Puerto Rico sweeps Nicaragua in Challenge Cup opener

MAY 17, Edmonton, CANADA: In the first match of the Women's Challenge Cup in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada, Puerto Rico swept Nicaragua 3-0 (25-15, 25-15, 25-11)

Middle blockers Jennifer Quesada and Alba Hernandez both shared the top scoring status for Puerto Rico with eight apiece. Hellen Traña Lugo scored nine points for the losing side's effort.

Both coaches were satisfied with their efforts today.

Head Coach of Puerto Rico, Javier Gaspar: "We established a plan of what we wanted to do, and we executed. Our setters did an excellent job running that plan. I think we needed a match like this to gain some confidence. We have only been training for two weeks leading up to this, so I think we did really well, especially offensively. I think our blocking needs to be better, but we will have tomorrow and Saturday to fine tune that. "

"I really think our setters were fantastic in running the offence today. They really stuck to the plan, and that's very promising. We had a lot of players playing for the first time on the national team, and I think they all did a great job as well."

#01 Daly Santana – Captain of Puerto Rico: "I think Nicaragua played well, they gave us some challenges. They really challenged our serve. I think for us it was a good match because we really controlled our side. Everything we could control, we did, and we executed our plan really well. This is a good building block for us to start the tournament."

"I think our serving can be better, a lot more consistent. Our communication was a little off too, so I'd like to see that get a little better for the next few games. There are some fantastic teams here this week, so we will have to clean up our game a bit if we hope to continue winning."

Head Coach of Nicaragua, Rene Quintana:

"It was a really good match. We had a lot of trouble coming here because of a lot of situations so I am surprised that they had a lot of good spirit and played the best they can. This is a good opportunity for us to prepare since we don't have the chance to play against these types of teams of a really high level."

This opens our eyes of the level of our team and what we can do. We know that if we have more chances we can have a higher level.

Claudia Noguera – Captain of Nicaragua

“We thought it was a good game for Nicaragua. We did the best we can and in our opinion we played some good defense and we tried to do the best we can at attacking and hitting the ball. Cuba is a really tall team and they have a higher block so we have to play the same as we did with Puerto Rico but we have to switch our game a little bit. It has been a wonderful experience because we’ve showed that we can give a little more than people expect from us.”

Tournament note: a change in the tournament was announced by NORCECA due to the Costa Rican team withdrawing because of travel issues.

The withdrawal means the schedule will now be as follows (Mountain Time):

May 18
NCA vs CUB (16:00)

May 19
CUB vs PUR (16:00)
CAN vs TTO (19:00)

May 20
Bronze match (16:00)
Gold match (19:00)
(bronze and gold medal matches)

Host Canada enjoys early victory in Edmonton at the Challenge Cup

MAY 17, Edmonton, CANADA: Canada won its first match of the NORCECA Women's Challenge Cup over Trinidad and Tobago 3-0 (25-12, 25-16, 25-22).

Canada looked more organized than the Caribbean nation, particularly in the first two sets. Alexa Gray of Calgary, Alberta, was a top scorer for the home country with 15 points.

For Trinidad, Darlene Ramdin and Thompson Channon both contributed 11 points.

Marcello Abbondanza, coach of Team Canada: "It was an important victory for us to win 3-0. I am a little bit disappointed about the third set, we lost our attention a bit and Trinidad had more chances. But now we have to think about the next match and playing Cuba."

Kyla Richey, captain of Team Canada. "I always am happy with our effort, but with this squad I only think we've have five or six days together competing, so there was a little bit of nerves. I think to get this first match out of the way, there were some good things, but still a lot to work on.

I love playing at home and we need to have more exposure to our youth players. I think for them to see what it means to play for your country is priceless. The more competition we can have on home soil is better for us and for the young players coming up."

Francisco Cruz, head coach of Trinidad & Tobago

"The game was acceptable. We lost two players who are unable to play, and that is a problem within the organization. Finally, in the last set they started to come together and for me, everything was good. We have some new players, and I don't do any substitutions because we have eight experienced players and the rest are young. Out of the eight, two aren't playing. This is the problem. Some players played today in another position. I suppose, because this is the first match, that in the second match they will play better."

Renele Forde, captain of Trinidad & Tobago

“We’ve all been playing abroad and we haven’t been able to practice together. I’m okay with the result in terms of how we fought and how we tried to compete. I’m sure Canada has been practicing for some time together, and they have everything they need, which is a difference between our team and them. They played a great match and we just tried to compete as well as possible, almost as if it was practice for us because we have a long schedule ahead of us in terms of tournaments for the year and this is basically for the teams to get together and mesh and play together.”
