USA notches second win despite mistakes against Guatemala

September 03, 2019: The United States faced a determined late challenge from a hard-working Guatemala team, but still came out with the 3-0 (25-22, 25-21, 26-24) win on the second day of the 2019 NORCECA Men's Continental Championship in Winnipeg, Canada.

Brenden Sander stood out for the U.S. with 16 points, followed by Torey Defalco (12) and Mitchell Stahl (11).

Gerardo Paz reached double digits for Guatemala with 15 points.

Guatemala capitalized USA's mistakes, getting 25 points off of USA errors, but in the end the more experienced, bigger team prevailed.

The US faces Cuba tomorrow to wrap up pool play; while Guatemala plays the Dominican Republic.

USA, head coach, John Hawks:

"A win's a win... We can pick this apart, but credit to Guatemala for coming out and playing hard and making us work. It put us in a position where we were in a stressful situation, so at the end of the day some guys stepped up. We need to go back at the video and watch what we did and see how we react to prepare for the next match (Cuba). Cuba is a very physical team and we need to be ready for them."

#15 Brenden Sander of the US team:

"Honestly overall it wasn't the cleanest from us. We had a few communication issues and I think part of the match is getting through those communication issues, and we started communicating better and got the win in the end. Props to Guatemala for adapting and swinging no matter what – they put us in a tough position, but we were able to ultimately come out with the win."

Guatemala head coach, Reider Lucas Mora:

"We were against a very strong team with a lot of experience, and as a team we talked about sticking to our game plan, doing what we know, but the U.S. experience and skill showed through in the end. But I am proud of what my players did today – it's an honor to play against teams such as the U.S. We are making the most of our experience at this tournament.”

Cuba gets second victory at NORCECA Championship

September 03, 2019: Cuba defeated Dominican Republic 3-0 (25-20, 25-17, 25-15) and is now 2-0 at the 2019 Men's NORCECA Continental Championship at the University of Winnipeg in Manitoba, Canada.

Osniel Lazaro Melgarejo was again Cuba's top scorer at 17 points, including four aces.

Dominican captain Henry Omar Tapia also had 17 points, but for the losing side.

Cuba is aiming for first place in its pool to avoid quarterfinals and advance directly to the semifinals on Friday.

Cuba has already locked up a spot in the NORCECA Olympic Qualifier next January, but still has the goal to win this tournament.

Cuba head coach Yosvany Muñoz Perez:

"Today I am very happy. The team played better than yesterday (vs Guatemala). At the beginning of the game we started off a bit cold, but after that we increased our performance. We are ready for the United States. We will prepare and discuss our plan to be ready for the match."

Dominican Republic, head coach, Jose Alexander Gutierrez:

"It was a difficult match for us because Cuba's level is higher than us. But it is okay, much better than yesterday. For us it's very good to improve after each game. This tournament is very complicated and is not easy. There are different levels here, USA, Canada and Cuba are much higher in skill and experience than Puerto Rico, Mexico, Guatemala."

Canada overpowers Mexico in front of home crowd

September 03, 2019: Canada dominated Mexico 3-0 (25-10, 25-17, 25-15) in the host team's opener today at the Men's 2019 NORCECA Continental Championships today in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

Canada came out swinging from the first set in front of a pleased home crowd, and maintained a high level of play throughout the match.

Ryan Sclater topped all scorers with 16 points, followed by Stephen Maar with 13 and team captain Gord Perrin with 11.

Opposite Daniel Vargas contributed eight points to the Mexican effort. Mexico is now 1-1 in the tournament.

This was Canada's first match of the tournament, as Suriname was a late withdrawal from the event and therefore this pool. Canada plays Puerto Rico tomorrow at 8 pm local time.

Canada's head coach Glenn Hoag:

"It was a high quality of ball that we played today; very focused. We know Mexico is a feisty team and very skilled – they can pass well. Our guys were patient and we played really good block defense, so we are happy. We have a couple of objectives: We want to win this tournament and qualify for the next tournament (zonal Olympic Qualifier), so we'll keep our focus on that."

Mexico head coach, Jorge Miguel Azair Lopez:

"Canada played a very strong game with very few mistakes. They forced a lot of errors on our side. The goal of the tournament is still to qualify to the Olympic qualifying tournament. We have learned a big lesson from this match, and now we need to move on and focus on the goal of qualifying."
