Teams aim for the World Championship at U18 Pan Am Cup

DURANGO, Mexico, May 20 2019. - On the eve of the fifth U18 Girls' Pan American Cup, the eight coaches of the national teams gave their first impressions of the event that grants two tickets to the FIVB age-group World Championship.

Eduardo Guillaume, Chile: "We are bringing a combination of U15 and U18 players; we are in the process of building a new group of players in Chile. In November the U15 group will compete at the South American championship and we want to gain experience, while the U18 has been working hard for over a year, with our minds set on the 2023 Pan-American Games. We will play the best way possible and try to win all our matches; there are other teams here who can win the ticket to worlds".

Jaime Echeverría, Cuba: "Our mission is to qualify to the World Championship, we will battle strong. I expect a nice competition, most of the teams here have been preparing specially for this event, and many had the same strategy of not using the same players for the U20 Pan American Cup. In our analysis and after studying our opponents, this will be a highly competitive tournament".

Alexandre Ceccato, Dominican Republic: "Our goal is to qualify to the world championship. Cuba is one of the strongest team here and I think our toughest matches will be against Mexico (as hosts they are difficult) and Puerto Rico. We have prepared hard and part of the team comes from competing at the U20 Pan American Cup in Peru".

William Fernández, Guatemala: "Our objective is to win experience; our team's height is low, so we expect all the matches to be difficult. This team has only three different players from the team that recently competed at the U20 Pan American Cup in Peru. We have been working in the team's moral because our results haven't been as expected. We hope Catarine Leiva, Honduras: "For us this is a step forward in winning experience and preparing our team for Central American championships, this is a great preparation tournament. My team is new, this is a challenge for them, I decided to take the risk for them to gain experience. In this specific category we are Afecavol champions and our goal is to keep being number one".

Ricardo Ponce, México: “Hosting is of great pressure but it’s also favorable for the players energy, the fans play an important role for the team, it is positive. We have little time practicing but the concentration good, they want to play and represent Mexico well and with high expectations in their individual growth. This team is competitive and will put up a fight in every match”.

Natalia Malaga, Peru: “I believe this will be a tough competition, my girls are unpredictable, which is natural at this age, they lack maturity and experience; I know they can do well but it all comes to their concentration in every match. My team comes from competing at the U20 Pan American Cup, they had a good experience and the competition was very strong compared to our previous preparation, we had the chance to compete at a higher level”.

Juan Carlos Rodríguez, Puerto Rico: “Last week were in Peru, we used it as preparation for this event in which we’re looking to qualify, we have young players under 16 years old and they bring a lot of experience. As in the edition 2014 of this event, we hope to win the ticket to the World Championship”.

DURANGO, México, 20 de mayo de 2019.- En la víspera de la quinta Copa Panamericana de Voleibol Femenino Sub-18, los ocho entrenadores de los equipos dieron sus primeras impresiones sobre sus aspiraciones en el certamen que otorga dos plazas al Campeonato Mundial de la FIVB de la categoría.

Eduardo Guillaume, Chile: “Venimos con una mezcla de jugadoras U15 y U18, estamos formando un grupo nuevo en Chile. En noviembre el grupo tendrá competencia U15 sudamericano y se busca que tenga rodaje, mientras que la de U18 viene trabajando fuerte desde el sudamericano, aproximadamente año y medio, con la meta en los Panamericanos 2023. Jugaremos de la mejor forma posible y tratar de ganar todos los partidos; son otros los equipos mejor perfilados para ganar la plaza al mundial”.

Jaime Echeverría, Cuba: “El compromiso es clasificar al Mundial, vamos con todo. Preveo que será una competencia bonita, muchos de los equipos acá se han preparado especialmente para este evento, muchos coincidieron en la estrategia de no utilizar a todas sus jugadoras para la copa sub-20. El análisis que hemos hecho y el estudio de los rivales, será una competencia reñida”.

Alexandre Ceccato, República Dominicana: “La meta es lograr la clasificación al campeonato mundial. Cuba es uno de los rivales más fuertes acá y pienso que nuestra disputa más fuerte será con México (como anfitrión será complicado) y Puerto Rico. Hemos entrenado fuerte y parte del equipo viene de competir en la Copa Sub-20 de Perú”.

William Fernández, Guatemala: “El objetivo es ganar experiencia; nuestro equipo es de baja estatura, por lo que serán unos juegos difíciles. Este equipo solo tiene tres integrantes nuevas distintas a las que compitieron en la Copa Panamericana Sub-20 que concluyó hace unos días en Perú. Hemos trabajado en la moral del equipo porque los resultados no han sido los esperados. Esperamos que el enfrentamiento con nuestro rival directo de la zona (Honduras) sea positivo”.

Catarine Leiva, Honduras: “Para nosotros este es un escalón que estamos subiendo para ganar experiencia y preparar a nuestro equipo para los torneos de Centroamérica, este es un súper fogueo. Este es un equipo novato, tienen un gran reto, pero tomé la decisión de arriesgarme para que adquieran experiencia. Específicamente en esta categoría somos campeonas de Afecavol por lo que la meta es mantener ese primer lugar en la región.

Ricardo Ponce, México: “Siempre ser sede ejerce presión pero también favorece en el ánimo de las jugadoras, el público juega un rol importante en el equipo, es muy positivo. Llevamos poco tiempo de trabajo con el grupo pero se ha tenido una buena concentración, tienen muchas ganas de jugar y de deseosas de cumplir con México y con sus expectativas individuales como jugadoras. El equipo es competitivo y dará garra en cada partido”.

Natalia Málaga, Perú: “Pienso que la competencia será dura, mis chicas son impredecibles, lo que es normal para la edad, su inmadurez y falta de experiencia; sé que pueden dar mucho pero todo se resume a la cabeza que pueden poner en cada juego. Mi equipo viene de haber jugado la Copa Panamericana Sub-20, han tenido un buen roce y para el ritmo en el que veníamos trabajando, se tuvo la oportunidad de competir a un nivel más fuerte”.

Juan Carlos Rodríguez, Puerto Rico: “La semana pasada estuvimos en Perú, que utilizamos como preparación para este evento en el que buscamos la clasificación, traigo niñas menores de 16 años de edad que lograron adquirir una gran experiencia. Esperamos que al igual que en la edición 2014 de este torneo, logremos el boleto al Mundial”.
