PRESS RELEASE:

Match #3

St. Maarten open their account with a win; Grenada suffers second loss

Road Town, Tortola. October 12, 2023

St. Maarten started their Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male championship campaign with a win, at the expense of Team Grenada, in match three of the championship. St. Maarten won in three straight sets; 25 19, 26 24 and 25 7.

Captain of St. Maarten Rajheem Meulens was the top scorer of the match with 15 points. Grenada's attack was led by outside hitter Jamal Collins, who had 10 points.

The loss was the second straight defeat for Team Grenada, less than 24 hours after playing in match one (1).

Team St. Maarten was able to absorb the shock of a quick start from Grenada through precision serving and set plays that unsettled the opponent. They also managed to stifle brief spurts of aggression by Team Grenada.

“We are thrilled to have overcome nervousness and register our first victory. The team's confidence increased after every set,” team captain Meulens of St. Maarten said.

“Our expectation is to always win and I am confident that our level of play will improve even more as the championship progresses,” his coach Nicholas Henrietta added.

“Of course, we wanted this victory and we are disappointed but the message to my teammates is to regroup and play with even more confidence,” Grenada's captain Jabarie Collins said.

“It is frustrating that we are not seeing the full potential of our players. Hopefully we can decrease the number of unforced errors and string together some winning sets,” Grenada's Coach Javin Noel offered.

Grenada is scheduled to engage host British Virgin Islands tomorrow evening (October 13). St. Maarten will face Dominica in the morning.

Match #4

St. Kitts and Nevis register first match victory

Road Town, Tortola.
October 12, 2023.

- Team St. Kitts and Nevis scored a straight sets victory over St. Vincent and the Grenadines, as both teams opened their match accounts at the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championship. St. Kitts and Nevis won 25 22, 25 16 and 25 22. This was a pool B encounter (match 4).

Aziel Belle spearheaded the attack for St. Kitts and Nevis with eleven (11) points. However, captain Jamaar Cropper of St. Vincent and the Grenadines was the top scorer of the match with fifteen (15) points.

St. Kitts and Nevis produced some services that proved problematic to St. Vincent and the Grenadines and this in turn impacted their opponent's ability to mesh consistent potent attacks.

"We are happy to have gotten the win. This is important as we work towards achieving our goals. The first match jitters are over with and we are expecting an even higher level of volleyball from our ranks," Zendai Richards, the captain for St. Kitts and Nevis, shared.

"We have been training for a few weeks now and we are working concertedly to execute the various strategies we have adapted in practice," Coach Rick Swan Coach of St. Kitts and Nevis added.

"It is important that we do not panic and we regroup for our second match," captain Cropper of St. Vincent and the Grenadines advised.

"We were having challenges with our attacks this morning but we will focus on rebounding," the St. Vincent and the Grenadines coach Daryl Franklyn added.

Next up for St. Kitts and Nevis is Antigua and Barbuda, on October 13, in the morning, then St. Vincent and the Grenadines have the same opponent later in the evening.

Match #5

Winning start for Antigua and Barbuda

Road Town, Tortola. October 12, 2023.

-Antigua and Barbuda were able to overcome some stubborn resistance from Saba to win their pool B match in four (4) sets; 25 21, 18 25, 25 23 and 25 14.

The victors distributed their attacking around the various positions and were also able to edge Saba in the defensive categories. Miguel Lugo of Antigua and Barbuda was the joint top scorer of the match with nine (9) points. On the other side of the net, Tyreke Hassell led Saba with nine (9) points.

This was match 5 of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championships.

“It was really reassuring to hear my teammates being vocal. We understand that communication is very important in the game and I am proud of how much they displayed good communication,” Antigua and Barbuda’s captain Kermani Joseph stated.

“It is always good to win but it is even more satisfying when you improve as you win,” his coach, Michael Hamilton explained.

“We lost yes but I am so proud of this moment. We would have faced several challenges in getting wholesome training sessions before coming here but I am proud of how we have grabbed this opportunity to play,” captain of the Saba team Jalen Robinson related.

“This is the kind of competition that Saba needs to be exposed to accelerate the development of the young players. I always say we either win or we learn, and we are learning,” Saba coach Patricio Bridgewater emphasized.

Saba’s second match is against St. Lucia tomorrow morning, October 13, while Antigua and Barbuda play St. Kitts and Nevis.

Match #6

Two wins in one day for St. Maarten

Road Town, Tortola. October 12, 2023.

- It is two wins in one day for St. Maarten at the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championship. Both wins came on day 2 of competition for the pool A team.

The match 6 win came at the expense of Anguilla, who have now lost both their games so far.

Both teams jostled for the upper hand in a marathon first set before St. Maarten claimed a 30 28 set win. Anguilla kept pecking at the St.

Maarten defense but Team St. Maarten eventually found a way to claim sets two and three, 25 20 and 25 21, respectively.

Top scorer of the match was St. Maarten's captain Rajheem Meulens, who scored twenty-one (21) points. The bulk of Anguilla's offense came from outside hitter Aidin Richardson. He had ten (10) points.

The St. Maarten captain Meulens and their coach Nicholas Henrietta both commended Anguilla for the tenacity shown. They indicated that they utilized the match against Anguilla to fine tune some offensive strategies, in hopes of using them in future games.

Anguilla captain Trevon Smith, visibly disappointed with the loss, pledged a strong rebound for the upcoming games. Coach Jason Liburd extracted the positives from the match and indicated that he saw significant improvements in several categories, compared to the first match.

St. Maarten next plays Dominica tomorrow morning, October 13. While Anguilla rests on Friday and resume on October 14.

Match #7

St. Vincent and the Grenadines win ‘thriller in Tortola’

Road Town, Tortola. October 13, 2023.

-- St. Vincent and the Grenadines downed their neighbours St. Lucia in a five set thriller, at the Multi-Purpose Sports Complex yesterday, October 12. The pool B clash was match seven (7) of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championship.

Captain Jamaar Cropper of St. Vincent and the Grenadines took his team on his shoulder and launched a barrage of attacks on his opponents. He finished the game with a mammoth 34 points. His heavy hitting is what led his team to come back from two sets down to claim the epic encounter. Ironically, it was a calculated dink from Cropper that ended the match, a stark contrast to his thunderous spikes.

Outside attacker Lamontagne was the top scorer for St. Lucia with 20 points.

St. Lucia won the first set 25 22, took the second set 25 23 and then Cropper and his team went into overdrive, roaring back 25 15, 25 22 and 15 13.

The match had all the elements of an instant classic. St. Vincent and the Grenadines overcame a red card, a yellow card, the scare of injury to their captain and persistent attacks from St. Lucia in the latter part of set two to turn the tide of the match.

“We needed this win and my teammates came through,” the St. Vincent and the Grenadines captain exclaimed.

His coach, Daryl Franklyn, indicated that the game plan was to improve on several aspects of the game that they felt failed them in their earlier match and he saw a significant improvement.

“It was a tough loss but a great match, nonetheless. We will just have to regroup for our next match,” the St. Lucia captain Remy indicated.

“We did not execute several fundamentals and that cost us dearly. However, the game was very competitive and I applaud both teams,” the St. Lucia Coach Terry Verdant stated.

It was the second match of the championship for St. Vincent and the Grenadines and the first one for St. Lucia.

St. Lucia plays Saba this morning (October 13) while St. Vincent and the Grenadines play Antigua and Barbuda later in the evening.

Match #8

Second win in as many games for Dominica

Road Town, Tortola.
October 13, 2023.

-- Dominica overwhelmed host British Virgin Islands in three straight sets to add another victory to their tally. The match 8 win was the culminating match of day 2 at the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) U23 Male Championship.

The final scores were 25 13, 25 7 and 25 13.

Nester James, with his 11 points, led four players from Dominica who had double digit totals in points.

This was also Dominica's second win in as many games.

Captain Kymal Panchoo was the only attacker of the British Virgin Islands who troubled the Dominica defense. He had six points.

The British Virgin Islands were undone by aggressive serves, quick attacks and formidable blocking.

Dominica's captain Keaun Reeve expressed his joy at a second win and noted that it was critical to build momentum as the tournament progresses.

Captain Panchoo of the British Virgin Islands, though humbled by the loss, gave the assurance that his team will muster the energy to rebound for their next game.

Dominica plays St. Maarten this morning, October 13. The British Virgin Islands come up against Grenada later this afternoon.
