NORCECA Men's Final Four Coaches Ready for the Season's First Challenge

LEÓN, Guanajuato, Mexico, June 11, 2026.- The coaches of the four participating teams agreed that the 2026 NORCECA Men's Final Four represents an important starting point for their respective programs, serving as the first international event of the season and a tournament that awards valuable continental and world ranking points.

The competition will be held from June 12 to 14 at the Domo de la Feria in León, Guanajuato, featuring Mexico, Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, and Guatemala. In addition to crowning the tournament champion, the event is part of the qualification pathway for the Lima 2027 Pan American Games.

Dominican Republic head coach, Venezuelan Alexander Gutiérrez, said the tournament will help continue the development of a program that has significantly strengthened its roster depth.

“It has been a difficult start to the season for us because we are hosting the Central American Games and have not had a permanent training base. We spent 30 days in Colombia building the foundation of our preseason. This tournament will be important to continue evaluating players because, for the first time in the eight years I have led this project, I have options at every position. We take it very seriously because it offers ranking points, and my intention is to continue developing the project for the long term,” he said.

Meanwhile, Cuban coach Reider Lucas, who leads Guatemala, emphasized the importance of competing in high-level events for the growth of volleyball in his country.

“For Guatemala, it is very important to participate in events like this, and we are very happy to be here. We had a good year in 2025, even though the ending was not what we expected, and we want to get back on that path. The players are motivated, and our goal is to remain at this level because it helps Guatemalan volleyball continue to grow. We want to make a good impression,” he stated.

Mexico's head coach, Brazilian Carlos Eduardo Schwanke, highlighted the work done during the preparation period and the expectations of the host team.

“We are just starting the season and have trained hard to build a team that improves every year. For this first tournament, we have only been training together for two weeks, and we will try to show our best version. Last year we were here for the Men's Pan American Cup and won the silver medal; this year we have great ambition and the dream of winning the gold medal for Mexico here in León,” he commented.

Puerto Rico head coach Jamille Torres explained that his squad combines youth and experience with the objective of continuing the growth of the national program.

“For this tournament, we have brought a mix of young players who are succeeding in the NCAA, standout players from our domestic league, and several veterans, with the goal of continuing to strengthen our national program. We have won this tournament for the past two consecutive years, so we come here aiming to contend for the title and continue improving our position in the world rankings,” he said.

Entrenadores del NORCECA Final Four Masculino listos para el primer desafío de la temporada

LEÓN, Guanajuato, México, 11 de junio de 2026.- Los entrenadores de las cuatro selecciones participantes coincidieron en que el NORCECA Final Four Masculino 2026 representa un importante punto de partida para sus proyectos, al tratarse del primer compromiso internacional de la temporada y un torneo que otorga valiosos puntos para los rankings continental y mundial.

La competencia se disputará del 12 al 14 de junio en el Domo de la Feria de León, Guanajuato, con la participación de México, Puerto Rico, República Dominicana y Guatemala. Además de definir al campeón del certamen, el evento forma parte del proceso de clasificación hacia los Juegos Panamericanos Lima 2027.

El entrenador de República Dominicana, el venezolano Alexander Gutiérrez, señaló que el torneo servirá para continuar el desarrollo de un proyecto que ha fortalecido la profundidad de su plantel.

“Para nosotros ha sido un inicio de temporada complicado porque somos sede de los Juegos Centroamericanos y no hemos tenido un centro de trabajo. Estuvimos 30 días en Colombia construyendo la base de la pretemporada. Este torneo será importante para seguir probando jugadores porque por primera vez, en los ocho años que llevo al frente del proyecto, tengo opciones por posición para escoger. Lo tomamos con mucha seriedad porque otorga puntos de ranking y mi intención es seguir desarrollando el proyecto a largo plazo”, expresó.

Por su parte, el cubano Reider Lucas, entrenador de Guatemala, destacó la importancia de competir en eventos de alto nivel para el crecimiento del voleibol de Guatemala.

“Para Guatemala es muy importante estar en este tipo de eventos y estamos muy contentos. Tuvimos un buen año en 2025, a pesar de que el cierre no era lo esperado, y queremos retomar ese camino. Los muchachos llegan motivados y el objetivo es mantenernos en este nivel porque ayuda a que el voleibol guatemalteco siga creciendo. Vamos a dar una buena imagen”, afirmó.

El dirigente de México, el brasileño Carlos Eduardo Schwanke, resaltó el trabajo realizado durante la preparación y las expectativas del equipo anfitrión.

“Estamos empezando la temporada y hemos entrenado fuerte para integrar un equipo que mejora cada año. Para este primer torneo hemos trabajado juntos solo dos semanas e intentaremos mostrar nuestra mejor versión. El año pasado estuvimos aquí en la Copa Panamericana Masculina y obtuvimos la medalla de plata; este año tenemos mucha ambición y el sueño de ganar el oro para México en León”, comentó.

Mientras tanto, el entrenador de Puerto Rico, Jamille Torres, explicó que su equipo combina juventud y experiencia con el objetivo de mantener el crecimiento del programa nacional.

“Para este torneo traemos una mezcla de jóvenes que están teniendo éxito en la NCAA, jugadores destacados de nuestra liga y varios veteranos, con la intención de seguir fortaleciendo el programa nacional. Venimos de ganar este torneo durante dos años corridos, por lo que llegamos con la intención de disputar el campeonato y continuar mejorando en el ranking mundial”, manifestó.
