Nicaragua seventh after winning to Barbados

HAVANA, Cuba, September 1, 2018 - Nicaragua took seventh place by defeating Barbados 3-0 (25-18, 25-23, 25-14) on the last day of the Norceca U-21 Men's Tournament of Volleyball at the Coliseum of the Sports City.

Jonny Zeledón, the slender corner player, repeated his condition as top scorer of his team and today also led the meeting with 19 points, while the central Diego Cuadra (10) and the opposite Novelbis Nuñez (8) equal contributed to the victory.

For the Caribbean the blocker Akeil Williams was the most productive with 10, as well as the opposite Ashe Oxley with 8 in the meeting in which Nicaragua was superior in attack (38-28) and service (4-1), but Barbados outnumbered them in number of blocks (10-8).

Osmani Hernandez, coach of Nicaragua, said that "although we wanted to reach the fifth place but we said goodbye with a second victory in the tournament." The boys learned from the defeat against Guatemala yesterday, that no one is belittled and that one should not play relaxed, and today they worked much better ".

"We must keep insisting on the serve, so we can receive better, many of the teams beat us because of the deficiency of our service and as a consequence the complex one, and this event has been good for them since seven of them will play in the Central American U23 within a week in our country", he said.

His captain Jonny Zeledón expressed his greatest joy today for the victory. "Barbados did not show much resistance, in the second set we lost a little concentration but we could get it ov er, we did not wait for the seventh, but we will continue training to improve, not being conformist and filing every detail, that is what each team does to raise their level and these skills help to learn about these aspects ".

John Stuart, Barbados coach, said he did not feel good about his team's performance. "I do not feel well, the team had many difficulties in the receipt during the whole fair and their morale is very low, and this is the result."

"For me the event was fair because all the teams were able to do the most remarkable thing to win, we tried in each game to rectify the mistakes made previously, but what I learned most here is that teamwork is the most important thing and that playing well together, we get more success,"said 18-year-old center-back Kadeem Morris, who debuted very young in the previous Norceca U-21 in 2016.

Nicaragua séptimo tras ganar a Barbados

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de septiembre de 2018 - El equipo de Nicaragua ocupó la séptima plaza al derrotar a Barbados 3-0 (25-18, 25-23, 25-14) en la última jornada del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol, que tiene como escenario el coliseo de la Ciudad Deportiva.

Jonny Zeledón, el espigado jugador de esquina, repitió su condición de máximo anotador de su equipo y hoy también del encuentro con 19 puntos, mientras el central Diego Cuadra (10) y el opuesto Novelbis Nuñez (8) igual contribuyeron al triunfo.

Por los caribeños el bloqueador Akeil Williams fue el más productivo con 10, así como el opuesto Ashe Oxley con 8 en encuentro en que Nicaragua fue superior en ataque (38-28) y servicio (4-1), pero Barbados los superó en cantidad de bloqueos (10-8).

Osmani Hernández, entrenador de Nicaragua, declaró que "aunque pretendíamos alcanzar el quinto lugar pero nos despedimos con un segundo triunfo en el torneo. Los muchachos aprendieron de la derrota contra Guatemala ayer, que no se menosprecia a nadie y que tampoco se debe jugar relajado, y ya hoy trabajaron mucho mejor".

"Debemos seguir insistiendo en el saque, así podemos recibir mejor, muchos de los equipos nos superaron por las deficiencias de nuestro servicio y por consecuencia el complejo uno, y este evento les ha venido bien pues siete de ellos jugarán en el Centroamericano Sub-23 dentro de una semana en nuestro país", señaló.

Su capitán Jonny Zeledón manifestó su mayor alegría hoy por la victoria. "Barbados no presentó mucha resistencia, en el segundo set perdimos un poquito la concentración pero pudimos sacarlo. No esperábamos el séptimo, pero vamos a seguir entrenando para mejorar, no ser conformista y limar cada detalle, eso es lo que hace cada equipo para elevar su nivel y estas competencias ayudan a aprender sobre esos aspectos".

John Stuart, entrenador de Barbados, expresó no sentirse bien con la actuación de su equipo. "no me siento bien, el equipo tuvo muchas dificultades en el recibo durante toda la justa y su moral muy baja, y este es el resultado".

"Para mí el evento resultó justo porque todos los equipos fueron capaces de hacer lo más notable para ganar. Tratamos en cada juego rectificar los errores cometidos con anterioridad, pero lo que más aprendí aquí es que el trabajo en equipo es lo más importante y que jugando bien unidos se obtienen mayores éxitos", opinó el central de 18 años de edad, Kadeem Morris, quien debutó muy jovencito en el anterior Norceca Sub-21 en el 2016.

Guatemala overtook Haiti and secured the fifth

HAVANA, Cuba, September 1, 2018 - Guatemala beat the Haitian team 3-0 (25-16, 25-16, 25-19) to secure the fifth seat of the Norceca Sub-21 Men's Volleyball Tournament with a record of 2-2 in victories and losses.

The Central Americans beat the Caribbean(1-4) in all aspects with an advantage in attack of 45-32, blocking 6-5 and service 2-1, also in unforced errors with 13 by 22 their rivals.

A player from each side, both opposites, managed to accumulate 22 points for their respective squad, the Guatemalan Edgar Maldonado, who was followed by his teammate Jason Hernandez, while for the Haitians only Jean Bayol got double digits (22).

The technical director of Guatemala Luis Fernando Castañeda considered that "it was a very beautiful event, an apprenticeship for everyone, in my case enormous because it is my second event as head coach, as well as for my boys who are very young. with a good attitude from the beginning to be able to beat a team that is making history in this tournament, but we are very close and we try to do things as well as possible".

Luis Castañeda, the Central American cash opponent, said that "we knew they were going to play their part because here they come to win, so it would be a tough match and we had to give our best because we wanted that fifth place, we are very happy, although we know we have to polish aspects because many of them are very young, so we also thank our coach, always supporting us on and off the court. "

Adolphe Raip, coach of Haiti, said that "the team respected the coach's guidelines, but the attack and the blocking was not good, and the serve was too easy, the Guatemalans are playing together and they know what they have to do. A good tournament, we were learning from this experience, we never give up and I think that the future we will have a stronger team".

Caribbean captain Edgar Dumay assured that "for us it was a surprise because we thought that facing Guatemala would be something easy and it did not turn out that way, their players robbed us of the initiative".

Guatemala superó a Haití y aseguró el quinto

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de septiembre de 2018 - Guatemala superó al equipo de Haití 3-0 (25-16, 25-16, 25-19) para asegurar el quinto escaño del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol con récord de 2-2 en victorias y fracasos.

Los centroamericanos superaron en todos los aspectos a los caribeños (1-4) con una ventaja en ataque de 45-32, bloqueo 6-5 y servicio 2-1, también en errores no forzados con 13 por 22 sus rivales.

Un jugador de cada bando, ambos opuestos, lograron acumular 22 puntos para su respectivo plantel, el guatemalteco Edgar Maldonado, quien fue seguido de su compañero el central Jason Hernández, en tanto por los haitianos solo Jean Bayol consiguió doble dígito (22).

El director técnico de Guatemala Luis Fernando Castañeda consideró que "fue un evento muy bonito, un aprendizaje para todos, en mi caso enorme porque es mi segundo evento como entrenador titular, al igual para mis muchachos que son muy jóvenes. Hoy trabajamos en conjunto y con una buena actitud desde el principio para poder vencer a un equipo que está haciendo historia en este torneo, pero somos muy unidos y tratamos de hacer las cosas lo mejor posible".

Luis Castañeda, el efectivo opuesto centroamericano, manifestó que "sabíamos que ellos iban a poner de su parte porque aquí se viene a ganar, así que sería un duro encuentro y tuvimos que dar el máximo porque queríamos ese quinto lugar, estamos muy alegres, aunque sabemos que hay que pulir aspectos porque muchos son muy jóvenes, así que también damos las gracias a nuestro entrenador, siempre apoyándonos dentro y fuera de la cancha".

Adolphe Ralp, entrenador de Haití, precisó que "el equipo respetó las orientaciones del entrenador, pero el ataque y el bloqueo no fue bueno, y el saque fue demasiado fácil. Los guatemaltecos vienen jugando juntos y saben lo que tienen que hacer. Fue un buen torneo, estuvimos aprendiendo de esta experiencia, no nos rendimos nunca y pienso que el futuro vamos a tener un equipo más fuerte".

El capitán caribeño Edgar Dumay aseguró que "para nosotros fue una sorpresa porque pensamos que frente a Guatemala sería algo fácil y no resultó así, sus jugadores nos robaron la iniciativa".

Canada dominated the United States and secured bronze

HAVANA, Cuba, September 1, 2018 - Canada dominated the United States 3-1 (25-22, 25-23, 25-27, 25-17) and secured the bronze medal of the Norceca U-21 Men's Tournament as two years ago in Gatinaeu did the representation of the country.

On that occasion the US national team that took part took the crown after a final against Cuba, which tonight is fighting for the title again, this time against the Dominican Republic.

After 2 hours and 21 minutes of action Canada managed to retaliate the setback suffered in the eliminator of group B when they fell 1-3 despite the fact that by the statistics their opponents surpassed them 53-40 in attack and in service, not in blocking (2-8). The United States committed 45 unforced errors to 26 by the winners.

The Canadians added double digits by the opposite Xander Ketrzynski (18) and corner players Brodie Hofer (14) and Michael Dowhaniuk (10), and by his opponents Jaylen Jasper (22) was the top scorer of the challenge, while his teammate Kevin Lamp added 18

The Brazilian Joao Paulo Bravo, coach of Canada, cataloged the match as difficult. "But we overcame all the difficulties, we lost against Cuba to the final but we played well again. The small opportunities that we had today we took advantage of better than when we faced in Group B, because the United States did not come out with the same serve from that day, I think that was the difference".

Dowhaniuk, the winning captain, said that "every game we play here we check the numbers and we are always improving, and that happened in this game, our goal was to be a champion, one prepares for that, but if it is not possible to continue giving the best and we kept the bronze of the 2016 tournament."

Jonah Carson, technical director of the United States, analyzed that "we played a line that was too dangerous and we made a lot of mistakes, and that's what the rival takes advantage of. They also have the ability to take different positions, now a rest before they return to the university, and to play, and next year the process starts again."

Corner player Devin Joslyn explained "the Canadians fulfilled their coach's guidance, they studied us very well, the two teams fought very hard but in the end they did better, even their communication is very good when the ball is very high, we it but we need a little more".

Canadá dominó a Estados Unidos y aseguró bronce

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de septiembre de 2018 - Canadá dominó a Estados Unidos 3-1 (25-22, 25-23, 25-27, 25-17) y aseguró la medalla de bronce del Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino como hace dos años en Gatinaeu lo hizo la representación de su país.

En aquella ocasión la selección estadounidense que asistió se llevó la corona luego de una final contra Cuba, que esta noche nuevamente lucha por el título, esta vez contra República Dominicana.

Tras 2 horas y 21 minutos de accionar Canadá logró desquitarse del revés sufrido en la eliminatoria del grupo B cuando cayeron 1-3 a pesar de que por las estadísticas sus adversarios les aventajó 53-40 en ataque y en servicio, no así en bloqueo (2-8). Estados Unidos cometió 45 errores no forzados por 26 los ganadores.

Por los canadienses sumaron doble dígitos el opuesto Xander Ketrzynski (18) y los jugadores de esquina Brodie Hofer (14) y Michael Dowhaniuk (10), y por sus contrarios resultó Jaylen Jasper (22) el máximo anotador del desafío, en tanto su compañero Kevin Lamp agregó 18.

El brasileño Joao Paulo Bravo, entrenador de Canadá, catalogó el partido de difícil. "Pero superamos todas las dificultades, perdimos contra Cuba el pase a la final pero volvimos a jugar bien. Las pequeñas oportunidades que tuvimos hoy las supimos aprovechar mejor que cuando nos enfrentamos en el grupo B, ya que Estados Unidos no salió con el mismo saque de aquel día, pienso que ahí fue la diferencia".

Dowhaniuk, el capitán ganador, indicó que "cada partido que jugamos aquí chequeamos los números y estamos siempre mejorando, y eso pasó en este partido. Nuestro objetivo era ser campeón, uno se prepara para eso, pero si no es posible seguir dando lo mejor y mantuvimos el bronce del torneo del 2016".

Jonah Carson, director técnico de Estados Unidos, analizó que "jugamos una línea que era demasiado peligrosa y cometimos muchos errores, y eso lo aprovecha el rival. También tienen la capacidad de sacar a distintas posiciones. Ahora un descanso antes de que vuelvan a la universidad, y a jugar, y el año próximo comienza el proceso de nuevo".

El jugador de esquina Devin Joslyn expuso "los canadienses cumplieron las orientaciones de su entrenador, nos estudiaron muy bien, los dos equipos luchamos muy fuertes pero al final ellos lo hicieron mejor, igual su comunicación es muy buena cuando la bola está muy alta, nosotros lo hacemos pero nos falta un poco más".

Cuba oro y boleto al Mundial sub-21

LA HABANA, Cuba, 1 de septiembre de 2018 - Cuba conquistó el oro y el único boleto en disputa al Campeonato Mundial de la FIVB 2019 al imponerse a República Dominicana 3-0 (25-16, 25-15, 25-20) en el Torneo Norceca Sub-21 Masculino de Voleibol.

En el partido más coherente del torneo, estable nivel como eficiencia en el recibo y saque, los locales mejoraron el bronce que Cuba obtuvo en el pasado evento en Gatineau 2016, donde lideraron Estados Unidos y Canadá en ese orden, mientras para los dominicanos fue su segundo metal en la historia de la categoría, pues en 1998 también lograron plata.

Los anfitriones aventajaron a sus combativos adversarios en ataque (38-28) y servicio (9-3), fueron inferiores en bloqueo (5-8), pero cometieron solo 12 errores no forzados por 23 los visitantes.

El opuesto José Carlos Romero resultó el máximo anotador con 16 y le siguió el punta Julio Cárdenas con 12, mientras por los dominicanos Bayron Valdez con 15 de nuevo fue el caballo de batalla de su equipo.

Jesús Ángel Cruz, entrenador local, señaló que "no hubo ninguna laguna, algunos momentos malos normal en esta edad, pero nunca soltamos el cordel del partido, desde que empezó lo llevamos de la mano y mantuvimos la intensidad, que no fue así frente a ellos mismos en el set inicial del duelo en el grupo A, como con Canadá en la semifinal, pero esta noche todo lo contrario porque sabíamos que nos jugábamos la clasificación al Mundial".

"La generación actual del equipo nacional es muy buena y esperamos esta se le sume pues también tiene talento y a medida que esto se haga realidad con los que sigan ascendiendo podemos aspirar a insertarnos en el nivel mundial, al pueblo, a quienes nos siguen que tengan confianza de la juventud que hay en la Escuela Cubana de Voleibol, que ha tenido momentos difíciles, pero no ha desaparecido nunca, aseguró".

Por su parte el joven Romero manifestó que "el entrenador nos recalcó que por haberle ganado a los dominicanos en el grupo no podíamos confiarnos porque ellos venían con ánimo y deseos de seguir triunfando, que hiciéramos todo fuerte, el juego de nosotros y así salió, y nos sentimos felices porque es el resultado de tanto entrenamiento y sacrificios".

José Dante Mañón, DT dominicano expresó emocionado que "es una plata que nos sabe a oro, en la historia nunca le habíamos ganado a Estados Unidos en un Norceca, a pesar del tamaño de mis muchachos con los de ellos y Cuba, se tienen que esforzar doblemente, y otros detalles se unen y van saliendo, Bayron, el mejor atacador del torneo, ya hoy se observaba agotado como los estadounidenses frente a Canadá".

"Este fue un torneo con muchos juegos y muy corto, solo descansan los que avanzan directos a semifinales, y en realidad hoy la fatiga ha sido el factor principal en contra del desempeño de mi equipo", agregó.

Bayron, el capitán de los quisqueyanos, expuso que "fue un torneo de excelente nivel, no pudimos ganar el título pero hoy se hizo lo que se pudo, estamos un poco cansados, pero eso no es excusa, aunque quería ganar, no me conformo con nada, sin embargo no puedo negar que me voy feliz con esta medalla y tengo que estar orgulloso de ella".
