Puerto Rico wins gold in five-set showdown at the Challenge Cup

MAY 20, 2018. Edmonton, Alberta: Puerto Rico ended Canada's hopes for a gold at home today at the Women's Challenge Cup at the Edmonton Expo Centre.

It was a thrilling five setter with the scores of 22-25, 25-17, 25-19, 25-27, 15-8.

Canada came out fighting to win the first set, but then Puerto Rico looked more organized in the next two. Pushed by the fans, Canada won the fourth in exciting fashion to force a fifth set only to fall short.

Dominating for Puerto Rico was Daly Santana with a whopping 30 points for her side.

Alexa Gray contributed 18 points to Canada's effort, while Autumn Bailey and Alicia Ogoms had 10 apiece.

Cuba won the bronze medal match earlier, in a 3-0 match over Trinidad. Nicaragua finished in fifth place.

Javier Gaspar, head coach of Puerto Rico: "We knew it was going to be very tough. Canada is a good and an extremely well-coached team, and I knew they would have a plan to try and stop our offense. In the first game we made 12 errors, we missed too many serves and they kept us off balance a little bit with the things that they were doing. Then the next couple set we found our rhythm. I think Daly (Santana) was huge for us. The fourth game we had them where we wanted them, but we had chances and we didn't execute. Hats off to them because they did an excellent job in key situations.

Daly Santana, Captain of Puerto Rico: "We had a little bit of struggle with the first set, but we were able to clean it up and focus on the things we needed to do individually so we could help the collective. It was a very tough match, very physical and long rallies every play. It was just about coming out with a good attitude and playing good volleyball."

Marcello Abbondanza, coach of Team Canada: "We wanted to win. I think we can improve on many things, but when we are only together for a short time it is very difficult."

Kyla Richey, captain of Team Canada: "This was definitely not what we wanted – it is good that we fought back and pushed them to a fifth set, but then on the other hand we needed to start off better than we did. Puerto Rico plays a really solid blocking defense and we couldn't execute our game plan at the beginning and got a bit scrambled and they were able to get momentum that way. We have really good skill sets, but we need to read situations better. We can execute good things in practice, but we need to translate that into a game if we want to have success.”

Tournament note: a change in the tournament was announced earlier this week by NORCECA due to the Costa Rican team withdrawing because of travel issues.

Cuba wins the bronze match at Women's Challenge Cup

May 20, 2018. Edmonton, Alberta, CANADA: Cuba wins its final match and the NORCECA Women's Challenge Cup bronze medal after a 3-0 (25-18, 25-17, 25-13) win over Trinidad and Tobago today.

Regla Gracia Gonzalez and Diaris Perez Ramos had 13 and 12 points respectively for the Cuban team.

Darlene Ramdin of Trinidad topped the match score chart with 16 points.

Canada and Puerto Rico play for the gold. The Challenge Cup was originally a six-team tournament, but Costa Rica withdrew at the last minute due to travel issues.

Wilfredo Robinson Pupo, Head Coach of Cuba: "Our players looked really strong. Our offense was stronger, and our setting was stronger as well. We also had the opportunity to include all our players this time to the match; so that they can all play. Winning a medal is always positive, but we had more ambition today. We expected to be in the final against either Canada or Puerto Rico, and so we are not completely satisfied."

Sulian Matienzo Linares, Captain of Cuba: "We were not happy. We should have gotten into the final against Canada. That was our goal during this tournament. We didn't accomplish that but we got a medal. We were happy with our play today, which was our new goal, and we got it right this time."

Francisco Cruz, head coach of Trinidad & Tobago: "It went very bad. The players weren't doing what I was indicating. Maybe they had too much pressure on them today. I can not explain, I will need to analyze because there is not a relationship between this game and other games we have had. Other teams had a higher level and the Cubans don't have that level, so maybe it was just the name. I am not happy with the result."

Renele Forde, captain of Trinidad & Tobago: "The game definitely didn't go our way today. We had a lot of issues in terms of our organization on the court. Our defense didn't come in today, our blocking was inconsistent and we generally hoped for a better result."
