United States and Canada Set Up NORCECA Girls' U19 Championship Showdown

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, July 23, 2025.- Defending champions United States and Canada advanced to the gold medal match of the NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Championship with straight-set semifinal victories. The Americans swept Puerto Rico to move within one win of a third consecutive continental title, while Canada overcame a resilient Mexico side, rallying from four set points down in the second set before closing out the match in three sets. Puerto Rico and Mexico will meet in the bronze medal match.

United States 3, Puerto Rico 0 – Semifinal

Defending champions United States advanced convincingly to the final after defeating Puerto Rico in straight sets, 3-0 (25-16, 25-12, 25-10), moving within one victory of claiming their third consecutive continental title. After a closely contested start, with Puerto Rico holding a brief lead in the opening set, the United States quickly took control of the match and steadily widened the gap in each set. The Americans limited Puerto Rico's offensive options and completed a commanding victory to secure another appearance in the championship match. The United States led every major statistical category, finishing ahead in attacks (43-17), blocks (13-3), and service aces (7-0). Although the Americans committed more unforced errors (18-12), those mistakes never threatened their control of the match. Ireland Real led the United States with 13 points, while Megan Hodges added eight. For Puerto Rico, Daniela Echeandia and Carinialys Román each scored four points.

Canada 3, Mexico 0 – Semifinal

Canada secured its place in the final with a straight-set 3-0 (25-20, 26-24, 25-18) victory over a determined Mexico team and will face the United States for the continental title. With the result, Canada will meet the United States in the gold medal match, while Mexico and Puerto Rico will compete for the bronze medal. Mexico displayed a strong defensive performance and challenged the Canadians throughout much of the match. Their best opportunity came in the second set, when they held a 24-20 lead and four set points to level the match. Canada, however, remained composed under pressure, rallied to win the set 26-24, and carried that momentum into the third set to secure its place in the championship match. Canada held the advantage in attacks (35-27), blocks (11-7), and service aces (7-5), while both teams finished even with 23 points conceded through unforced errors. Alexandra Brenner led Canada's offense with 15 points, followed by Chantels Peters with 13. For Mexico, Isabella Gallardo paced the team with 10 points, while Karen González added eight.

Cuba 3, U.S. Virgin Islands 1

Cuba finished seventh after defeating a determined U.S. Virgin Islands team 3-1 (25-13, 25-16, 22-25, 27-25) in both teams' final match of the tournament. The U.S. Virgin Islands concluded the competition in eighth place in the final standings. Cuba controlled the opening two sets with authority behind a solid blocking performance and an efficient offense. However, the U.S. Virgin Islands raised their level in the third set, finding their rhythm offensively and capitalizing on Cuban errors to extend the match. The fourth set proved to be the most competitive of the contest. The U.S. Virgin Islands built a 23-20 lead and came within two points of forcing a fifth set. Cuba, however, responded at the crucial moment, relying on its blocking and the attacking efforts of Amanda Mayor and Yusdely Cabrera to erase the deficit and secure a 27-25 victory, clinching seventh place in the championship. Cuba held a slight edge in attacks (41-39) but made the biggest difference at the net with a 15-5 advantage in blocks. The Cubans also finished ahead in service aces (8-7). Despite their spirited performance, the U.S. Virgin Islands were hurt by unforced errors, conceding 35 points compared to Cuba's 28. Amanda Mayor led Cuba with 20 points, while Yusdely Cabrera and Lauren Correoso each added 11.

Estados Unidos y Canadá disputarán la final del NORCECA Sub-19 Femenino

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, 23 de julio de 2026.- El campeón defensor Estados Unidos y Canadá avanzaron a la final del Campeonato Continental NORCECA Sub-19 Femenino tras imponerse en sets corridos en las semifinales. Las estadounidenses derrotaron a Puerto Rico para quedar a un triunfo de conquistar su tercer título consecutivo, mientras que Canadá superó a un combativo México, remontando cuatro puntos de set en el segundo parcial antes de asegurar la victoria. Puerto Rico y México disputarán la medalla de bronce.

Estados Unidos 3, Puerto Rico 0 - Semifinal

El campeón defensor Estados Unidos avanzó con autoridad a la final tras derrotar a Puerto Rico en sets corridos por 3-0 (25-16, 25-12, 25-10), y quedó a un triunfo de conquistar su tercer título consecutivo. Tras un inicio parejo, en el que Puerto Rico tomó una breve ventaja en el primer set, Estados Unidos asumió rápidamente el control del encuentro y amplió progresivamente la diferencia en cada parcial, limitando las opciones ofensivas del conjunto puertorriqueño y sellando una victoria contundente para instalarse nuevamente en la final. La escuadra estadounidense dominó todos los renglones colectivos del encuentro al imponerse en ataques (43-17), bloqueos (13-3) y servicios directos (7-0). Aunque concedió más puntos por errores no forzados (18-12), esa diferencia nunca comprometió el control del partido. Por Estados Unidos, Ireland Real encabezó la ofensiva con 13 puntos, respaldada por Megan Hodges con ocho. Por Puerto Rico, Daniela Echeandia y Carinialys Román finalizaron con cuatro anotaciones cada una.

Canadá 3, México 0 – Semifinal

Canadá aseguró su lugar en la final al derrotar a un combativo equipo de México en sets corridos por 3-0 (25-20, 26-24, 25-18), y disputará el título continental frente a Estados Unidos. Con este resultado, Canadá enfrentará a Estados Unidos por la medalla de oro, mientras que México y Puerto Rico jugarán por la medalla de bronce. México mostró una sólida labor defensiva y puso en aprietos a las canadienses durante gran parte del encuentro. Su mejor oportunidad llegó en el segundo set, cuando dispuso de una ventaja de 24-20 y cuatro puntos para igualar el partido. Sin embargo, Canadá mantuvo la calma en los momentos decisivos, remontó para imponerse 26-24 y tomó el impulso necesario para controlar el tercer parcial y asegurar su clasificación a la final. Canadá superó a México en ataques (35-27), bloqueos (11-7) y servicios directos (7-5), mientras que ambos equipos terminaron igualados con 23 puntos concedidos por errores no forzados. Alexandra Brenner encabezó la ofensiva canadiense con 15 puntos, seguida por Chantels Peters con 13. Por México, Isabella Gallardo fue la máxima anotadora con 10 unidades, respaldada por Karen González con ocho.

Cuba 3, Islas Vírgenes Estadounidenses 1

Cuba finalizó en el séptimo lugar tras imponerse a un combativo equipo de Islas Vírgenes Estadounidenses por 3-1 (25-13, 25-16, 22-25, 27-25), en el último compromiso de ambas selecciones en el torneo. Islas Vírgenes Estadounidenses concluyó su participación en la octava posición de la clasificación final. Cuba controló con autoridad los dos primeros sets gracias a la solidez de su bloqueo y a un ataque efectivo. Sin embargo, Islas Vírgenes elevó notablemente su nivel en el tercer parcial, mejoró su producción ofensiva y forzó errores del conjunto cubano para extender el encuentro.

El cuarto set fue el más disputado del partido. Islas Vírgenes llegó a tener ventaja de 23-20 y estuvo a dos puntos de llevar el encuentro al quinto parcial. No obstante, Cuba reaccionó en el momento decisivo, apoyada en su bloqueo y en los ataques de Amanda Mayor y Yusdely Cabrera, para igualar el marcador y terminar imponiéndose 27-25, asegurando así la séptima posición del campeonato. En el balance colectivo, Cuba superó ligeramente a su rival en ataques (41-39), pero marcó la diferencia en el bloqueo (15-5) y también fue superior en servicios directos (8-7). Islas Vírgenes, pese al gran esfuerzo mostrado durante el encuentro, terminó cediendo terreno por los errores no forzados, entregando 35 puntos frente a los 28 de Cuba. Amanda Mayor encabezó la ofensiva cubana con 20 puntos, respaldada por Yusdely Cabrera y Lauren Correoso, quienes aportaron 11 unidades cada una.
