Dominican Republic falls to Puerto Rico in five

September 06, 2019: It took five sets, but a young Dominican team was defeated by the more experienced Puerto Rico 2-3 (25-23, 14-25, 25-21, 23-25, 6-15) at the 2019 Men's NORCECA Continental Championship at the University of Winnipeg in Manitoba, Canada.

Puerto Rico finishes fifth overall in the tournament.

Captain Maurice Torres had 27 points for Puerto Rico (including four aces), and Pelegrin Vargas had 19.

Dominican captain Henry Omar Tapia was again very impressive for his team – 33 points, including six ace serves (the opposite set a Dominican record earlier in the competition with eight serves in one match). Jonathon Mercedes contributed 22 points for the losing side.

The result puts Puerto Rico in a position to qualify for the Olympic qualifier in January, as the US is already qualified for the Olympics, and therefore the Puerto Rican team is among the top four eligible here.

The Dominican team must now play a classification match for places 6/7 against Guatemala on the final day of the tournament.

Puerto Rico's head coach, Oswald Antonetti:

"I am happy with the result. When a team loses as we did her, you have to break that chain. We are building character with some of our younger players and we have to be patient with that. We look forward to preparing for the Olympic qualifier in January. "

Dominican Republic, head coach, Jose Alexander Gutierrez:

"I am not disappointed because we knew this would be a difficult match. We didn't have the experience in the end to close the match. This is the problem when you have a very young team. The result shows us that we are on the right path.

For us, it was a great competition. We never expected to play against teams such as Puerto Rico and Mexico like we did. They have many players with experience internationally. Most of our players are under 21 years old. We have more work ahead of us.

Canada falters against a determined Cuban team

September 06, 2019: Canada started strong, but lost momentum after the first set to fall to Cuba 1-3 (25-17, 22-25, 22-25, 19-25) in the first semifinal of the Men's 2019 NORCECA Continental Championship today in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

Canada led in blocking (12-10), but Cuba led in service points (9-7) and attacks (50-43).

Miguel Lopez led all scorers with 21 points for the winning team. He was followed by teammates Marlon Yant (15) and Osniel Mergarejo (13).

For Canada, Stephen Maar contributed 17 points. Nick Hoag and Sharone Vernon-Evans had 11 apiece.

Cuba will face the winner of USA vs Mexico in the gold medal match on Saturday. Canada will face the loser in the bronze game.

Cuba head coach Yosvany Muñoz Perez:

"I am happy because of this victory. Our team had a very high level performance today, especially in our serving, we had very strong service today. Congratulations to Canada, they are a good team. Now we want to see who wins between Mexico and the USA and then we will study the video. We want to be prepared for tomorrow."

#13 Cuban middle blocker, Robertlandy Simon:

"When we win, we are happy. We are here and trying to win, but the most important thing is to get to the Olympics. January is what will really count."

Today, our service was very good, and they had some difficulty with reception. We played well after the first set."

Canada's head coach Glenn Hoag:

"We played a great first set, in all aspects, especially in our serving. In the second set, we completely lost momentum because we committed too many service errors early in the second set, and Cuba started playing better. ... We haven't played Cuba in a long time, so it was good to see what they can do. We have to be ready for January. ...It's just a question of working on a few things, especially our serving flaws versus our block defense, and I think we will be ready. But for now, we will worry about tomorrow."

USA sweeps Mexico to advance to final

September 06, 2019: The USA took care of business beating their southern neighbors, Mexico, 3-0 (25-18, 25-16, 25-23) at the 2019 Men's NORCECA Continental Championship at the University of Winnipeg in Manitoba, Canada, on Friday night.

USA advances to the gold medal final; while Mexico will face host Canada in the bronze match up after Canada lost 3-1 to Cuba in the earlier semi.

In this match, T.J. Defalco let all scoring with 15 points (including three ace serves), followed by teammate Brenden Sander with 14.

Gonzalo Ruiz led Mexico with 12 points and Julian Duarte contributed 10 to the losing side's effort.

Cuba, Canada, Mexico and Puerto Rico have locked up spots in next January's Continental Olympic Qualifier. Medal matches tomorrow are at 2 and 4 pm local time (CT), with an 11 am classification match.

USA, head coach, John Hawks:

"We're going to the finals, so I'm super happy. Mexico is a good team and we came in with a ton of respect for them knowing that they would play really hard. Our guys really took care of business in the first couple of sets. But it was just really good team work all round; I'm really happy for our players. ... We're not going to take the fact that we beat Cuba earlier for granted. We are looking forward to the final."

Mexico, head coach, Jorge Miguel Azair Lopez:

"We feel at peace. We knew that Cuba, Canada, and the US were the favorites here. We were happy with that third set with the US, which was very competitive.

We are content – our objective was to qualify to the Olympic qualifier and that has been achieved. We feel good about playing Canada tomorrow, and Canada had a tough match today – so they are going to come back looking to win the medal."
