García, Cuba: “Tenemos un juego fundamental que es el último de la fase clasificatoria que será ante República Dominicana porque nos daría el pase directo a las semifinales. Solo hay una plaza al mundial y hay que salir a buscarla desde el primer día. La ausencia de Melissa Vargas se sentirá, ella tuvo que ser operada del hombro, pensando en su futuro como parte fundamental de nuestra selección”.

Osse Jean Francois, Haiti: “Ganamos el título de CAZOVA en diciembre, al que contribuí con cuatro años de arduo trabajo, primero siendo el entrenador asistente. No estamos acostumbrados a jugar a este nivel, siendo esta la oportunidad para evaluar lo que estamos haciendo y lo que debemos de hacer en el futuro. Nos enfrentaremos a equipos de primer nivel por lo que establecimos una estrategia basada en el saque y la defensa para contrarrestar nuestras diferencias ante ellos”.

Francisco Jiménez México: “Fue difícil reunir al equipo para entrenar juntas, pero cada una a nivel individual estuvo activa en otros torneos. Ahora con la clasificación Olímpica del equipo masculino, la atención ha estado concentrada en ellos, por lo que nuestra preparación fue poca. El compromiso de un buen desempeño acá es más alto puesto que seremos la sede del mundial el próximo año y queremos hacer un buen papel. Pienso que es más valioso concentrarse en nuestro nivel de juego que en resultados”.

Lezin Jean-Luc, San Martín Francesa: “Es la primera vez que San Martín Francesa compite a nivel continental y por ello estamos muy orgullosos. Esta es una competencia de alto nivel, estamos muy emocionados por aprender y adquirir experiencia para continuar participando en torneos continentales. He estado a cargo del equipo por cuatro años, en este período de tiempo se ha trabajado fuerte para coronarnos campeón de nuestra región; este evento nos dará la oportunidad de crecer”.

Wagner Pacheco, República Dominicana: “Este es un grupo que trae una continuidad de trabajo, es un equipo combinado de jugadoras infantiles y seis jugadoras campeonas mundiales. El torneo High Performance que disputamos acá en Ft. Lauderdale fue nuestra preparación y el resultado fue bueno, ganamos cuatro partidos de cinco y finalizamos con buen nivel en segundo lugar. El equipo mejoró mucho y el equipo está a un cien por ciento de su capacidad de juego. Como siempre pensamos en alto, no será fácil porque Estados Unidos tiene un buen equipo y está en casa”.

Juan Cartagena, Puerto Rico: “El equipo tuvo varios torneos previos a nivel de clubes en Puerto Rico y el torneo de High Performance acá en Ft. Lauderdale, fueron tres semanas intensas de trabajo en donde pudimos ver la adaptación de las jugadoras en distintas posiciones para trazar un plan de juego para el Continental. Nuestra mentalidad, como la de todos, es alcanzar el pódium. Este equipo es muy sólido porque lleva una continuidad de trabajo desde la categoría Sub-18, la mitad del grupo jugó el Campeonato Mundial de la FIVB que se celebró el año pasado en Puerto Rico”.
