For the Dominican Republic, coach José Gutiérrez commented: "Our goal in coming to this tournament was to gain experience. Yesterday's match wasn't that great, but today I think we showed that we have players who can perform at that level in the long run, and we will look to win first place in this event in the future.

We are leaving happy and in good shape, as this group travels to Guatemala tomorrow, and we have several events coming up with the U-23 national team."

After this result, Guatemala coach Reider Lucas shared: "It's a hard job for us to get here. The best players are here, and we need to achieve good results to be in this tournament. We fought hard to get the opportunity, but of course, we expected more and couldn't achieve it. We have to improve and keep working, which is what we have left.

I think the players need maturity, and the way to achieve it is to give them these experiences so they can continue playing and develop them for the future."
