Estados Unidos gana fácil a Nicaragua en NORCECA U 18

Tegucigalpa, Honduras. 27 de agosto 2018. Estados Unidos inició el Campeonato Norceca Sub-18 de voleibol Femenino con victoria sobre Nicaragua 3-0 (25-6, 25-11, 25-12) en el Gimnasio #2 Jorge A. Galeano, de la Villa Olímpica de esta ciudad.

El equipo ganador dominó todos los aspectos del juego, con ventaja en ataque (35-8), en bloqueo (5-2) y en servicio (7-0), concediendo 19 puntos por errores propios, por 28 del oponente.

La capitana de Estados Unidos, Allison Jacobs fue la máxima anotadora del encuentro con 10 puntos, con 9 quedaron Devyn Robinson y Caroline Crawford. Por Nicaragua, Masiel Brenes logró 4 puntos.

Jacobs dijo que “esta es una buena victoria, fue un juego realmente bueno en general para nuestro equipo, pudimos sacar todo lo que tenemos y empezamos a trabajar de la mejor manera posible, además de disfrutar juntas nuevamente en la cancha”.

“Para mañana, sí, definitivamente tenemos que jugar más rápido, apretar más el servicio y mejorar el bloqueo, ahí tenemos algo que es clave y realmente importante”.

James Stone, entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Hicimos muchas cosas bien esta tarde, pero también hay algunas áreas en las que debemos mejorar y practicar mas. Es apenas el primer juego del equipo y estoy feliz que hayamos ganado. Tratamos de crear jugadas, estar en el juego, pero siempre hay áreas en las que podemos mejorar”.

“La actitud fue muy buena, celebramos cada jugada, los buenos puntos, hicimos malas jugadas consecutivas, pero luego mejoramos y eso es lo que pretendemos ir mejorando continuamente”.

Maria Belén Arcia, capitana de Nicaragua: “A pesar de los nervios tratamos de hacer un buen juego, pero nos afectó el recibo. Fue una bonita experiencia jugar contra Estados Unidos, lo tomamos como fogueo para prepararnos para lo que viene”.

Claudia Noguera, entrenadora de Nicaragua: “Siento que jugamos bastante bien, aunque teníamos enfrente a Estados Unidos y los nervios y la emoción se adueñaron de nuestras jugadoras. Ellas sabían que este juego era de preparación para los otros que nos vienen, debemos mejorar el recibo y atacar más. Estoy segura que esta es la primera vez en todas las categorías que enfrentamos a Estados Unidos”.

United States win easy to Nicaragua in NORCECA U18

Tegucigalpa, Honduras. August 27, 2018. The United States started the Norceca Under-18 Women's Volleyball Championship with a victory over Nicaragua 3-0 (25-6, 25-11, 25-12) in the Gym # 2 Jorge A. Galeano, of the Villa Olympic of this city.

The winning team dominated all aspects of the game, with advantage in attack (35-8), blocking (5-2) and service (7-0), conceding 19 unforced errors, by 28 of the opponent.

Allison Jacobs, captain of USA, was the top scorer of the match with 10 points, with 9 left Devyn Robinson and Caroline Crawford. For Nicaragua, Masiel Brenes scored 4 points.

Jacobs said that "this is a good victory, it was a really good game in general for our team, we were able to get everything we have and we started to work in the best possible way, besides enjoying together again on the court".

"For tomorrow, yes, we definitely have to play faster, tighten the service and improve the blocking, there we have something that is key and really important. "

James Stone, USA coach: "We did a lot of things well this afternoon, but there are also some areas where we need to improve and practice more. It's just the first team game and I'm happy that we won. We try to create plays, be in the game, but there are always areas where we can improve".

"The attitude was very good, we celebrated each play, the good points, we made bad consecutive plays, but then we improved and that is what we intend to improve continuously".

Maria Belén Arcia, captain of Nicaragua: "Despite the nerves we tried to make a good game, but we were affected by the receipt. It was a nice experience to play against the United States, we took it as a blanket to prepare ourselves for what's coming. "

Claudia Noguera, coach from Nicaragua: "I feel like we played pretty well, even though we had the United States in front and the nerves and emotion took over from our players. They knew that this game was a preparation for the others that come to us, we must improve the receipt and attack more. I'm sure this is the first time in all the categories that we face in the United States. "

La máxima anotadora de Cuba fue la jugadora central Dayana Martínez con 11 puntos, mientras la capitana Thalia Moreno logró 10 puntos. Por Canadá, su capitana Hannah Duchesneau quedó con ocho unidades.

Martínez señaló que “el partido estuvo muy bien por parte de los dos equipos, Canadá es muy combativo, al igual que nosotros. Fuimos muy ofensivas con el saque, con eso logramos muchos puntos y fue el elemento más ofensivo. En nuestro equipo todas tenemos participación en el juego, nos repartimos todas las situaciones del juego.

“El primer partido es muy importante porque falta el partido entre los otros equipos de nuestro grupo y por ahora estamos de líderes, era muy importante lograr esta victoria. Si hay algo que tenemos que mejorar es el recibo, fallamos mucho en eso, y les dio la ventaja en el tercer set”.

Entrenador de Cuba, Echevarri.

“Lo que sucedió en el tercer set es algo que nosotros ya veníamos pensando que podía suceder desde el final del segundo set. Las niñas se sintieron ganadoras antes que terminara el juego y eso pasa en estas categorías, es parte de lo que tenemos que mejorar y enseñar porque tienen mucha inmadurez, con poca experiencia competitiva.

“Se desarrollaron bien al final, a medida que vayan pasando los partidos, ellas irán mejorando su rendimiento. El saque es uno de los elementos que más importancia le damos, aprovechando la característica del voleibolista cubano y nos dio resultado”.

Hannah Duchesneau, capitana de Canadá

“Me siento motivada por ganar, siento muy contenta por estar jugando un torneo como este. Es muy agradable enfrentar a Cuba, ellas son campeonas, lo siento, pero nosotros también lo podemos ser, eso nos motiva”.

“Al inicio pensamos que el bloqueo nos ayudaría, pero se fue cerrando el partido y no pudimos ejecutar mejor algunas jugadas. Pienso que podemos hacerlo mejor, siento que jugamos bien, pero no nos podemos quedar ahí, hablando de eso, tenemos que trabajar duro para lo que viene y mañana seremos mejores”.

Dale Melnick, entrenadora de Canadá

“Pienso que en la mayor parte del juego lo hicimos bien. Para ser un campeonato internacional y contra Cuba pues creo que las pusimos en bastantes situaciones complicadas, desafortunadamente no logramos convertir los puntos bastantes oportunidades claras, sobre todo en el tercer set”.

“Nuestras acomodadoras hicieron un buen trabajo teniendo a las atacantes siempre en línea, son tremendas chicas, voy orgullosa de Canadá hoy!”, dijo emocionada Melnick.

“Hicimos algunos cambios en el juego, tuvimos dos acomodadoras diferentes y enfrentémoslo es nuestra primera vez aquí luego de 12 años, mientras ellas (Cuba) vienen año tras año y conocen el ambiente, nosotros nos tenemos que adaptar a eso, a los aficionados, la emoción, el enfrentar a tremendos atletas que tiene Cuba”.

Cuba wins over Canada in straight sets

Tegucigalpa, Honduras. August 27, 2018. Cuba started with triumph 3-0 (25-19, 25-20, 25-20) over Canada, in the first game of pool A, of the NORCECA U-18 Women's Volleyball Championship.

The Cubans dominated all aspects of the game, with advantage in attack (35-21), in blocking (6-5) and in service (9-7), conceding 26 points for own errors, for 28 of the opponent.

Cuba's top scorer was middle blocker Dayana Martinez with 11 points, while captain Thalia Moreno scored 10 points. For Canada, its captain Hannah Duchesneau was left with eight units.

Martinez, said that "the match was very good on the part of the two teams, Canada is very combative, like us. We were very offensive with the serve, with that we achieved many points and it was the most offensive element. In our team we all have participation in the game, we share all situations of the game.

"The first game is very important because the game is missing between the other teams in our group and for now we are leaders, it was very important to achieve this victory. If there is something we have to improve is the receipt, we missed a lot in that, and gave them the advantage in the third set. "

Jaime Echevarri, Coach of Cuba: "What happened in the third set is something that we were already thinking could happen from the end of the second set. The girls felt like winners before the game ended and that happens in these categories, it's part of what we have to improve and teach because they have a lot of immaturity, with few competitive experience”.

"They performed well at the end, as the matches go by, they will improve their performance. The serve is one of the elements that we give more importance, taking advantage of the characteristic of the Cuban volleyball player and gave us results ".

Hannah Duchesneau, captain of Canada: "I feel motivated to win, I feel very happy to be playing a tournament like this. It's very nice to face Cuba, they are champions, I'm sorry, but we can be, that motivates us. "

"At the beginning we thought the blocking would help us, but the game was closing and we could not execute some plays better. I think we can do better, I feel we play well, but we can not stay there, talking about that, we have to work hard for what is coming and tomorrow we will be better. "

Dale Melnick, coach of Canada: "I think that in most of the game we did it well. To be an international championship and against Cuba because I think we put them in a lot of complicated situations, unfortunately we did not manage to convert the points enough clear opportunities, especially in the third set ".

"Our setters did a good job of having the attackers always in line, they are tremendous girls, I am proud of Canada today!" Said Melnick excitedly.

"We made some changes in the game, we had two different setters and let's face it is our first time here after 12 years, while they (Cuba) come year after year and know the environment, we have to adapt to that, to the fans, the emotion, facing tremendous athletes that Cuba has ".
