Dominicana dominó a Nicaragua y va a semifinal

LA HABANA, Cuba, 30 de agosto del 2018 - El equipo de República Dominicana no tuvo contratiempos para dominar a Nicaragua 3-0 (25-23, 25-19, 25-17) y se ganó un puesto para la semifinal de mañana del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol en el propio coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Una vez más sobresalió el quisqueyano Bayron Valdez, máximo anotador con 25 puntos, escoltado por el otro jugador de esquina Luis Reinoso y el opuesto Jairo Pérez, ambos con 10 puntos cada uno.

Algo similar con sus adversarios, el punta Jonny Zeledón volvió a encabezar a su elenco con 21 unidades, único con doble dígitos en partido en el cual los dominicanos fueron superiores en ataque (44-37), bloqueo (7-2) y servicio (7-3).

José Dante Mañón, entrenador dominicano, reiteró sobre "una de las dificultades de mis muchachos que cuando el rival es menos fuerte ellos se relajan, se confían y cometen errores psicológicos y elementales, en cambio si tiene nivel ellos se concentran y juegan duro, por eso esta inestabilidad, pero tenemos incluso tres que van al mundial de mayores, tres que viajarán desde aquí a Túnez a concluir la preparación con el resto y luego siguen al campeonato previsto en Bulgaria e Italia".

Bayron, el capitán, declaró que "a pesar de todo fue un partido muy bueno, ayer mucho mejor contra Cuba a pesar de que perdimos en tres sets, y hoy nos enfocamos a pesar de que algunos estábamos un poco cansados, un poco más los que saltamos más, sin embargo entendimos que debíamos ganar y seguir avanzando, siempre confiado de mis compañeros que cada día lo hacen mejor".

Por su parte el de Nicaragua Zeledón manifestó que "Dominicana es un equipo que ha mejorado mucho con jugadores que le dan duro al balón, saltan y tienen buena altura, tuvimos peleándole punto a punto en el primero pero se nos fueron, y ya después en los otros no pudimos hacer más, aunque luchamos, pero creo que nos desanimamos un poco".

Su entrenador Osman Hernández comentó que "los muchachos inician bien pero les falta para el cierre, eso es fundamental y es carencia de juegos, en los que uno puede ver el temperamento del jugador en diferentes circunstancias y momentos del partido, y eso no lo tuvimos antes, solo pocos encuentros con una parte de la selección mayor y del sub-19, pero no es suficiente. Por eso este torneo nos sirve de tanto y ellos hacen el máximo de esfuerzo para aprovecharlo".

Dominicans dominated Nicaragua and go to semifinals

HAVANA, Cuba, August 30, 2018 - The Dominican Republic had no difficulties to dominate Nicaragua 3-0 (25-23, 25-19, 25-17) to win a place in tomorrow's semifinal Norceca Sub-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament in the Sports City's own Coliseum.

Once again Bayron Valdez was the top scorer with 25 points, escorted by the other corner player Luis Reinoso and the opposite Jairo Pérez, with 10 points each.

Something similar happened with the opponents, as Jonny Zeledón returned to lead his cast with 21 points, the only one with double digits in match in which the Dominicans were superior in attack (44-37), blocking (7-2) and service (7-3).

José Dante Mañón, Dominican coach, reiterated on "one of the difficulties of my boys that when the rival is less strong they relax, trust and commit psychological and elementary errors, on the other hand if they have a level they concentrate and play hard, for this is unstable, but we even have three that go to the world championship, three that will travel from here to Tunisia to conclude the preparation with the rest and then follow the planned championship in Bulgaria and Italy."

Bayron, the captain, declared that "in spite of everything it was a very good match, yesterday much better against Cuba even though we lost in three sets, and today we focused even though some of us were a bit tired, a little more that we jumped more, nevertheless we understood that we had to win and to continue advancing, always confident of my teammates who do it better every day ".

On the other hand the one of Nicaragua Zeledón said that "Dominican is a team that has improved a lot, has players who hit the ball hard, jump and have good height. We fought point by point in the first one but they left us, and afterwards in the others we could not do more, although we fought, but I think we got a little discouraged."

His coach Osman Hernandez commented that "the boys start well but they lack for the closing, that is fundamental and it is lack of games, in which one can see the player's temperament in different circumstances and moments of the game, and that we did not have before, only a few matches with a part of the national team and the U-19, but it's not enough, that's why this tournament is so useful and they make the maximum effort to take advantage of it ".

Canadá a semifinal tras vencer a Barbados

La selección de Canadá liquidó en apenas una hora el desafío contra Barbados en parciales corridos (25-13, 25-14, 25-20) para completar el cuadro de semifinalistas del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de voleibol.

Los canadienses lidiarán mañana con el ganador del grupo A, Cuba, en tanto los dominicanos enfrentarán al líder del B y campeón defensor, Estados Unidos.

Por el equipo ganador hoy consiguieron doble dígitos el opuesto Alexandre Nsakanda (17) y los jugadores de esquina Braedon Friesen y Coltyn Liu, quienes agregaron 10 cada uno, mientras por los caribeños el que más anotó fue el punta Akeel Stoute con 7.

La superioridad de los norteños se refleja en todos los órdenes con una diferencia de 33-20 en ataque, 10-3 en bloqueo y 14-2 en servicio, en cambio cometieron más errores no forzados (22-18).

El brasileño Joao Paulo Bravo, entrenador de Canadá, dijo que "a todos le dimos la oportunidad de jugar, aunque el resultado de hoy era muy importante vimos que podíamos hacerlo, tenemos 12 hombres que sabemos se puede contar con ellos en el momento necesario. Jugamos bien, concentrados en la recepción y haciendo lo requerido, para mí fundamental, ayer perdimos pero hoy pudimos ganar y eso es vital para el grupo".

"Mañana es otro choque, vamos a estudiar a Cuba, es un conjunto muy fuerte, hay que saber cómo enfrentarlos. No podemos pelear contra su físico pues son superiores, tenemos que ser un poquito más despiertos, más inteligentes".

El capitán Michael Dowhaniuk se refirió a que "jugamos mejor, con control desde el inicio y así el desafío resultó más fácil, pero encaramos el encuentro como debíamos hacerlo, como si fuera el último y que había que ganarlo. Contra los anfitriones vamos a pelear hasta el final".

Por su parte, el opuesto de Barbados, Ashe Oxley planteó que "los canadienses juegan muy bien, creo que nosotros pudimos hacerlo mejor sin embargo tratamos de superar su bloqueo pero no fue posible. Estos topes representan una gran experiencia, enfrentamos a contrarios que tienen calidad y son muy altos, siempre aprendemos".

Su DT John Stuart señaló que "sabíamos que Canadá es un equipo muy difícil y tuvimos muchos problemas con la recepción por el fuerte saque de ellos y no pudimos organizar el complejo uno para poder atacarles fuerte".

Para la penúltima jornada el programa contempla los cotejos por la ubicación del quinto al octavo entre Guatemala-Nicaragua (12:00 horas) y Haití-Barbados (14:00) y las semifinales de Estados Unidos-República Dominicana (16:00) y Canadá-Cuba (18:00).

Canada to semifinal after beating Barbados

The Canadian national team finished the challenge against Barbados in straight sets (25-13, 25-14, 25-20) in just one hour to complete the semifinals of the Norceca Sub Tournament -21 Volleyball male.

The Canadians will fight tomorrow with Cuba the winner of group A, while the Dominicans will face the leader of the B and defending champion, United States.

For the winning team today they got double digits from the opposite Alexandre Nsakanda (17) and corner players Braedon Friesen and Coltyn Liu, who added 10 each, while for the Caribbean the top scorer was Akeel Stoute with 7.

The superiority of the northerners is reflected in all fundamentals with a difference of 33-20 in attack, 10-3 in blocking and 14-2 in services. They committed more unforced errors (22-18).

The Brazilian Joao Paulo Bravo, coach of Canada, said that "we gave everyone the opportunity to play, although today's result was very important we saw that we could do it, we have 12 men that we know we can count on them at the necessary time. We played well, focused on the reception and doing the required, for me fundamental, yesterday we lost but today we could win and that is vital for the group."

"Tomorrow is another clash, we are going to study Cuba, it is a very strong team, we have to know how to face them, we cannot fight against their physic because they are superior, we have to be a little more awake, more intelligent".

Captain Michael Dowhaniuk said that "we played better, with control from the start and so the challenge was easier, but we faced the match as we should, as if it was the last and we had to win it until the end".

For its part, the opposite of Barbados, Ashe Oxley said that "the Canadians play very well, I think we could do better but we tried to overcome their blockade but it was not possible, these stops represent a great experience, we face opponents who have quality and they are very high, we always learn".

His coach John Stuart pointed out that "we knew that Canada is a very difficult team and we had a lot of problems with the reception because of the strong serve of them and we could not organize the complex one to be able to attack them strongly".

For the penultimate day the program features the matches for the positions fifth to the eighth between Guatemala-Nicaragua (12:00 hours) and Haiti-Barbados (14:00) and the semifinals of the United States-Dominican Republic (16:00) and Canada-Cuba (18:00).
