The Road to the 2029 Junior Pan American Games Qualification Begins in León

LEÓN, Guanajuato, July 26, 2025.- The 2025 U23 Women's Pan American Cup, to be held from July 27 to August 1 at the Domo de La Feria in León, Guanajuato, marks the beginning of the qualification path for the third Junior Pan American Games in 2029.

For the teams from the North, Central America and Caribbean Volleyball Confederation (NORCECA), the U23 Pan American Cups, both women's and men's, held in 2025, 2026, 2027 and 2028, will award ranking points valid for qualification to the 2029 Junior Pan American Games. The qualification process will close on December 31, 2028.

On this matter, the coaches shared their thoughts:

Matthew Krueger, Head Coach of Canada: "The goal of this tournament and the summer for NextGen (that's how we call our program) is to get them ready to play a possible senior team. We've been training since the beginning of June, we had some tryouts beforehand, and we've been working hard. I'm excited to see how our girls can compete against the best in our conference and it's going to be a good challenge for us".

Kareem Richards, Head Coach of Costa Rica: "We have several objectives, both short and medium-term. Due to the number of competitions Costa Rica is currently participating in, we don't have the full roster that will go to the Junior Pan American Games in Asunción. In the short term, for the players who are going to Asunción, we want them to gain the necessary experience to stand out in Paraguay. In the long term, we aim to continue identifying and developing those athletes who can make the leap to the senior national team."

Wilfredo Robinson, Head Coach of Cuba: "We are aiming to keep the crown, that's our dream. The players are excited about the responsibility they've been given. If reaching the final isn't possible, we want to win a medal. This is a great opportunity to prepare for the Junior Pan American Games in Asunción."

Wagner Pacheco, Head Coach of the Dominican Republic: "It will be a very tough competition; there are teams with a very high level. We had scrimmage matches with Mexico and Cuba, and both teams are well-prepared and look strong. This is the first time the United States is taking part in this competition, and they always have a very good level. Only a couple of my players here will not be competing in the Junior Pan American Games."

Luis León, Head Coach of Mexico: "This is the group that will compete in Asunción in a few days. This tournament worked out perfectly to prepare us for the Junior Pan American Games. The goal is to reach the finals, fight for a spot on the podium, and I believe we have the team to compete."

Claudia Noguera, Head Coach of Nicaragua: "We come well-prepared and highly motivated for the competition, which we know has a very high level. It is important for Central American countries to participate in tournaments against higher-level teams because that prepares the athletes for the future. We believe that the development of our region has risen due to participating at higher levels, and the teams' pace and playing systems have greatly improved."

Miguel Misidjang, Head Coach of Suriname: "The preparation of Suriname was good, we've been practicing for about three months, and we just finished second place in the CAZOVA U23 event, which has been good leading into this tournament. We are missing two players that couldn't attend, because of other commitments. What we are looking for in this tournament, knowing upfront that other countries are much stronger, is a development campaign. We are focused on developing each player and the team, which is young, but we want them to have the experience".

Marie Zidek, Head Coach of the United States: "This is the U.S. first time we're competing in this tournament, we needed to get organized. We are very excited to be here; it's a great opportunity for our players to continue to perform in high-level competitions against many countries that play a strong game. This is a difficult age group, some players are in university, some are transitioning into first year Pro, but we are excited about the potential to compete and more players developing in the pipeline is our goal. We will focus on bringing a strong game for ourselves, trying to produce as many points as possible and then we will have to adapt to the teams we face".

La ruta de clasificación a los Juegos Panamericanos Junior 2029 inicia en León

LEÓN, Guanajuato, 26 de julio de 2025.- La Copa Panamericana Sub-23 Femenina 2025 que se disputará del 27 de julio al 1 de agosto en el Domo de La Feria en León, Guanajuato, marca el inicio de la ruta de clasificación para los terceros Juegos Panamericanos Junior de 2029.

Para los equipos de la Confederación Norte, Centroamérica y del Caribe (NORCECA), las Copas Panamericanas Sub-23, tanto femeninas como masculinas, celebradas en 2025, 2026, 2027 y 2028, otorgarán puntos de ranking válidos para la clasificación a los Juegos Panamericanos Junior 2029. El proceso de clasificación cerrará el 31 de diciembre de 2028.

Al respecto, los entrenadores opinaron:

Matthew Krueger, Entrenador de Canadá: "El objetivo de este torneo y del verano para NextGen (así es como llamamos a nuestro programa) es prepararlas para que posiblemente puedan jugar en la selección mayor. Hemos estado entrenando desde principios de junio, tuvimos algunas pruebas antes, y hemos estado trabajando duro. Estoy emocionado de ver cómo nuestras chicas pueden competir contra las mejores de nuestra conferencia y va a ser un buen desafío para nosotras".

Kareem Richards, Entrenador de Costa Rica: "Traemos varios objetivos, a corto y a mediano plazo. Por la cantidad de competencias en las que está participando Costa Rica, no contamos con todo el plantel que va a los Juegos Panamericanos Junior de Asunción. A corto plazo, para las jugadoras que, si van a Asunción, queremos que consigan el fuego necesario para destacar en Paraguay. A largo plazo buscamos seguir rescatando aquellas atletas que sí pueden dar el salto a la selección mayor”.

Wilfredo Robinson, Entrenador de Cuba: “Buscamos mantener la corona, ese es nuestro sueño. Las jugadoras están emocionadas por la responsabilidad que se les ha dado. De no ser posible alcanzar la final, queremos ganar una medalla. Es una buena oportunidad para nuestra preparación para los Juegos Panamericanos Junior de Asunción”.

Wagner Pacheco, Entrenador de República Dominicana: “Será una competencia muy dura, hay equipos de muy buen nivel. Tuvimos partidos de fogueo con México y Cuba, y ambos equipos están bien preparados y lucen fuertes. Es la primera vez que Estados Unidos participa de esta competencia, y siempre tienen muy buen nivel. Únicamente un par de jugadoras que están acá, no competirán en los Juegos Panamericanos Junior”.

Luis León, Entrenador de México: “Este grupo es el que va a competir en Asunción, en pocos días. La competencia quedó muy bien para prepararnos para los Juegos Panamericanos Junior. El objetivo es alcanzar las finales, pelear un lugar en el pódium y considero que tenemos el equipo para competir”.

Claudia Noguera, Entrenadora de Nicaragua: “Venimos preparadas con mucho ánimo para la competencia que sabemos tiene un gran nivel. Es importante que los países centroamericanos participen en competencias contra equipos de mayor nivel ya que eso prepara a las atletas para el futuro. Creemos que el desarrollo de nuestra región se ha elevado por la participación a grandes niveles y se ha mejorado mucho el ritmo y sistema de juego de los equipos”.

Miguel Misidjang, Entrenador de Surinam: “La preparación de Surinam fue buena, hemos estado practicando durante unos tres meses y acabamos de finalizar en segundo lugar en el evento CAZOVA U23, lo cual ha sido positivo de cara a este torneo. Nos faltan dos jugadoras que no pudieron asistir debido a otros compromisos. Lo que buscamos en este torneo, sabiendo de antemano que otros países son mucho más fuertes, es una campaña de desarrollo. Estamos enfocados en desarrollar a cada jugadora y al equipo, que es joven, pero queremos que adquieran la experiencia.”

Marie Zidek, Entrenadora de Estados Unidos: “Es la primera vez que Estados Unidos compite en este torneo, necesitábamos organizarnos. Estamos muy emocionadas de estar aquí; es una gran oportunidad para que nuestras jugadoras sigan participando en competencias de alto nivel contra muchos países que juegan a un nivel fuerte. Esta es una categoría de edad complicada, algunas jugadoras están en la universidad, otras están en su primer año como profesionales, pero estamos entusiasmadas con el potencial para competir y nuestro objetivo es que más jugadoras sigan desarrollándose en la cantera. Nos enfocaremos en traer un juego fuerte para nosotras, intentando producir la mayor cantidad de puntos posibles y luego tendremos que adaptarnos a los equipos que nos enfrentaremos”.
