Coaches Share Their Expectations Ahead of the U19 Boys' Pan American Cup

CUERNAVACA, Morelos, July 7, 2025. – One day before the start of the U19 Boys' Pan American Cup, the coaches of the eight participating teams shared their thoughts and expectations for the tournament, which will take place from July 8 to 13 at the Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Morelos (UAEM) Gymnasium.

The event brings together promising youth talents from across the continent, offering them valuable international experience and the opportunity to continue developing within high-performance programs.

Jordan Taylor, Head Coach of Canada: "We had a training camp in Halifax; we trained a couple of times a day which is a big step for us versus last year's competition. This year we have more continuity, so we feel a little bit more organized and prepared for competition. We're bringing a younger squad, five returning players with NORCECA experience, for the majority, it's going to be their first international competition, so it's going to be a growth and learning event for these twelve athletes."

Alvaro Del Campo, Head Coach of Chile: "The team is happy to be part of such an important international competition. We've been preparing with great dedication for several months. This is a group that's been working together since last year's South American tournaments. Our preparation included a tour to Uberlandia before coming to Mexico. We come with high expectations and the desire to compete against other countries."

Oscar Viña, Head Coach of Mexico: "The team was built from the national championship. I selected players from the top four teams of that tournament, along with others with strong potential. We've been training here in Morelia for two weeks. The work has been solid; we may lack height compared to other teams, but I trust this group."

Horacio Angulo, Head Coach of Panama first highlighted that Panama is making its return to this level of competition after more than a decade of absence: "Panama hadn't competed in an event like this for over ten years, it's very gratifying. We're here to show that high-level volleyball is played in Central America. We'll take it one match at a time and focus on our own game."

Juan Albarrán, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: "The Pan American Cup is a great preparation tournament for the U19 World Championship in Uzbekistan. We're taking this competition very seriously. The pool we're in offers strong preparation, and we're confident we can do a good job."

Furgil Ong-A-Fat, Head Coach of Suriname: "Our preparation went well. We started at the end of January with 60 players. We played friendly matches against French Guiana, so we're motivated. The team has experience from the NORCECA U19 in Puerto Rico, and we hope to improve our position."

Jonah Carson, Head Coach of the United States: “This is a great opportunity for the development of our programs. We’ve got four players with previous international experience representing USA Volleyball. This is the first time USA Volleyball has been able to send a U19 team to both a Pan American Cup and a World Championship, so we have two distinct rosters. We’re looking to help accelerate the growth of our under-19 and coaching programs, and this is a nice first step in that. With the addition of the U17 category, we’re seeing something incredible develop here in NORCECA and globally.”

Iván Nieto, Head Coach of Venezuela, emphasized that this event is part of the country's federation restructuring and youth development process: “This competition is part of the development cycle for these young athletes. Most of the group is inexperienced, and we hope to showcase the progress they've made during this recent phase of training. We've gone through changes in our national federation and are forming new work teams. This is an opportunity for the newly identified talents to demonstrate the rise of Venezuelan volleyball.”

Entrenadores Comparten sus Expectativas previo a la Copa Panamericana U19 Masculina

CUERNAVACA, Morelos, 7 de julio de 2025.- A un día del inicio de la Copa Panamericana Sub-19 Masculina, los entrenadores de los ocho equipos participantes compartieron sus impresiones y expectativas sobre el torneo que se disputará del 8 al 13 de julio en el Gimnasio de la Universidad Autónoma del Estado de Morelos (UAEM).

El evento reúne a prometedores talentos juveniles del continente, con miras a foguearse internacionalmente y continuar su proceso formativo en el alto rendimiento.

Jordan Taylor, Entrenador de Canadá: “Tuvimos un campamento de entrenamiento en Halifax; entrenamos un par de veces al día, lo cual representa un gran avance para nosotros en comparación con la competencia del año pasado. Este año tenemos más continuidad, así que nos sentimos un poco más organizados y preparados para la competencia. Traemos un equipo más joven, con cinco jugadores que ya tienen experiencia en torneos NORCECA; para la mayoría será su primera competencia internacional, así que será un evento de crecimiento y aprendizaje para estos doce atletas”.

Alvaro Del Campo, Entrenador de Chile: “El equipo viene contento de tener una competencia internacional tan importante. Nos preparamos con mucha conciencia durante varios meses. El equipo es un grupo que viene trabajando desde el año pasado durante los sudamericanos. Nuestra preparación incluyó una gira a Uberlandia antes de venir a México. Venimos con una gran expectativa de poder competir con otros países”.

Oscar Viña, Entrenador de México: “El equipo se conformó del campeonato nacional, hice una escogencia de los mejores cuatro equipos de ese campeonato y otros jugadores con potencial. Hemos estado concentrados acá en Morelia desde hace dos semanas. Se ha trabajado bien, posiblemente nos hace falta estatura en comparación de otros equipos. Confío en el equipo”.

Horacio Angulo, Entrenador de Panamá, primero destacó que Panamá marca su regreso a este tipo de competencias después de más de una década de ausencia: “Panamá llevaba más de diez años de no competir en un evento de este tipo, es gratificante. Venimos a demostrar que en el área de Centroamérica se juega un buen voleibol de nivel. Vamos un partido a la vez y a concentrarnos en nuestro propio juego”.

Juan Albarrán, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “La Copa Panamericana es un buen torneo de preparación para el Campeonato Mundial U19 en Uzbekistán. Tomamos la competencia con gran seriedad. El pool en que nos tocó es una gran preparación y podremos hacer un buen trabajo”.

Surinam Furgil Ong-A-Fat, Entrenador de Surinam: “La preparación fue buena. Empezamos a finales de enero con 60 jugadores. Tuvimos partidos amistosos con Guyana Frances así que estamos motivados. El equipo tiene experiencia del NORCECA U-19 en Puerto Rico y esperamos mejorar nuestra posición”.

Jonah Carson, entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Esta es una gran oportunidad para el desarrollo de nuestros programas. Contamos con cuatro jugadores que ya tienen experiencia previa en competencias internacionales representando a USA Volleyball. Esta es la primera vez que USA Volleyball puede enviar un equipo Sub-19 tanto a una Copa Panamericana como a un Campeonato Mundial, por lo que tenemos dos planteles distintos. Buscamos acelerar el crecimiento de nuestros programas Sub-19 y también de desarrollo de entrenadores, y este es un buen primer paso para lograrlo. Con la incorporación de la categoría Sub-17, estamos viendo algo increíble desarrollarse aquí en NORCECA y a nivel mundial”.

Iván Nieto, Entrenador de Venezuela, destacó que afrontan el evento como parte de su reestructuración federativa y proceso de desarrollo juvenil: “La competencia es parte del ciclo de formación de estos atletas jóvenes. La mayoría del grupo son nobeles y esperamos demostrar el nivel de desarrollo que han tenido en el último período de trabajo. Venimos de un cambio en nuestra federación nacional y se están conformando nuevos grupos de trabajo. Esta es una oportunidad para que los nuevos talentos que se han detectado puedan manifestar el nuevo surgir del voleibol venezolano”.
