Eight Teams Compete for the Title at the NORCECA U17 Boys' Continental Championship

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, November 17, 2025. – The second edition of the NORCECA U17 Boys' Continental Volleyball Championship will begin this Tuesday at the Alexis Argüello Sports Complex in this city, with eight teams vying for a spot at next year's World Championship.

Coaches are convinced that this is a key age group for the development of young talents, and all aim to secure top positions that will allow them to contend for a World Championship berth.

Brandon Taliaferro, United States Head Coach: "We are ready to have fun and play very hard. We will try to ensure everyone has a great experience here, both on and off the court. The idea is for the players to gain experience, to see how official NORCECA and FIVB international events work. This will be the first official tournament for our players, so it's important that they accumulate experience."

Francisco Lerebours, Dominican Republic Head Coach: "We represent a new project for the Dominican Republic and we truly have good expectations. We hope to finish within the top five and continue developing these young players, who have a projection all the way to 2028 in all international competitions. This category is extremely important because it is the foundation; if each Federation doesn't have that foundation, it has no project. This is the project for the Dominican Republic as we work toward a better future."

Joa Liam Sem Estrada, Cuba Head Coach: "Our objectives are always the same in every tournament: to earn the qualification. This time, it's the ticket to the World Championship, and also to come as a team to improve, for the boys not only to have fun but to learn how to play volleyball and qualify. They come with the perspective of growing in their volleyball and, in the near future, participating in championships of the different categories."

Walter Jenkins, Costa Rica Head Coach: "The boys are very excited. We, the coaches, are too because we have been working since around March, so the expectation is to secure a good position in the tournament. The learning experience is important because among the 12 players, only one has previous experience; the others come in with no experience at all, at least in international events of this kind."

Hernán Torres, Puerto Rico Head Coach: "We have a group of new boys with whom we are trying to begin this international projection. In Puerto Rico, we've looked for the best talent, the greatest height possible, so we can take this process to a high level and have them come ready to compete. We are looking for qualities in these boys that will allow them to rise to the senior national team in the future."

Denis Rivera, Mexico Head Coach: "We are pleased with the work the boys have done to be here. We know this is the first age group for this type of tournament, and we are motivated and prepared to begin the event. Two years ago, during the first U17 World Championship, we saw a high level of play, and I believe this age is important for driving athlete development.”

Elwyn Oxley, Barbados Head Coach: “My expectations for them to perform well are very high. We’ve traveled a long way to be here, as we had to qualify and we won in our zone. The boys are excited, and I think they’ve earned this opportunity. As a coach, I especially like hearing them say they want to play volleyball and want to have a great experience. These young athletes play first-division volleyball in their respective clubs, which is the highest division we have. They also play in the U19 school tournaments. The boys are fully equipped, well prepared, and ready to stay focused, committed, and disciplined.”

Jorge Mena, Nicaragua Head Coach: “We are the hosts, and we have prepared almost all year for this event. We’ve had difficulties with the boys, but we’ve tried to build a competitive team. We know the quality of the event, but we will try to perform well in this tournament. This category is formative; we try to find the best elements for the future, athletes who will later become the replacements for the top-level players.”

The opening day will be this Tuesday:

2:00 pm – Mexico vs United States

4:00 pm – Cuba vs Dominican Republic

6:00 pm – Puerto Rico vs Costa Rica

Opening Ceremony

8:00 pm – Nicaragua vs Barbados.

Ocho equipos por el título del NORCECA Continental Sub-17 de Varones

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, 17 de noviembre de 2025.- El II Campeonato Continental NORCECA de Voleibol Sub-17 Masculino iniciará este martes en el Polideportivo Alexis Argüello de esta ciudad con ocho equipos en busca de la plaza para el mundial de la categoría el próximo año.

Los entrenadores están convencidos que es una categoría primordial para el desarrollo de los jóvenes talentos, y todos ansían llevarse los mejores puestos que le permitan optar al boleto mundialista.

Brandon Taliaferro, entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Estamos listos para divertirnos y jugar muy fuerte. Vamos a intentar que todos tengan una gran experiencia aquí, tanto en la cancha como fuera de ella. La idea es que los jugadores ganen experiencia, que vean cómo funcionan los eventos oficiales de NORCECA y FIVB a nivel internacional. Este será el primer torneo oficial para nuestros jugadores así que es importante que logren sumar experiencia”.

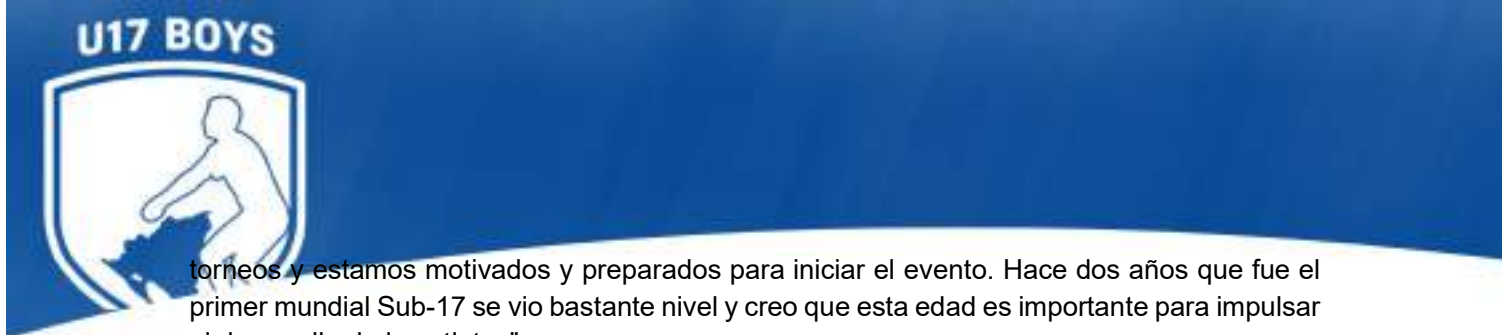

Francisco Lerebours, entrenador de República Dominicana: “Representamos un nuevo proyecto de República Dominicana y tenemos buenas expectativas, de verdad que sí. Esperamos quedar dentro de los cinco puestos y seguir el desarrollo de estos nuevos jóvenes que tienen una proyección hasta el 2028 en toda competencia internacional. Esta categoría es súper importante porque es la base; si cada Federación no tiene esa base, no tiene proyecto, entonces este es el proyecto de República Dominicana que se intenta trabajar para un buen futuro”.

Joa Liam Sem Estrada, entrenador de Cuba. “Siempre nuestros objetivos son los mismos en cada torneo, lograr el boleto de clasificación. Esta vez es el boleto al campeonato mundial y venir como equipo a mejorar, a que los muchachos no solamente se diviertan, sino que aprendan a jugar voleibol y clasificar. Ellos vienen con la perspectiva de crecer en su voleibol y en un futuro cercano asistir a los campeonatos de las diferentes categorías”.

Walter Jenkins, entrenador de Costa Rica: “Los chicos vienen muy emocionados. Nosotros los entrenadores también porque hemos venido trabajando desde marzo, más o menos, entonces la expectativa es tomar un buen lugar en el torneo. Es importante la enseñanza que pueda dar porque dentro de este grupo de los 12 muchachos, solo hay uno que ya tuvo una experiencia previa, los otros vienen totalmente sin experiencia, por lo menos en eventos internacionales de esta índole”.

Hernán Torres, entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Tenemos un grupo de niños nuevos donde estamos buscando que comiencen esta proyección internacional. Hemos buscado en Puerto Rico el mejor talento, la mayor altura posible para poder llevar este proceso a un alto nivel, que ellos puedan venir a luchar a esta competición. Estamos buscando cualidades de estos niños para que puedan subir a la selección adulta más adelante”.

Denis Rivera, entrenador de México: “Estamos contentos por el trabajo que han venido realizando los chicos para estar acá. Sabemos que es la primera edad para este tipo de torneos y estamos motivados y preparados para iniciar el evento. Hace dos años que fue el primer mundial Sub-17 se vio bastante nivel y creo que esta edad es importante para impulsar el desarrollo de los atletas".

Elwyn Oxley, entrenador de Barbados: "Mis expectativas de que lo hagan bien son muy altas. Hemos recorrido un largo camino para estar aquí, ya que nos tuvimos que clasificar y ganamos en nuestra zona. Los chicos están emocionados y creo que se han ganado ese derecho. Como entrenador me gusta especialmente que me digan que quieren jugar al voleibol y que quieren llevarse una bonita experiencia. Estos jóvenes juegan al voleibol en primera división en sus respectivos clubes, que es la división más alta que tenemos. También juegan en los torneos de las escuelas Sub-19. Los chicos están totalmente equipados, bien preparados y listos para concentrarse, dedicarse y ser disciplinados".

Jorge Mena, entrenador de Nicaragua: "Somos sede, nos hemos preparado casi todo el año para este evento. Hemos tenido dificultades con los niños, pero hemos tratado de conformar un equipo competitivo. Sabemos la calidad del evento, pero trataremos de hacer un buen papel en este torneo. Esta categoría es formativa, tratamos de buscar los mejores elementos para el futuro, un atleta que más adelante sea el reemplazo de un jugador que está ahí arriba".

La primera jornada será este martes:

2:00 pm – México vs Estados Unidos

4:00 pm – Cuba vs República Dominicana

6:00 pm – Puerto Rico vs Costa Rica

Inauguración

8:00 pm – Nicaragua vs Barbados
