NORCECA Girls' U19 Championship Offers Four Berths to the World Championship

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, July 18, 2026. – The nine national teams competing in the 2026 NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Championship will battle for one of four available berths to the 2027 FIVB Girls' U19 World Championship.

The tournament will award four places to the 2027 FIVB Girls' U19 World Championship, with the four semifinalists earning automatic qualification. Competition begins on July 19 and runs through July 24, with three daily matches. The tournament will conclude with the medal matches and the final classification contests.

United States head coach Alexandra Dunphy said: "This competition is very important for us because it gives us the opportunity to introduce our new players at an international event. They are all excited to represent the United States. We want to compete at our highest level and earn one of the World Championship berths."

Mexico head coach Ignacio Ramírez said: "We have brought a team that has prepared thoroughly. Our first goal is to reach the semifinals and then compete for a place on the podium. Mexico has qualified for the last two World Championships in this age group, and we want to be there again."

Cuba head coach Enrique Larrazaleta said: "The Cuban team has had solid preparation. We come here determined to uphold the tradition of Cuban volleyball. The players are highly motivated to achieve our main objective, which is qualifying for the World Championship."

Dominican Republic head coach Marcelo Cezarano said: "Seventy-five percent of this team is made up of U17 players, but it is a group that already competed at the NORCECA Girls' U17 Championship and they have developed good chemistry. They are focused on qualifying for the World Championship, and they have the potential to achieve it."

Puerto Rico head coach Leira Ortiz said: "We have come to this tournament with our U17 team. Our main focus is to use this event as preparation for the U17 World Championship. We understand the importance of this competition, and we will aim for the best possible finish to keep our chances of qualifying for the U19 World Championship alive."

Costa Rica head coach Yuliana González said: "We want to win our opening match and then approach every game with the mindset of achieving the goals we have set throughout our preparation. This team is well prepared and focused on earning a World Championship berth. We believe we have what it takes to do it."

Canada head coach Natasha Spaling said: "We know this is a very important competition. We want to be aggressive from the service line, have strong defense and blocking, work hard together as a team, and stay committed to our system throughout the tournament. Our goal is to qualify for the next World Championship."

U.S. Virgin Islands head coach Isaac Raphael said: "The team is very excited to compete in this event. Last week we were in Ohio, United States, with virtually the same roster, and it was a great experience before coming here. We have to face Mexico and Puerto Rico in our pool, but I have complete confidence in my players."

Jamaica assistant coach Nicholas Wilson said: "This is the first time Jamaica has participated in a Girls' U19 competition. We want to compete, and we know our players are ready and will give their very best throughout the tournament."

Campeonato NORCECA Sub-19 Femenino otorga cuatro boletos al Mundial

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, 18 de julio de 2026.— Las nueve selecciones que competirán en el Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-19 Femenino lucharán por uno de los cuatro cupos disponibles para el Campeonato Mundial Femenino Sub-19 de la FIVB 2027.

El torneo otorgará cuatro boletos al Campeonato Mundial Femenino Sub-19 de la FIVB 2027, que serán para las cuatro selecciones que logren avanzar a las semifinales. La competencia comenzará este 19 de julio y se extenderá hasta el 24, con tres partidos programados por jornada. El torneo concluirá con los encuentros por las medallas y la definición de las posiciones finales.

Alexandra Dunphy, entrenadora de Estados Unidos, comentó: "Esta competencia es muy importante para nosotras porque nos permitirá presentar a nuestras nuevas jugadoras en un evento internacional. Todas están muy emocionadas de representar a Estados Unidos. Queremos competir al máximo nivel para conseguir uno de los boletos al Mundial."

Ignacio Ramírez, entrenador de México, señaló: "Traemos un equipo que se ha preparado a conciencia. Nuestro primer objetivo es meternos a las semifinales y luego pelear por un lugar en el podio. México ha estado presente en los dos últimos Campeonatos Mundiales de la categoría y queremos volver a ese escenario."

Enrique Larrazaleta, entrenador de Cuba, afirmó: "El equipo de Cuba ha realizado una buena preparación. Venimos con la ilusión de poner en alto el voleibol cubano. Las muchachas tienen una gran voluntad de alcanzar nuestra principal meta, que es clasificar al Campeonato Mundial."

Marcelo Cezarano, entrenador de República Dominicana, explicó: "El 75 % del equipo es Sub-17, pero es un plantel que ya disputó un Campeonato NORCECA Sub-17 y las jugadoras vienen bien acopladas. Están enfocadas en buscar la clasificación al Mundial y tienen el potencial para lograrlo."

Leira Ortiz, entrenadora de Puerto Rico, indicó: "Venimos a esta competencia con nuestro equipo Sub-17. Nuestro enfoque está centrado en aprovechar este torneo como preparación para nuestra participación en el Campeonato Mundial Sub-17. Sabemos de la importancia de esta competencia y buscaremos la mejor posición posible para mantener vivas nuestras opciones de clasificar al Mundial Sub-19."

Yuliana González, entrenadora de Costa Rica, expresó: "Queremos ganar nuestro primer partido y, a partir de ahí, afrontar cada encuentro con la mentalidad de cumplir los objetivos que nos hemos planteado. Este equipo está bien preparado y enfocado en conseguir un boleto al Mundial. Tenemos las condiciones para lograrlo."

Natasha Spaling, entrenadora de Canadá, comentó: "Sabemos que esta es una competencia muy importante. Queremos ser realmente agresivas con nuestro servicio, tener una defensa y un bloqueo sólidos, trabajar muy duro como grupo y mantener nuestro sistema de juego durante todo el torneo. Nuestra meta es conseguir el boleto al próximo Campeonato Mundial."

Isaac Raphael, entrenador de Islas Vírgenes Estadounidenses, señaló: "El equipo está muy entusiasmado de participar en este evento. La semana pasada estuvimos en Ohio, Estados Unidos, con prácticamente este mismo plantel, y fue una excelente experiencia antes de venir a este torneo. Tendremos que enfrentar a México y Puerto Rico en nuestro grupo, pero confío plenamente en mis jugadoras."

Nicholas Wilson, entrenador asistente de Jamaica, comentó: "Es la primera vez que Jamaica participa en una competencia femenina Sub-19. Queremos competir, sabemos que nuestras jugadoras están listas y que darán lo mejor de sí en este torneo."
