Guatemala overtook Nicaragua and will discuss fifth place

HAVANA, Cuba, August 31, 2018. - Guatemala entered the field with high inspiration and overtook Nicaragua 3-0 (25-22, 25-21, 25-16) to win the right to discuss the fifth place of the Norceca Sub-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament, which today marks its penultimate day at the Ciudad Deportiva Coliseum.

The winners relied on a greater offense (44-35) and the benefit of 27 unforced errors of their opponents to take the success, whose biggest contributor was the opposite Edgar Maldonado (17), followed by the corner Jonatan Paz (10).

For its Central American neighbors again the slender Jonny Zeledón took the lead vocals of his cast and was the only one to get double digits when adding 17 units, but a swallow does not make summer.

Luis Fernando Castañeda, technical director of Guatemala, pointed out that "the boys had a great attitude since they got up, we worked on that during training, Nicaragua had always defeated us in these categories, like in the U-19, but this generation of players had not been able to beat, instead we did it in a Norceca. Now to fight for the fifth against whoever wins between Haiti and Barbados."

Its captain Diego Ralon considered that "the main thing in the triumph today was our attitude, the previous matches were very complicated, we slowed down and did not raise our heads. The rest day yesterday allowed us to analyze things well, so tomorrow we will be the same in search of securing the fifth place, sometimes it is not the best players but with a high morale everything is possible".

Osmani Hernández, coach of Nicaragua, said "I think my boys were demoralized when in the first set I understood there was instability with the refereeing, really he does his job, but they did not recover after losing 22-25. We are discouraged because we came with the goal of securing the fifth place and we will discuss tomorrow the seventh."

Zeledón, the captain, stated that "this game was unexpected, we committed too many lapses and we lost concentration, and Guatemala was superior and the spirit was fundamental for that team, which took very good advantage of all our mistakes to counterattack and we did not finish the actions of attack, when we did it they lifted the ball, it was a complete fiasco, and the rivals were more effective and technical".

Guatemala superó a Nicaragua y discutirá quinto lugar

LA HABANA, Cuba, 31 de agosto del 2018 - Guatemala entró a la cancha con elevada inspiración y superó a Nicaragua 3-0 (25-22, 25-21, 25-16) para ganar el derecho de discutir el quinto lugar del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol, que cumple hoy su penúltima jornada en el coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Los ganadores se apoyaron en una mayor ofensiva (44-35) y el beneficio de 27 errores no forzados de sus adversarios para llevarse el éxito para el que más aportó fue el opuesto Edgar Maldonado (17), seguido del esquinero Jonatan Paz (10).

Por sus vecinos centroamericanos nuevamente el espigado punta Jonny Zeledón llevó la voz cantante de su elenco y fue el único en conseguir doble dígito al sumar igualmente 17 unidades, pero una golondrina no compone verano.

Luis Fernando Castañeda, director técnico de Guatemala, señaló que "los muchachos tuvieron una gran actitud desde que se levantaron, trabajamos en eso durante el entrenamiento. Nicaragua siempre nos había ganado en esta categoría, igual en la sub-19, pero esta generación de jugadores no habían podido vencerle, en cambio pudimos en un Norceca. Ahora a pelear por el quinto contra el que gane entre Haití y Barbados".

Su capitán Diego Ralon consideró que "lo primordial hoy en el triunfo fue nuestra actitud, los partidos anteriores fueron muy complicados, bajábamos el ritmo y no levantábamos la cabeza. El día de descanso ayer nos propició analizar bien las cosas, así que mañana saldremos igual en busca de asegurar el quinto lugar, a veces no se es de los mejores jugadores pero con una alta moral todo es posible".

Osmani Hernández, entrenador de Nicaragua, opinó "creo que mis muchachos se desmoralizaron cuando en el primer parcial entiendo hubo inestabilidad con el arbitraje, realmente él hace su trabajo, pero no se recuperaron después de perder 22-25. Estamos insatisfechos porque veníamos con la meta de asegurar el quinto lugar y discutiremos mañana el séptimo".

Zeledón, el capitán, manifestó que "este juego fue algo inesperado, cometimos demasiados deslices y nos desconcentramos, y Guatemala estuvo superior y el ánimo fue fundamental para ese equipo, que aprovechó muy bien todos nuestros errores para contraatacar y nosotros no concluimos las acciones de ataque, cuando lo hacíamos nos levantaban el balón, fue un fiasco completamente, y los rivales resultaron más efectivos y técnicos".

Haiti surprised Barbados and will play for the fifth

HAVANA, Cuba, August 31, 2018 - In an unprecedented event between these teams, Haiti defeated Barbados but required the five sets (15-25, 25-23, 18-25, 31-29, 15-10) and will discuss the fifth seat against Guatemala on the last day of the Norceca Sub-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament.

While outside the Coliseum fell a torrential downpour, inside the Haitians crumbled the dreams of their rivals with an impressive comeback in the fourth set and lethal shot in the tie-break, and after the victory the logic racket for the achieved.

Jean Phillipe Bayol led the offensive of the winners with 20 points, followed by Edgar Dumay and Olando Joseph with 14 and 13, respectively.

For Barbados, Akeel Oxley had a maximum total in the game of 25 points. Others with double figures among the losers were Akeil Williams (17), Ashe Oxley (13) and Kadeem Morris (12).

Barbados outscored in attacks 54-47 and blocks 15-13 and both teams scored 6 aces. In unforced errors Haiti had 37 against 38 from Barbados.

Adolphe Ralp, technical director of the winners, commented that "it was a very good game and in front of a team that in our area of Cazova had always won, but today we were motivated and played happy since the match started in order to meet with the purpose, and technically the blockade was one of our best weapons. "

"For me the victory was not a surprise because we prepared ourselves to meet this objective, I am very happy," he said.

Brandon Callender, the captain, acknowledged that "Barbados is a very good team, we had never been able to defeat it, but today we played better".

John Stuart, coach of Barbados, said that "we made many unforced errors, otherwise we would have finished earlier in our favor, this is the first time that Haiti has beaten us."

Haití sorprendió a Barbados y optará por el quinto

LA HABANA, Cuba, 31 de agosto del 2018 - En un hecho sin precedentes entre estos equipos, Haití derrotó a Barbados aunque requirió de los cinco parciales (15-25, 25-23, 18-25, 31-29, 15-10) y mañana discutirá el quinto escaño frente a Guatemala en la última jornada del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol.

Mientras fuera del Coliseo caía un torrencial aguacero, dentro los haitianos desmoronaban los sueños de sus rivales con un impresionante levantón en el cuarto set y remate letal en el tie-break, y tras la victoria la lógica algarabía por lo logrado.

Jean Phillipe Bayol lideró la ofensiva de los ganadores con 20 puntos, seguido por Edgar Dumay y Olando Joseph con 14 y 13, respectivamente.

Por Barbados, Akeel Oxley tuvo un total máximo en el juego de 25 puntos. Otros con cifras dobles entre los perdedores fueron Akeil Williams (17), Ashe Oxley (13) y Kadeem Morris (12).

Barbados aventajó en ataques 54-47 y en bloqueos 15-13 y ambos equipos anotaron 6 ases. En errores no forzados Haiti tuvo 37 contra 38 de Barbados.

Adolphe Ralp, director técnico de los vencedores, comentó que "fue un juego muy bueno y frente a un equipo que en nuestra zona de Cazova siempre nos había ganado, pero hoy estábamos motivados y jugamos alegres desde que comenzó el partido en busca de cumplir con el propósito, y técnicamente el bloqueo fue una de nuestras mejores armas".

"Para mí la victoria no fue una sorpresa porque nos preparamos para cumplir este objetivo, estoy muy contento", acotó.

Brandon Callender, el capitán, reconoció que "Barbados es una selección muy buena, nunca habíamos podido derrotarla, pero nosotros hoy jugamos mejor".

John Stuart, entrenador de Barbados, apuntó que "cometimos muchos errores no forzados, de lo contrario hubiéramos terminado antes a nuestro favor. Es la primera vez que Haití nos gana".

Dominicans did not believe in the size of USA

HAVANA, Cuba, August 31, 2018 - A battling Dominican Republic that did not believe in the projections of many in favor of the United States took the victory 3-1 (21-25, 25-23, 26-24, 25-18) in the first semifinal of the day of the Norceca SUB-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament.

The Caribbeans were led by the born and tireless leader, Bayron Valdez, who as a rule always pay a valuable harvest, exceeded today to 31 points and escorted by middle blocker José Dawilin Méndez who added 11, and with the support of the rest of the team that did not allow to escape the dreamed victory against the country that held the crown until this day.

For the Northerners those who reached double digits were John Reilly (17), Jaylen Jasper and Devin Joslyn (13). They were even superior in the statistics with domain in attack (48-47), blockade (8-2) and service (7-6) and benefited by 27 unforced errors, but they gave 42 to the rivals, who never stopped showing their inspirational grip.

José Dante Mañón, technical director of the Dominicans, recalled his opinion that "with a team of levels we play with level, and the opposite when they are of less rank, but the United States plays very good volleyball and we put ourselves up to their stature".

"The game was 3-1, but we could even win the first set, we were in. If tomorrow we face Cuba for gold, it will be a game between the family, which win the best, but we will also fight if the opponent is Canada."

Bayron, the combative captain, expressed his pride for his team, "they played like never before, I had never seen the team like that before, they delivered everything on the field, I was confident because we have been training for a year, so much time together today".

"The coaches and I talked to them, they had to give their hearts even if they killed us with balls and they listened to us, because I recognize that our adversary is a good team, they can even be superior to ours, because of his stature, because they are from the United States they know volleyball, but it always shows that nothing is impossible," he stressed excitedly.

Jonah Carson, DT of the United States, explained that "to have a good team in this tournament you have to play a level for a long time, tonight we had difficulty precisely to maintain that consistency and it was lacking in reception".

"Even if you do not get it right it's hard to defend, and if you add the mistakes and some rivals who play well it's worse, because they keep a constant pressure and have a lot of thought and confidence in their captain (Bayron Valdez), he makes a mistake, nothing happens, they turn to him and he plays well as if he were a bigger player".

The corner Reilly John said that "we knew it was a strong match because they play and defend very well, as well as they are good at finishing the ball."

Dominicana no creyó en la talla de Estados Unidos

LA HABANA, Cuba, 31 de agosto de 2018 - Una República Dominicana batalladora que no creyó en los pronósticos de muchos a favor de Estados Unidos se llevó la victoria 3-1 (21-25, 25-23, 26-24, 25-18) en la primera semifinal de la jornada del Torneo Norceca SUB-21 Masculino de Voleibol.

Encabezó a los caribeños ese líder nato e incansable, Bayron Valdez, quien como regla siempre tributa una valiosa cosecha, excedida hoy hasta los 31 puntos y escoltado por el central José Dawilin Méndez que agregó 11, y con el apoyo del resto del equipo para no se les escapara de las manos la soñada victoria frente al país que sostenía la corona hasta esta jornada.

Por los norteños alcanzaron doble dígitos John Reilly (17), Jaylen Jasper y Devin Joslyn (13), incluso fueron superiores en las estadísticas con dominio en ataque (48-47), bloqueo (8-2) y servicio (7-6) y beneficiados por 27 errores no forzados contrarios, pero ellos regalaron 42 a los rivales, quienes nunca dejaron de exhibir su garra inspiradora.

José Dante Mañón, director técnico de los dominicanos, recordó su criterio de que "con equipo de niveles jugamos con nivel, y lo contrario cuando son de menos rango, pero Estados Unidos juega muy buen voleibol y nos ponemos a su estatura".

"El juego fue 3-1, pero pudimos incluso ganar el primer parcial, estuvimos. Si mañana enfrentamos a Cuba por el oro será un juego entre familia, que gane el que mejor lo haga, pero también lucharemos si el adversario es Canadá".

Bayron, el combativo capitán quisqueyano, expresó el orgullo que siente por su equipo, "jugaron como nunca, yo mismo nunca lo había visto así, entregaron todo en la cancha. Estaba confiado porque llevamos un año entrenando, tanto tiempo juntos es para esforzarse como hoy".

"Los entrenadores y yo hablamos con ellos, había que entregar el corazón aunque nos mataran a pelotazos y nos escucharon, porque reconozco que nuestro adversario es un buen equipo, incluso puede ser hasta superior a, nuestro por su estatura, porque son de Estados Unidos que conocen el voleibol, pero siempre se demuestra que nada es imposible", recalcó emocionado.

Jonah Carson, DT de Estados Unidos, expuso que "para tener un buen equipo en este torneo hay que jugar un nivel por mucho tiempo, esta noche tuvimos dificultad precisamente de mantener esa consistencia y le faltó a la recepción".

"Igual si no sacas bien es difícil defender, y si se añaden los errores y a unos rivales que juegan bien es peor, pues ellos mantienen una presión constante atacando y tienen mucho pensamiento y confianza en su capitán (Bayron Valdez), comete un error, no pasa nada, se viran para él y juega bien como si fuera un jugador de más talla".

El esquina Reilly John manifestó que "sabíamos que era un partido fuerte porque ellos juegan y defienden muy bien, así como que también son buenos al rematar el balón".

Cuba beat Canada and will discuss the gold unbeaten

HAVANA, Cuba, August 31, 2018 - Cuba beat Canada 3-1 (21-25, 25-21, 25-18, 25-21) and as the only undefeated team will discuss the gold this Saturday against Dominican Republic, which beat the United States in four sets (21-25, 25-23, 26-24, 25-18) in their semifinal match of the Norceca Sub-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament.

Both contenders will not only fight for the title, but also for the ticket that this event grants for the FIVB World Championship of the category foreseen in 2019.

The opposite of home side Jose C. Romero with 23 points was the highest scorer of the contest and corner player Julio C. Cárdenas was the other with double digits with 17, while the visitors got the opposite also Xander Ketrzynski with 19.

Cuba got wide advantage of 51-35 in attack and minimum in unforced errors (32-33), while the rivals led in blocking (9-8) and service (6-4).

The local coach Jesus A. Cruz explained that "the Canadians came to make their best game, tried to find their strengths and make a dent in our weaknesses especially in the first set, in which the receipt did not work, in which now we were the best in that department, and they attacked with the serve and it worked better given our own inefficiency."

"When we pushed and we had more quality in the reception they started to fail, and because our blocking and attack are stronger we forced them to make mistakes, but it was a tense match, very much fought from the beginning except at the end of the last set we dominated and we achieved today's goal, however we have not finished, we have to prepare for tomorrow."

The opposite Romero who is only 18 years-old said that "the rivals started well and we went up, but we knew to go up in the second set and make our game, improve the receipt, specify the complex one and counterattacks, and we added a lot of combat for them to loosen up."

For his part the northern captain, corner attacker Michael Dowhaniuk despite the loss kindly made statements. "Both teams played well, it was a very difficult match, I think we did it right, we gave it everything."

Shayne White, assistant coach of the technical director, said that "we play with passion, with courage and we represent Canada very well".

This last day the program contemplates the discussion of the seventh place (12:00) between Nicaragua and Barbados; for the fifth Guatemala-Haiti (14:00); Canada-United States for bronze (4pm) and Dominican Republic (6pm).

Cuba venció a Canadá y discutirá invicto el oro

LA HABANA, Cuba, 31 de agosto de 2018 - El equipo cubano venció a Canadá 3-1 (21-25, 25-21, 25-18, 25-21) y en calidad de único invicto discutirá el oro este sábado frente a República Dominicana, que superó a Estados Unidos igual en cuatro sets (21-25, 25-23, 26-24, 25-18) en esta jornada de semifinales del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol.

Ambos contendientes no solo lucharán por el título, igual por el boleto que otorga este certamen para el Campeonato Mundial de la FIVB de la categoría previsto en el 2019.

El opuesto de casa José C. Romero con 23 puntos fue el máximo anotador del desafío y el jugador de esquina Julio C. Cárdenas resultó el otro con doble dígitos al acumular 17, mientras por los visitantes lo consiguió el también opuesto Xander Ketrzynski con 19.

Cuba consiguió amplia ventaja de 51-35 en ataque y mínima en errores no forzados (32-33), en tanto los rivales se fueron delante en bloqueo (9-8) y servicio (6-4).

El entrenador local Jesús A. Cruz explicó que "los canadienses vinieron a hacer su mejor partido, trataron de buscar sus puntos fuertes y hacernos mella en nuestras debilidades sobretodo en el primer parcial, en el cual no nos funcionó el recibo, en el que hasta ahora éramos los mejores en ese departamento, y atacaron con el saque y les funcionó mejor dada nuestra propia ineficacia".

"Cuando apretamos y tuvimos más calidad en la recepción empezaron a fallar, y como el bloqueo y el ataque nuestro son más fuertes los forzamos a cometer errores, pero fue un partido tenso, muy peleado desde el principio excepto al final del último set que dominamos y logramos el objetivo de hoy, sin embargo no hemos acabado, hay que prepararse para mañana".

El opuesto Romero de apenas 18 años de edad opinó que "los rivales empezaron bien y nos fueron arriba, pero supimos remontar en el segundo parcial y hacer nuestro juego, mejorar el recibo, concretar los complejos uno y contraataques, y a eso le añadimos mucha combatividad para que ellos aflojaran".

Por su parte el capitán norteño, el atacador de esquina Michael Dowhaniuk a pesar del revés amablemente hizo declaraciones. "Ambos equipos jugamos bien, fue un partido muy difícil. Creo que nosotros lo hicimos correcto, lo dimos todo".

Shayne White, segundo asistente del director técnico, manifestó que "jugamos con pasión, con coraje y representamos muy bien a Canadá".

Este último día el programa contempla la discusión del séptimo lugar (12:00) entre Nicaragua-Barbados; por el quinto Guatemnala-Haití (14:00); Canadá-Estados Unidos por el bronce (16:00) y República Dominicana (18:00).
