Coaches Ready for the Men's Volleyball Challenge at Santo Domingo 2026

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic, July 24, 2026. – The wait is over. With the pools set and the competition about to begin, the head coaches of the eight teams competing in the men's volleyball tournament at the Santo Domingo 2026 Central American and Caribbean Games said their squads are ready to face a championship that promises a high level of competition and, in addition to the regional medals, offers valuable points toward the NORCECA Continental Ranking.

From July 25 to 30, the Professor Ricardo Gioriver Arias Volleyball Palace will host the region's top teams in a tournament where every match will be crucial in the race for the podium. Ahead of the opening serve, the coaches shared their expectations for this edition of the Games, assessed the level of their opponents, and spoke about the goals they have set for the competition.

Paolo Montagnani, Head Coach of Colombia: "We had more than a month of preparation, but not enough friendly matches to prepare for the competition. This is the first competition of a long summer, and we want to go step by step, improve step by step. We know the first match is one of the most important ones, so we must play it very well. We are excited and also curious to see the level our team can reach. The team is a mix of experienced players and some very young ones."

Yumilka Ruiz, Team Manager of Cuba: "We come with high aspirations and clear objectives. We will fight to reach the podium and compete for the gold medal. We have a squad that combines young players with more experienced ones who competed in this year's VNL. We are ready to give everything we have."

Alexander Gutiérrez, Head Coach of the Dominican Republic: "The Games are one of several important tournaments we have ahead of us. Four years ago, we had a good performance, and we have kept the core of that team while adding new players. We will continue investing in the development of men's volleyball, doing our best and aiming for a strong performance."

Reider Lucas, Head Coach of Guatemala: "We are very happy that Guatemala is participating in the Central American and Caribbean Games for the third consecutive time. The players are eager to compete. We know the level will be very high, and we are pleased with the way the team has prepared to play good matches. We will fight for the best position possible. Experiences like this help us continue improving our volleyball and remain competitive at this level."

Carlos Eduardo Schwanke, Head Coach of Mexico: "It is once again a great opportunity to be here representing Mexico. We expect to achieve a good result, play quality volleyball, and finish the Games in a strong position."

Jamille Torres, Head Coach of Puerto Rico: "We are always very excited because these are our regional Olympics, and we have enjoyed a great deal of success at the Games. That also brings added pressure because of what this event means to our country. Our objective remains the same: to give a group of young players the opportunity to continue growing within our program. Our performance in the last tournament (the Final Four) reflects where we stand at the moment. We have brought a combination of young and more experienced players to continue building on our work and fight for a medal."

Carlos Orta Fellove, Head Coach of Suriname: "Suriname is a team in development. We have gone through a rebuilding process, and at present only four players have significant experience. Last year, at the Final Six, we had an outstanding performance with the tournament's second-best libero and best blocker, showing the progress we have made. We will fight to improve on the seventh-place finish we achieved at the last Games. It will be difficult against such strong opponents, but it is not out of reach."

Rubén Wolochin, Head Coach of Venezuela: "We have prepared as well as possible under the circumstances. We are grateful to the Dominican Republic for hosting us over the past ten days, which allowed us to play several preparation matches. We hope to compete at the level this tournament demands, even though our team has undergone changes. The players have worked hard and shown great commitment, and we expect to adapt to the competition match by match while striving to perform at our best."

Entrenadores Listos para el Desafío del Voleibol Masculino en Santo Domingo 2026

SANTO DOMINGO, República Dominicana, 24 de julio de 2026. – La espera terminó. Con los grupos definidos y el inicio de la competencia a la vuelta de la esquina, los entrenadores de las ocho selecciones participantes en el torneo masculino de voleibol de los XXV Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe Santo Domingo 2026 aseguraron que sus equipos están listos para afrontar un campeonato que promete un alto nivel de competencia y que, además de las medallas regionales, otorgará valiosos puntos para el ranking continental de NORCECA.

Del 25 al 30 de julio, el Palacio de Voleibol Profesor Ricardo Gioriver Arias recibirá a los mejores equipos de la región en un torneo donde cada partido será determinante en la lucha por el podio. Antes del saque inicial, los estrategas compartieron sus expectativas sobre el desafío que representa esta edición de los Juegos, analizaron el nivel de sus rivales y hablaron de los objetivos que se han trazado para la competencia.

Paolo Montagnani, Entrenador de Colombia: "Tuvimos más de un mes de preparación, aunque no suficientes partidos amistosos para llegar en las mejores condiciones a la competencia. Este es el primer torneo de un largo verano y queremos ir paso a paso, mejorando en cada etapa. Sabemos que el primer partido es uno de los más importantes, por lo que debemos jugarlo muy bien. Estamos entusiasmados y también con mucha expectativa por conocer el nivel que puede mostrar nuestro equipo. Contamos con una combinación de jugadores con experiencia y otros muy jóvenes".

Yumilka Ruiz, mánager del equipo cubano: "Venimos con muchas aspiraciones y con objetivos fundamentales bien trazados. Trataremos de luchar por alcanzar el podio y por la medalla de oro. Traemos una selección con jugadores jóvenes y otros de mayor experiencia que participaron en la VNL de este año. Vamos a luchar con todo".

Alexander Gutiérrez, Entrenador de República Dominicana: "Los Juegos es uno de los torneos de una lista de compromisos importantes que tenemos por delante. Hace cuatro años nos fue bien y tenemos una base de esa plantilla y tenemos ingresos nuevos. Vamos a seguir apostando al desarrollo del voleibol masculino, tratando de hacer lo mejor posible y hacer una buena actuación".

Reider Lucas, Entrenador de Guatemala: "Muy contentos de que Guatemala esté por tercera vez consecutiva en Juegos Centroamericanos y del Caribe. Los muchachos vienen con el deseo de competir. Sabemos que el nivel es muy alto y estamos satisfechos de cómo viene el equipo para hacer buenos partidos. Vamos a buscar alcanzar la mejor posición posible. Esta experiencia nos ayuda mucho a seguir mejorando nuestro voleibol y seguir manteniéndonos a este nivel de competencia".

Carlos Eduardo Schwanke, Entrenador de México: “Es nuevamente una gran oportunidad estar acá representando a México. Tenemos la expectativa de tener un buen resultado, jugamos buen voleibol y esperamos colocar a México en una buena posición en la tabla de los Juegos”.

Jamille Torres, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “Siempre venimos muy emocionados, estas son nuestras olimpiadas regionales y hemos tenido mucho éxito en los Juegos, por ello una presión adicional por lo que representan para el país. En nuestro objetivo es el mismo, darle oportunidad a un grupo de jóvenes para que sigan creciendo con el programa. El torneo pasado (el Final Four) habla bien de dónde estamos parados ahora mismo. Venimos con una combinación de jóvenes y un poco más veteranos para seguirle dando continuidad a lo que estamos trabajando y buscar la medalla”.

Carlos Orta Fellove, Entrenador de Surinam: “Surinam es un equipo que está en desarrollo, hemos hecho una renovación; en la actualidad solamente hay cuatro jugadores con mayor experiencia. El año pasado en el Final Six tuvimos una destacada participación con el segundo mejor libero y el mejor bloqueador, mostrando los avances. Vamos a luchar por mejorar el séptimo lugar que obtuvimos en los Juegos pasados, será difícil frente a rivales de alto nivel, pero no es inalcanzable”.

Rubén Wolochin, Entrenador de Venezuela: “Nos hemos preparado de manera aceptable dentro de las circunstancias que hemos tenido. Agradecemos a República Dominicana que nos ha cobijado por estos últimos diez días y hemos podido hacer varios juegos de preparación. Esperamos competir a la altura de la competencia ya que hemos sufrido cambios con el equipo. Los jugadores se han empeñado y trabajado bien, y esperamos adaptarnos a la competencia partido a partido, buscando nuestro mejor rendimiento”.
