Coaches' comments ahead of men's Final 6

USA head coach Andy Read: “Coming back to the Final 6 as champions from last year is a great honor and challenge for us. It’s a different team compared with last year’s team, and a different team than we had at the Pan Am Cup earlier this summer, where we finished second. This is a lot of our NextGen players who are going to be in LA 2028 or Brisbane. It’s an opportunity to play high-level volleyball with teams from our zone, and I’m excited for that. It’s going to be a great tournament.”

Canada head coach Glenn Hoag: “This is quite a modified group from the Pan Am Cup earlier this year (where Canada won gold). There are nine new players, and we had a good training period of a couple of weeks. It will be a great event to test the guys; we’ve profiled the players that were in the Pan Am Cup, but now we will see how they will come together and perform. This is the last event of the summer, and we want to try to do our best on a home court.... Some of the players are quite young, U21 and U23, so we’re looking forward to seeing how they will do.”

Dominican Republic head coach José Dante Aristides Mañón Torres: “Our expectations are good because we have a very young team. We have been reinforcing the senior team with Under-23 players, thinking about the upcoming Under-23 event.”

Cuba head coach Jesus Angel Cruz Lopez: “This team is very young, and the expectation is to try to be among the four finalists of the tournament. We have the opportunity for players who haven't had much international experience to measure themselves against opponents of a similar age or at another level, which is good for observing them.”

Entrevistas Entrenadores Final 6 Masculino

Entrenador de Estados Unidos, Andy Read: “Regresar al Final 6 como campeones del año pasado es un gran honor y desafío para nosotros. Es un equipo diferente al del año pasado y un equipo diferente al que tuvimos en la Copa Panamericana a principios de este verano, donde terminamos en segundo lugar. Este equipo está compuesto por muchos de nuestros jugadores de la próxima generación que estarán en Los Ángeles 2028 o Brisbane. Es una oportunidad para jugar voleibol de alto nivel con equipos de nuestra zona, y eso me emociona. Va a ser un gran torneo.”

Entrenador de Canadá, Glenn Hoag: “Este es un grupo bastante modificado en comparación con la Copa Panamericana a principios de este año (donde Canadá ganó el oro). Hay nueve jugadores nuevos, y tuvimos un buen período de entrenamiento de un par de semanas. Será un gran evento para poner a prueba a los muchachos; hemos perfilado a los jugadores que estuvieron en la Copa Panamericana, pero ahora veremos cómo se unirán y rendirán. Este es el último evento del verano, y queremos intentar dar lo mejor en casa... Algunos de los jugadores son bastante jóvenes, Sub-21 y Sub-23, así que estamos ansiosos por ver cómo les irá”.

Entrenador de República Dominicana, José Dante Aristides Mañon Torres: “Las expectativas de nosotros son buenas porque tenemos un equipo muy joven. Venimos reforzando al equipo de mayores con jugadores Sub-23, pensando en el próximo evento Sub-23”.

Entrenador de Cuba, Jesús Angel Cruz López: “Este equipo es muy joven y la expectativa es tratar de estar entre los cuatro equipos finalistas del torneo. Tenemos la posibilidad de que muchachos que no han tenido mucha participación internacional puedan medirse contra rivales de similar edad o de otro nivel, eso es bueno para observarlos”
