United States 3, Venezuela 0

Defending champions United States maintained their perfect record at the Men's U21 Pan American Cup with a 3-1 (22-25, 25-12, 25-15, 25-19) victory over Venezuela in their second Pool A match. With the win, the Americans improved to 2-0 and will face Mexico in the final day of pool play, while Venezuela will take on the Dominican Republic. The pool winner advances directly to Saturday's semifinals, while the second- and third-place teams will compete in Friday's quarterfinals. The United States controlled the match by holding advantages of 49-35 in attacks, 10-6 in blocks and a decisive 9-0 margin in service aces. Venezuela committed one fewer unforced error than the Americans (29-30). United States captain Kyler Wade led all scorers with 19 points. Outside hitters Mateo Fuerbringer and Aleksey Mikhailenko each added 12 points. Venezuela was led by Yoisbel Josué Galeno with 16 points and Ángel Matute with 15. Venezuela opened strongly, claiming the first set behind the offensive efforts of Ángel Matute and Yoisbel Josué Galeno. After a 10-10 tie, the South Americans capitalized on U.S. errors and consecutive blocks by Harold Lárez and Galeno on Grant Lamoureux to build a 14-10 lead. Venezuela never trailed in the set and reached set point on a kill by Matute against the block of Jordan Trevell. A kill by Grayson Bradford and a Matute error briefly extended the set before a Bradford service error sealed the 25-22 victory for Venezuela. The United States responded immediately in the second set, racing to an 8-3 lead behind a block from Cameron Kosty, attacks from Mateo Fuerbringer and Venezuelan errors. Kyler Wade paced the offense with consecutive points and a solid block on Matute to extend the lead to 20-11. With Wade serving, the Americans increased the pressure before closing the set 25-12 to level the match at one set apiece. The third set followed a similar pattern as the United States quickly built an 11-6 advantage with more efficient attacking and blocking. Venezuela attempted to rally late behind Galeno's powerful swings, but the Americans stayed in control and closed the set 25-15 with Wade and Mikhailenko leading the offense. Venezuela again started fast in the fourth set, taking a 5-2 lead with Galeno leading the attack. However, consecutive errors and a block from Mikhailenko on Galeno allowed the United States to draw level. The defending champions moved ahead 10-7 with a kill by Jackson Cryst and another block from Kosty. Although Venezuela tied the score again at 10 and remained within striking distance thanks to Galeno and Matute, the Americans maintained control down the stretch. A kill by Mikhailenko through the Venezuelan block sealed the victory and secured the United States' second consecutive win.

Mexico 3, Dominican Republic 0

Mexico earned its second consecutive victory at the Men's U21 Pan American Cup by defeating the Dominican Republic in straight sets, 3-0 (25-12, 25-23, 25-18). With both teams unbeaten, Mexico and the United States will meet in the final day of pool play to determine the winner of Pool A and the direct berth to the semifinals. Meanwhile, the Dominican Republic and Venezuela, still seeking their first victory, will battle for a place in the quarterfinals. Despite making several changes to its starting lineup, Mexico controlled the key skills, leading 41-31 in attacks, 5-3 in blocks and 4-1 in service aces. Mexico established control from the opening set, racing to a 10-2 lead with middle blocker Daniel Cravioto anchoring the defense at the net and neutralizing the attacks of Franklyn Reyes and Malik Britton. The Mexicans remained in command throughout the set to claim a comfortable 25-12 victory. The lineup adjustments did not affect Mexico's rhythm in the second set, as it built a 19-12 advantage. The Dominican Republic responded with four consecutive points, fueled by two kills from Britton, a block by Wayner Compres on Luis Ayala, and another attack by Compres to cut the deficit to 19-16. Led by Britton, the Dominicans stayed within striking distance until the closing stages, but a powerful attack by Carlos Grajeda gave Mexico set point at 24-22. After a Mexican service error, Eduardo Garza finished the set with a kill to put Mexico ahead two sets to none. The third set opened as a much more evenly contested battle. Mexico pulled away 11-7 with a block by David Partida on Rubel Montilla. Costa Rica took the early advantage by claiming the opening set behind the offensive production of Stanley Grant and Antoine Molina, capitalizing on several Canadian errors to move ahead 1-0. Canada answered in a closely contested second set. After Costa Rica erased a three-point deficit, William Basilio, Owen Harris and Tyson Dezutter sparked the Canadian comeback to level the match with a 25-22 win. The Canadians carried that momentum into the third set. With Baraniuk, Harris and Dezutter leading the offense and a solid blocking performance, Canada built a comfortable lead that proved enough to move ahead two sets to one despite a late Costa Rican rally. Costa Rica refused to back down in the fourth set. Consistent blocking, effective attacking and several Canadian errors allowed the Central Americans to even the match once again and force a decisive fifth set. Canada seized control early in the tie-break, building a 10-6 advantage behind Dezutter and Harris. Costa Rica responded with the powerful attacks of Morales and Grant to close the gap, but the Canadians held firm, and William Basilio sealed the 15-11 victory with the match-winning kill.
