Girls' U17 Pan American Cup in Honduras Ready to Begin with Nine National Teams

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, May 25, 2026.- Everything is set for the start of the second edition of the Girls' U17 Pan American Cup, taking place from May 26 to 31 in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, with the participation of nine national teams from across the continent.

The tournament will bring together some of the most promising emerging talents in women's volleyball and will serve as an important preparation event for the United States (NORCECA champions), Venezuela (South American champions), Mexico, the Dominican Republic, Puerto Rico, and Peru, all qualified for this year's FIVB U17 World Championship in Chile.

Canada's Head Coach, Richard Schick: "It's an amazing opportunity to be here; for the majority of the girls, it's their first opportunity to compete for Canada and represent our country, and we are extremely honored. It's new to all of us. We want to enjoy ourselves and have fun."

Costa Rica's Head Coach, Kareem Richards: "The core of the team is the same one that competed at the Continental Championship in Costa Rica last year. The goal is to compete and finish as high as possible in the standings. We know this is a unique opportunity because seven of the teams here will compete at the World Championship this year. It is a great growth opportunity for the athletes individually and collectively, as several of them will move up to the U19 category. We have high expectations and will give our very best."

Dominican Republic's Head Coach, Prisilla Rivera: "The girls have matured and grown compared to the NORCECA Championship last year in Costa Rica. I think we did not have ideal preparation, but we are ready to compete. There are new members on the team: Crisbel Payano, a very young player with a promising future; Joanna Fanil, who did not have the opportunity to be in Costa Rica; and Yolgeissy Ozuna, daughter of a great Dominican athlete. Like all the teams, we come with great enthusiasm to fight for a medal and, most importantly, to prepare for the World Championship in Chile next August."

Honduras' Head Coach, Marvin Andino: "This is a unique opportunity for our players and for the National Federation to shape the future of women's volleyball in our country. Facing elite teams from the Americas will allow us to raise our level of play and aspire to other international competitions. The team has trained hard; we are going to battle, give everything on the court, and enjoy this beautiful sport."

Mexico's Head Coach, Migdael Ruiz: "Eighty percent of the team will be competing at the World Championship. The squad has been reinforced with two younger players as part of continuing the development process and beginning to focus on new talents; both definitely have the level for this category. We are coming for revenge against the United States after the gold medal match at last year's continental championship."

Puerto Rico's Head Coach, Leira Ortíz: "We started working in February with a large group of approximately 26 players. We increased the amount of training while gradually reducing the number of players. We still have a long-term plan with the World Championship in August as our main goal, so this will not necessarily be the same group that goes to the World Championship. This group will also soon compete in the NORCECA U19 Championship as part of the preparation for the World Championship. The group is similar to the one that competed in the NORCECA U17 Championship last year and won a medal, so they know each other well, but we strengthened the training for this tournament.”

Peru’s Head Coach, Marcelo Diniz: “Peru is well prepared; we have worked for two months. We have high expectations for our participation here. This competition is very important for all the athletes to grow, learn, and evolve. The World Championship is our goal, which is why this event is so important, and we hope to make the most of it.”

USA’s Head Coach, Marie Zidek: “It feels fantastic to have the opportunity to be here just when these players are starting these international competitions. There are very good teams here that play very good volleyball. It’s going to be excellent development for these players; for some it’s their first international tournament, for some it’s their first time leaving the country, so it’s going to be educational volleyball, educational travel, and learning how to represent and wear the USA team logo. Some of the players here are competing to be on the USA roster for the World Championship.”

Venezuela’s Head Coach, Ihosvanny Champions: “We are very happy to participate here. Our main objective is preparation for the World Championship and taking advantage of having two teams here (Peru and Mexico) that are in our group at the World Championship; observing them is very important. We have added new players to the team. It will be a great experience for the group.”

Nueve Selecciones listas para la Copa Panamericana Sub-17 Femenina en Honduras

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras, 25 de mayo de 2026.- Todo está preparado para el inicio de la segunda edición de la Copa Panamericana Sub-17 Femenina, que se disputará del 26 al 31 de mayo en Tegucigalpa, Honduras, con la participación de nueve selecciones nacionales del continente.

El torneo reunirá a destacados talentos emergentes del voleibol femenino y servirá como importante evento preparatorio para Estados Unidos (campeón de NORCECA), Venezuela (campeón Sudamericano), México, República Dominicana, Puerto Rico y Perú, clasificados al Campeonato Mundial FIVB Sub-17 de este año en Chile.

Richard Schick, Entrenador de Canadá: “Es una oportunidad increíble estar aquí; para la mayoría de las chicas es su primera oportunidad de competir por Canadá y representar a nuestro país, y nos sentimos extremadamente honradas. Es algo nuevo para todas nosotras. Queremos disfrutar y divertirnos”.

Kareem Richards, Entrenador de Costa Rica: “La base del equipo es el que compitió en el Campeonato Continental en Costa Rica el año pasado. El objetivo es competir y quedar lo más arriba posible en la tabla de posiciones. Sabemos que esta es una oportunidad única porque siete de los equipos acá, estarán compitiendo en el Mundial este año. Es una oportunidad de crecimiento para las atletas a nivel individual y colectivamente, ya que varias de ellas pasan a la categoría U19. Tenemos expectativas altas y dar lo mejor de nosotros”.

Prisilla Rivera, Entrenadora de República Dominicana: “Las niñas han madurado y crecido en comparación al campeonato NORCECA del año pasado en Costa Rica. Pienso que no tuvimos una preparación óptima, pero estamos listas para competir. Hay integrantes nuevas en el equipo: Crisbel Payano, una jugadora muy joven y se perfila que tendrá un futuro prometedor; Joanna Fanil, que no tuvo oportunidad de estar en Costa Rica; y Yolgeissy Ozuna, hija de un gran deportista dominicano. Venimos con mucha ilusión, como todos los equipos, a buscar una medalla y, lo más importante, prepararnos para el Mundial en Chile, el próximo agosto”.

Marvin Andino, Entrenador de Honduras: “Esta es una oportunidad única para nuestras jugadoras y para la Federación Nacional, para perfilar el futuro del voleibol femenino de nuestro país. Enfrentarnos a países élite de América nos permitirá elevar nuestro nivel de juego y aspirar a otras competencias internacionales. El equipo ha entrenado, vamos a dar batalla, a entregar todo en la cancha y disfrutar de este lindo deporte”.

Migdael Ruiz, Entrenadora de México: “Un 80% del equipo es el que estará compitiendo en el Mundial. El equipo está reforzado con dos jugadoras más chicas, es ir impulsando el proceso y empezar a enfocarnos en nuevos talentos; sin duda ambas tienen el nivel en esta categoría. Venimos para la revancha contra Estados Unidos por el oro en el campeonato continental del año pasado”.

Marcelo Diniz, Entrenador de Perú: “Perú está bien preparado, hemos trabajado por dos meses. Tenemos una buena expectativa de nuestra participación acá. Esta competencia es muy importante para todas las atletas, para crecer, para aprender y evolucionar. El campeonato mundial es nuestra meta y por ello es muy importante, y esperamos aprovecharla de la mejor forma posible”.

Leira Ortíz, Entrenadora de Puerto Rico: “Comenzamos a trabajar desde febrero con un grupo grande, aproximadamente 26 jugadoras. Aumentamos la cantidad de práctica y disminuimos la cantidad de jugadoras. Todavía tenemos un plan a largo plazo siendo la meta el campeonato mundial en agosto, por lo que no necesariamente este será el mismo grupo que irá al mundial. Este grupo también competirá próximamente en el NORCECA Sub-19, en preparación al mundial. El grupo es similar al que compitió en el NORCECA Sub-17 el año pasado y que obtuvo medalla, por lo que se conocen bien, pero fortalecimos el entrenamiento para este torneo”.

Marie Zidek, Entrenadora de Estados Unidos: “Se siente fantástico tener la oportunidad de estar aquí justo cuando estas jugadoras están comenzando en las competencias internacionales. Hay equipos muy buenos aquí que juegan un voleibol de gran nivel. Será un excelente proceso de desarrollo para estas atletas; para algunas es su primer torneo internacional, para otras es la primera vez que salen del país, así que será una experiencia educativa tanto en el voleibol como en los viajes y en cómo representar y portar el logo del equipo de Estados Unidos. Algunas de las jugadoras que están aquí compiten por un lugar en la selección de Estados Unidos para el Campeonato Mundial”.

Ihosvanny Champions, Entrenador de Venezuela: “Estamos muy contentos de participar acá. El objetivo fundamental es nuestra preparación para el Mundial y aprovechar que acá se encuentran dos equipos (Perú y México) que están en nuestro grupo en el Mundial; observarlos es muy importante. Hemos integrado jugadoras nuevas al equipo. Será una gran experiencia para el equipo”.
