USA Go Undeclared to Win Third Straight NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Title

SAN JOSÉ, Costa Rica, July 24, 2026. – The United States captured the 2026 NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Championship title with a perfect campaign after defeating Canada in straight sets 3-0 (25-7, 25-16, 25-20) in Saturday's gold medal match at the Gimnasio Nacional in San José.

Both teams entered the championship match unbeaten, but the Americans took control from the outset to complete a flawless tournament without dropping a single set.

With the victory, the United States claimed its third consecutive NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Championship title after also defeating Canada in the 2018 and 2024 finals. The Americans also captured their 10th gold medal in tournament history, further extending their record as the most successful team in the competition.

The United States finished first, followed by Canada and Mexico. Puerto Rico placed fourth, the Dominican Republic fifth, Costa Rica sixth, Cuba seventh, the U.S. Virgin Islands eighth, and Jamaica ninth.

The top four finishers—the United States, Canada, Mexico, and Puerto Rico—secured NORCECA's four qualification berths to the 2027 FIVB Girls' U19 World Championship.

From the opening set, the United States made its intentions clear, dominating with a powerful offense and a solid blocking performance. Although Canada showed a stronger effort in the third set and stayed within striking distance, the Americans remained composed in the decisive moments to close out the match in straight sets.

The United States led all major statistical categories, finishing ahead of Canada in attacks (42-23), blocks (9-2), and aces (12-2). The champions also committed more unforced errors (16-12), a margin that never threatened their control of the match.

Ava Burgess led the U.S. offense with 10 points, followed by Nejari Crooks with nine. Ireland Real and Josalyn Samuels each added eight points.

For Canada, Alexandra Brenner led the team with six points, while Kellyn Mbonjo and Chantel Peters each contributed five.

Mexico 3, Puerto Rico 1 – Bronze Medal Match

Mexico claimed the bronze medal with a 3-1 (25-12, 25-23, 21-25, 25-18) victory over

Puerto Rico, displaying greater consistency throughout the match to secure a place on the podium. Mexico took control from the opening set with a dominant performance. Although Puerto Rico raised its level to challenge in a closely contested second set, Mexico responded to extend its advantage. Puerto Rico pulled one set back by winning the third, but the Mexicans regained control early in the fourth set and managed the lead the rest of the way to seal the victory and the bronze medal. With the result, Mexico earned its fifth bronze medal in the history of the NORCECA Girls' U19 Continental Championship, in addition to the two silver medals it has won in the tournament. Mexico held the advantage in the match's key statistical categories, leading Puerto Rico in attacks (38-32) and blocks (9-5). Puerto Rico finished ahead in aces (6-3) but conceded more points on unforced errors (30-20). Karen González and Isabella Gallardo led the Mexican offense with 17 and 16 points respectively. For Puerto Rico, Anabella Valentín was the top scorer with 13 points. Carinialys Román added 12, while Arianna Pantojas and Anna Aquino contributed 10 points apiece.

Dominican Republic 3, Costa Rica 0 – Positions 5/6

The Dominican Republic defeated Costa Rica in straight sets 3-0 (25-11, 25-19, 25-13) to claim fifth place. The Dominican team set the pace from the opening set with solid play in every aspect of the game. Although Costa Rica rallied in the second set and tied the score at 17-17, the Dominican Republic responded with a decisive run to regain control and move closer to victory. They once again imposed their superiority in the third set to close out the match comfortably. With the result, the Dominican Republic finished fifth in the championship, while Costa Rica placed sixth.
