Match #15

Dominica secure semifinal spot with win over Anguilla

Road Town, Tortola. October 14, 2023. - Dominica formally secured their spot in the semifinal of the Eastern Caribbean Volleyball Association (ECVA) Male Championship after victory over Anguilla in their pool A clash. Dominica won all four matches that they played. The final scores were 25 19, 25 13 and 25 19.

Dominica featured their secondary unit so their primary players got some rest ahead of the semifinals.

Both teams a bit flatfooted at the start of the first set but as the game progressed, they began to execute plays. Dominica surged ahead to reach the second technical timeout with a comfortable lead. Anguilla fought back but Dominica was able to keep them at bay to finish the set.

The second set was a little lop-sided as Larian Tulloch, the opposite for Dominica, unleashed some crunching jump serves and Anguilla were unable to make the required adjustment. Dominica enjoyed a sizeable lead by the second technical timeout and cruised to the set win.

Anguilla was able to recover and give a better representation in the third set but Dominica managed to stave them off.

Dominica's coach Jeffrey Edmund indicated that he was very pleased with his second unit's performance against Anguilla and welcomed the opportunity rest his players.

Coach Jason Liburd of Anguilla expressed disappointment at the loss but he assured that his team is committed to play even more competitively for their upcoming match.

Anguilla, who are winless, play against Grenada later this afternoon.

The results of upcoming matches will determine who Dominica plays in the semifinal.

Match #16

St. Kitts and Nevis through to semifinals after win over St. Lucia

Road Town, Tortola. October 14, 2023. - St. Kitts and Nevis are through to the semifinal of the ECVA U23 Male Championship, after defeating St. Lucia in four sets, in match 15. The two teams have been perennial rivals and the pool B match produced anxious moments, exceptional defence and commendable offence.

The final score was 26 28, 25 14, 25 23 and 25 18. St. Kitts and Nevis boast an unblemished record in their four matches.

Top scorer of the match was St. Kitts and Nevis' captain Zendai Richards, with 25 points. Rio Jaden Victor led St. Lucia with 11 points.

St. Lucia rallied from four points down late in the first set. They continued to apply pressure forcing St. Kitts and Nevis to make critical attacking errors that eventually led to the set win for St. Lucia.

St. Kitts and Nevis responded with a quick start to the second set, taking a 4 to 0 lead. St. Lucia produced the expected fight-back but they were never able to recover from the early blitz. A service ace ended a comfortable second set for St. Kitts and Nevis.

The third set was a nail-biter, with St. Lucia controlling the lead until the latter half of the set, when St. Kitts and Nevis capitalized on several errors. They were gifted the set when the St. Lucia player served into the net.

In the fourth set, St. Kitts and Nevis maintained the high energy from the previous set and forced some key substitutions from St. Lucia. They sensed victory and seized the opportunity to close out the match.

Captain Zendai Richards said his squad was beaming with pride because of the victory. He noted that they will continue to work on fine-tuning plays for upcoming matches.

St. Lucia's captain Kernel Remy indicated that his team was unable to execute their game plan because of errant passes and other unforced errors. He expressed disappointment with the loss but said they were keen to work on executing better volleyball in their upcoming match against Antigua and Barbuda.

St. Kitts and Nevis await the results of upcoming matches to know their semifinal opponent. Semifinal matches are tomorrow morning, October 15.

The final scores were 25 7, 25 9 and 25 13.

The joint top scorers of the match were St. Vincent and the Grenadines' Shadron Delpesche and captain Jamaar Cropper, who both had 16 points. Saba's top scorer was captain Jalen Robinson.

St. Vincent and the Grenadines dominated every offensive category. This was inclusive of aces, with the tally reaching 15.

"We are excited to be in the semifinal, which is one step closer to our objective of securing a podium spot," captain Cropper stated.

"We didn't win our matches but it is important to use this platform as a channel for our continued development," Saba's captain Robinson said.

Saba's tournament is ended but St. Vincent and the Grenadines will know their opponent in the semi-final later this evening, when St. Maarten and host British Virgin Islands clash.

Grenada gets consolation victory over Anguilla

Road Town, Tortola. October 14, 2023. - Grenada secured a consolation victory over their pool A counterparts Anguilla, in match 18 of the ECVA U23 Male Championship. It was the sole win for Grenada, in four matches. Anguilla finished the tournament without registering a win. The final scores were 25 16, 25 16 and 25 19.

Top scorer for the match was Grenada's outside hitter Jamal Collins, with 15 points.

Anguilla's captain Trevon Smith scored 6 points.

Grenada used the period between the first and second technical timeouts to consolidate on their lead and put the second set out of the reach of Anguilla. A huge part of the separation was tough serving.

The second set was a tale of two halves. Anguilla led at the first technical timeout. However, Grenada put together a string of attacks and coupled with some errant passes from Anguilla, they surpassed and built a lead.

Grenada shot out to an early lead in the third and looked to be in cruise control but Anguilla began chipping into their lead. Grenada then took a quick time out and that seemingly disrupted the rhythm of Anguilla's aggression.

Grenada's coach Javin Noel revealed that his team's strategy was to take the game by intervals, first and second technical timeouts, with the goal of reaching each interval first.

Anguilla's coach Jason Liburd stated that the tournament is a major step in the development of his youths and he envisions a strong future for his volleyball program.

The ECVA U23 Male Championship semifinals are tomorrow morning, October 15. The confirmed semi-finalists are St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Vincent and the Grenadines and Dominica. The fourth contender will be identified later this evening.

St. Maarten clinch semifinal spot; beat host BVI in thrilling 5 setter

Photo: Marcin Kwiatkowski of St. Martin was a difference maker in the match

Road Town, Tortola. October 14, 2023. - St. Maarten are the fourth semifinalist in the ECVA U23 Male Championship after a thrilling five set victory over host the British Virgin Islands. The match 19 win was laced with emotion, stunning turning arounds and nail-biting rallies.

St. Maarten responded after an inspirational move, where their captain was inserted into the match in the latter half of the fourth set. He was sidelined up to that point because of personal reasons but his introduction to the game motivated his team. They took that momentum right into the fifth set.

Top scorer for the match was the British Virgin Islands Kymal Panchoo with 16 points. The leading scorer for St. Maarten was Marcin Kwiatkowski. He tallied 15 points.

The host team British Virgin Islands won the first set behind several key blocks and forcing the opponent to play out of system. The vocal support of the home crowd also provided added incentive to come out firing.

St. Maarten were able to silence the crowd with added hustle and consistent serving and attacks and by the time both teams began trading points in the latter stages of the set, the visitors had established a comfortable lead.

In the third set, St. Maarten rode the momentum from the previous set. They led eight (8) to zero (0) at the first technical timeout. Playing from behind proved too much for the host and they conceded the set.

The host came alive in the fourth set. They reverted to their blocking strategy and it rattled the St. Maarten players. Their captain Panchoo got a whiff of the “Midas touch”; he carried his team. It was a stunning turnaround for the home side.

The fifth set was a full on battle, as both teams fought to gain the advantage. At the point of switching, St. Maarten held a slim lead and they were able to diffuse a last charge to steal the set.

St. Martin’s coach Nicholas Henrietta was beaming with pride. He emphasized how proud he was of his team and noted that they will relish the victory as it provides additional confidence heading into the semifinal.

The British Virgin Islands coach Kwele Williams said he was impressed with the level of play that his team showcased in the loss and noted that it was indicative of a passion to continue their volleyball growth.

The four semifinalists are St. Kitts and Nevis, Dominica, St. Vincent and the Grenadines and St. Maarten. Both semifinals will be played tomorrow morning (October 15).
