Three World Championship Tickets Up for Grabs at NORCECA Girls' U17 in Honduras

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, November 20, 2023.- Eight national teams will battle in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, at the first edition of the NORCECA Girls' Under 17 Continental Championship to earn three tickets to the inaugural FIVB Age-Group World Championship to be held in 2024.

The head coaches had the chance to give their first statements on the eve of the competition.

Amy Wilson, Head Coach of Canada: "Our team prepared by coming together and practicing, we also did some sessions on zoom for team bonding as we are spread out from across the country. What I expect from this event is some self-growth, self-improvement within our athletes as well as our coaching staff, to continue to work hard and to get to the play-offs".

Nicolás Docquier, Head Coach of Costa Rica: "We have prepared very well, the girls have been in competition in our local tournaments and that gives us an advantage. We haven't had many days together, nevertheless, the athletes are committed to the team, it's a new experience for them and for me as head coach. We are excited, happy and we will give our all on the court".

Rogelio Goytizolo, Head Coach of Cuba: "It's really good that we are going to inaugurate a competition that had never been held before in the area. We are seeking an improvement in the performance of the women's team in Cuba, and it is very important to do it from the bases, creating a higher level of competitiveness. We hope to gain the best results from the competition. We are here to book a ticket to the World Championship; the girls are coming with high hopes to accomplish it".

Wilson Sánchez, Head Coach of Dominican Republic: "Being the first edition of this age-group event and considering that the players are younger, there will be a lot of pressure among them, but we hope to have a nice tournament regardless of that. Since there are no preparation matches, we will solve any difficulties that arise along the way. In this age-group, players want to show their abilities, so it will be a very nice tournament, and we are asking them to enjoy it, doing their best. The goal as a country, given the level of the Dominican Republic has shown, is to reach the finals".

Marcos Sugiyama, Head Coach of Honduras: "The team has been training hard for the past month and a half, and we are making changes so that the athletes stop thinking like they do in school training, to that of training in a national team; it has been positive to change the story we are building. The goal is to battle every day, play well every day, and be close to those national teams that win championships, the journey is long, but we are ready to battle".

Ignacio Sánchez, Head Coach of Mexico: "We are coming well, we have worked hard. We have selected players from all across the country, doing scouting during our national festivals. We think the team is strong enough to compete for a berth for Worlds and a medal".

Claudia Noguera, Head Coach of Nicaragua: "Like everyone in this tournament, the team is new, but we have four players who have competed in Central American events, in addition to their growth they have undergone in our national Under-19 league, and that brings a bit of experience. All of them are enthusiastic to represent the country in a first event of this age-group, which is important for the development of young athletes in Central American and NORCECA”.

Juan Carlos Nuñez, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: “This is a valuable opportunity to be here at this tournament, it’s the first time we call this age-group in Puerto Rico. It is a valuable opportunity to be in a tournament like this; its is the first call in Puerto Rico for this age-group. We are bringing talented girls, but due to the timing of the tournament, there were difficulties in gathering them and training for such an event. The athletes come from playing in the school tournament in Puerto Rico and have been active individually. As a team, we were together for a month, but not every day. I always set high goals, so we will aim to be in the top three positions”.

Tres Boletos al Campeonato Mundial en Disputa en NORCECA Sub-17 Femenino en Honduras

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, 20 de noviembre de 2023.- Ocho equipos nacionales lucharán en Tegucigalpa, Honduras, en la primera edición del Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-17 de Voleibol Femenino, por tres boletos al primer Campeonato Mundial de la FIVB de la categoría a celebrarse en 2024.

Los entrenadores tuvieron la oportunidad de dar sus primeras declaraciones el día previo a que arranque la competencia.

Amy Wilson, Entrenadora de Canadá: “Nuestro equipo se reunió y practicó bien, también realizamos sesiones por zoom para que el equipo se uniera porque estamos esparcidos por todo el país. Lo que espero del evento es crecimiento personal, mejoría de nuestras atletas, así como el cuerpo técnico, a continuar trabajando fuerte y alcanzar la ronda de clasificación”.

Rogelio Goytizolo, Entrenador de Cuba: “Es muy bueno que vamos a inaugurar una competencia que por primera vez en el área no se había realizado. Estamos buscando un ascenso en el rendimiento del equipo femenino en Cuba y es muy importante hacerlo desde la base, creando un nivel competitivo mayor. Esperamos cosechar los mejores frutos de la competencia. Venimos acá para obtener un boleto al campeonato mundial, las chiquitas vienen con el mejor deseo de alcanzarlo”.

Wilson Sánchez, Entrenador de República Dominicana: “Siendo la primera edición de esta categoría y al ser atletas menores, habrá mucha dificultad de presión entre ellas, pero esperamos hacer un bonito torneo independientemente de eso. Al no haber partidos de preparación, las dificultades que se presenten las resolveremos en el camino. En esta categoría las jugadoras quieren demostrar sus capacidades por lo que será un torneo muy lindo y les estamos pidiendo a ellas que lo disfruten, haciendo lo mejor posible. La meta como país y el nivel que República Dominicana ha demostrado, buscaremos alcanzar las finales”.

Nicolás Docquier, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “Nos hemos preparado muy bien, las chicas han estado en competencia en nuestros torneos locales y eso nos ha dado una ventaja. No hemos tenido muchos días juntos, sin embargo, las atletas están muy comprometidas con el equipo, es una nueva experiencia para ellas y para mí como entrenador principal. Estamos emocionados, felices y vamos a darlo todo en la cancha”.

Marcos Sugiyama, Entrenador de Honduras: “El equipo ha entrenado fuerte por mes y medio, y estamos haciendo cambios para que las atletas dejen de pensar cómo se entrena en la escuela, a cómo entrenar en una selección nacional; ha sido positivo para cambiar la historia que estamos construyendo. La meta es batallar todos los días, jugar bien todos los días y estar cerca de esas selecciones que ganan los campeonatos, el camino es largo, pero estamos listos para la batalla”.

Claudia Noguera, Entrenadora de Nicaragua: “Como todos en este torneo, el equipo es nuevo, pero tenemos a cuatro jugadoras que han competido en eventos centroamericanos, además del desarrollo que han tenido en la liga Sub-19 nacional y por ello traen un poco de experiencia. Todas traen gran ánimo de representar al país, en un primer evento de esta categoría, el cual es importante para el desarrollo de atletas jóvenes en Centroamérica y en NORCECA”.

Ignacio Sánchez, Entrenador de México: “Venimos bien, se ha trabajado fuerte. Hemos hecho una selección de toda la república, haciendo una buena selección durante los festivales nacionales. Creemos que el equipo viene fuerte a competir por el pase al mundial y por una medalla”.

Juan Carlos Núñez, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Es una valiosa oportunidad estar en un torneo como este, es la primera convocatoria que se hace en Puerto Rico para esta categoría. Traemos muchachas con buen talento, pero debido a la fecha del torneo hubo problemas para reunirse y entrenar para un torneo como este. Las atletas vienen de jugar el torneo escolar en Puerto Rico y han estado activas individualmente; como conjunto estuvimos juntos durante un mes, no todos los días. Yo siempre me pongo metas grandes, así que buscaremos estar en los primeros tres lugares”.
