Eight Teams to Compete for the NORCECA Men's U21 Title

NOGALES, Mexico, June 10, 2024.- Eight teams are ready to compete for the NORCECA Men's U21 Continental Championship title, which kicks off on Tuesday, June 11, in Nogales, Mexico.

The head coaches have shared their first impressions ahead of the event, which is part of the qualification system for the FIVB Men's U21 World Championship in 2025.

The organizing committee confirmed that the event will be streamed on Facebook Live Federación Mexicana de Voleibol, A.C.

Daniel Lewis, Head Coach of Canada: "The team is of first year university players, so they have some good experience but not internationally. We had five weeks to prepare, and I noticed that our team started to come together well, so I expect us to be ok. We don't know about the other teams at the beginning of the tournaments, which makes it difficult to prepare for them and you must focus more on yourself, your own team. As the tournament grows, we hope to grow as a team as well, that's our goal for sure. We take it one game at a time and try to never over or underestimate anybody, just try to make sure our level is always there".

Lian Sem Estrada, Entrenador de Cuba: "This is a completely new team. The preparation went well, although there were some challenges because it was at the same time with the U19 team's preparation. We know these players have little experience, but we will defend our title as champions. We come with the same eagerness and determination to win the ticket to the World Championship."

Luis Fernando Castañeda, Entrenador de Guatemala: "I have come with a young team. We have worked hard, and the level of competition will be high. For us, it's good to keep competing as preparation for more events. We have a couple of players with experience, but overall, it's a young group. We hope that the players will develop and evolve as the games progress. We aim to play our best and improve our ranking."

Jorge Alberto Romero, Head Coach of Mexico: "Since last year I've been coaching the team, we finished in second place at the U21 Pan American Cup held in Cuba, and we also competed together in the World Championship in Bahrain. The team is strong, we have a good chance of taking a medal, and our goal is to qualify for the World Championship. However, we know we'll be facing very tough opponents".

Jorge Mena, Head Coach of Nicaragua: "This version of the team is slightly better. The boys are well-prepared; some of them have considerable experience (5 or 6 participated in the U21 event in Cuba last year), and 80% of the team are the Central American runners-up. We want to perform well, give the players the opportunity to play against high-level teams, and I believe we have a good chance of advancing to the quarterfinals".

Gerardo De Jesús Sánchez, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: "We have come with a balanced team. I have players with international experience; some competed in the U19 World Championship last year in Argentina. Others are new to the group, and some are changing positions. We have worked for a month and a half, and we are in pretty good shape".

Lionel Blokland, Team Manager of Suriname: “Our preparation is fine. The team spirit is high because we want to show the world that Suriname is not a country that you can dismiss, we are here to stay. Suriname is fighting to get better every year, so the other teams have to watch out because slowly but surely, we’re coming on top. That’s our main focus right now”.

John Hawks, Head Coach of United States: “We are very excited to be here and represent our country in this tournament. We have a mixture of new guys, but we have a core nucleus that competed in the World Championship last summer. I expect us to compete hard and play for the gold medal”.

Ocho Equipos van por el título NORCECA Sub-21 Masculino

NOGALES, México, 10 de junio de 2024.- Ocho equipos están preparados para competir por el título del Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-21 Masculino que inicia el martes 11 de junio en la Ciudad de Nogales, México.

Los directores técnicos expresaron sus expectativas previo al evento que forma parte del sistema de clasificación al Campeonato Mundial Sub-21 de la FIVB en 2025.

El comité organizador confirmó que el evento será transmitido a través de Facebook Live Federación Mexicana de Voleibol, A.C.

Daniel Lewis, Entrenador de Canadá: “El equipo está formado por jugadores de primer año universitario, por lo que tienen algo de buena experiencia, pero no internacionalmente. Tuvimos cinco semanas para prepararnos, y noté que nuestro equipo empezó a cohesionarse bien, así que espero que estemos bien. Al principio de los torneos, no sabemos mucho sobre los otros equipos, lo que hace difícil prepararse para enfrentarlos y tienes que centrarte más en ti mismo, en tu propio equipo. A medida que avance el torneo, esperamos crecer como equipo también, ese es sin duda nuestro objetivo. Vamos a jugar y tratamos de no subestimar ni sobreestimar a nadie, solo asegurarnos de que nuestro nivel esté siempre presente”.

Lian Sem Estrada, Entrenador de Cuba: “Este es un equipo totalmente nuevo. La preparación estuvo bien, hubo algunas dificultades porque coincidió con la preparación del equipo Sub-19. Sabemos que son jugadores con poca experiencia, pero defenderemos nuestra condición de campeones. Venimos con las mismas ansias y deseos, ganar el boleto al mundial”.

Luis Fernando Castañeda, Entrenador de Guatemala: “Vengo con un equipo joven. Hemos trabajado fuerte, el nivel de competencia será alto y para nosotros es bueno seguir compitiendo para la preparación de más eventos. Tenemos un par de muchachos con experiencia, pero en general es un grupo joven. Esperamos que los jugadores se desarrollen y conforme pasen los juegos, evolucionen. Jugaremos lo mejor posible y mejorar en el ranking”.

Jorge Alberto Romero, Entrenador de México: “Desde el año pasado que estoy dirigiendo al equipo, quedamos segundo lugar en la Copa Panamericana Sub-21 que se jugó en Cuba y también estuvimos juntos en el Mundial de Bahrain. El equipo está fuerte, tenemos posibilidades de estar en el medallero y el objetivo es clasificar al mundial, pero sabemos que tendremos muy buenos rivales a vencer”.

Jorge Mena, Entrenador de Nicaragua: “Esta versión del equipo está un poco mejor. Los muchachos están bien preparados, algunos tienen bastante experiencia (5 o 6 estuvieron en el evento Sub-21 de Cuba el año pasado), el 80% del equipo es el subcampeón de Centroamérica. Queremos hacer un buen papel, que los jugadores tengan tiempo de juego contra equipos de alto nivel y considero que tenemos posibilidad de avanzar a cuartos de final”.

Gerardo De Jesús Sánchez, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Venimos con equipo balanceado, tengo jugadores que ya tienen experiencia internacional, algunos compitieron en el mundial Sub-19 el año pasado en Argentina, otros se están integrando al grupo y otros cambiando de posición. Hemos trabajado durante mes y medio y estamos bastante bien”.

Lionel Blokland, Delegado de Surinam: “Nuestra preparación está bien. El espíritu del equipo es alto porque queremos mostrarle al mundo que Surinam no es un país que se puede descartar; estamos aquí para quedarnos. Surinam está luchando por mejorar cada año, así que los otros equipos deben tener cuidado porque, lenta pero seguramente, estamos ascendiendo. Ese es nuestro principal enfoque en este momento”.

John Hawks, Entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Estamos muy emocionados de estar aquí y representar a nuestro país en este torneo. Tenemos una combinación de jugadores nuevos, pero contamos con un núcleo central que compitió en el Campeonato Mundial el verano pasado. Espero que compitamos con fuerza y juguemos por la medalla de oro”.
