Coaches Share Expectations Ahead of the 2026 Women's Pan American Cup

LEÓN, Guanajuato, Mexico, September 10, 2026.- The coaches of the ten teams competing in the 2026 NORCECA Senior Women's Pan American Cup shared their expectations and objectives ahead of the tournament, which will be held from September 11-18 at the Domo de la Feria in León, Guanajuato.

In addition to competing for the title, the tournament awards FIVB World Ranking points to NORCECA teams that do not participate in the Volleyball Nations League (VNL) and is part of the qualification pathway to the Lima 2027 Pan American Games, although it does not provide direct qualification to the Games.

Matthew Krueger, Canada Head Coach: "We were here last year for the U23 Pan American Cup, so several of our athletes have already played on this court. We're very excited to be back. It has been a long summer of training for some of the athletes, and this is their first and only competition of the summer, so they're really looking forward to competing against some very good teams. We love León, we're happy to be back, and we're excited to compete".

Jefferson Arosti, Cuba Assistant Coach: "This is a very important competition where we will look to earn as many points as possible toward qualifying for international events in 2027 and 2028, including the Lima Pan American Games."

Marcos Kwiek, Dominican Republic Head Coach: "We are very happy to be back in León; they are excellent hosts, and Mexico always treats us very well. We have brought a young team, with many players who have not yet had the opportunity to play with the senior national team, so this is a group we are developing for the future. We want to perform as well as possible and compete for a medal. The Pan American Cup is a very exciting competition, and we will fight in every match to achieve our goal."

William Fernández, Guatemala Head Coach: "We are very happy to be competing at this level; it has been many years since we last had this opportunity. The team is very motivated and proud to be here. We are well prepared, with a very young and united group that is eager to perform well and show the best version of ourselves at this event."

Nicola Negro, Mexico Head Coach: "It has been a long season. We are missing some players due to injuries and study commitments, but we have a good team. Our main objective is to earn points toward qualifying for the 2027 World Cup. After this, we have the Final Six, where we will look to defend or improve on our previous finish. As for the Pan American Cup, our goal is to improve on the fifth-place finish we had here in León two years ago."

Claudia Noguera, Nicaragua Head Coach: "For Nicaragua, competing in events at this level is a great opportunity. It gives us the chance to face high-level teams and also motivates our players to remain committed to preparing even harder for future competitions. We have brought a young team, with players who recently competed in the U23 Pan American Cup, because we see this as part of our project toward the Central American Games."

José Mieses, Puerto Rico Head Coach: "The team is doing well, although we are a little tired because of the number of tournaments we have played. We have brought practically the same team that competed throughout the summer, with the exception of Decelise Champion, Shara Venegas and Diana Reyes. Our goal is to reach the podium.”

Erik Sullivan, USA Head Coach: “We arrived in the gym about two weeks ago. It’s a little different group than we had this summer. Some of the athletes have been in the gym with us all summer training, and we also have some new athletes, so it’s a different mix. But it’s a good group that we’re very excited about, and we’re excited to give them an opportunity to compete. We’re looking forward to the tournament. Our expectations are always to win gold, but it’s going to be very challenging, and we look forward to it.”

Yanini Antonio Capuzzi, Venezuela Head Coach: “We have brought a very young team that we are preparing for the U19 South American Championship. We are aware that this is a senior-level competition, but our goal is for our players to adapt to this level of play and be as well prepared as possible for the South American Championship. We will give our best to be as competitive as possible and achieve good results.”

Entrenadores comparten sus expectativas previo a la Copa Panamericana Femenina 2026

LEÓN, Guanajuato, México, 10 de septiembre de 2026.- Los entrenadores de los diez equipos que competirán en la Copa Panamericana NORCECA de Voleibol Femenino Mayor 2026 compartieron sus expectativas y objetivos previo al inicio del torneo, que se disputará del 11 al 18 de septiembre en el Domo de la Feria de León.

Además de competir por el título, el torneo otorga puntos para el Ranking Mundial FIVB a los equipos de NORCECA que no participan en la Volleyball Nations League (VNL) y forma parte de la ruta de clasificación hacia los Juegos Panamericanos Lima 2027, aunque no otorga clasificación directa.

Matthew Krueger, Entrenador de Canadá: “Estuvimos aquí el año pasado para la Copa Panamericana Sub-23, por lo que varias de nuestras jugadoras ya han competido en esta cancha. Estamos muy contentos de regresar. Ha sido un verano largo de preparación para algunas de las jugadoras y esta es su primera y única competencia del verano, así que tienen muchas ganas de competir contra equipos de muy buen nivel. Nos encanta León, estamos felices de estar de regreso y con muchas ganas de competir”.

Jefferson Arosti, Entrenador Asistente de Cuba: “Es una competencia de mucha importancia en donde buscaremos sumar la mayor cantidad de puntos posibles para clasificar a eventos internacionales a celebrarse en 2027 y 2028; entre ellos los Juegos Panamericanos de Lima”.

Marcos Kwiek, Entrenador de República Dominicana: “Estamos muy contentos de volver a León; son excelentes anfitriones y México siempre nos trata muy bien. Traemos un equipo joven, con muchas jugadoras que aún no han tenido la oportunidad de jugar con la selección mayor, por lo que es un grupo con proyección a futuro. Buscaremos hacer el mejor papel posible y pelear por una medalla. La Copa Panamericana es una competencia muy emocionante y lucharemos en cada partido para alcanzar nuestro objetivo”.

William Fernández, Entrenador de Guatemala: “Estamos muy contentos de estar en una competencia de este nivel, hace muchos años que no lo hacíamos. El equipo está muy motivado y orgulloso de estar acá. El equipo está bien preparado, es muy joven y unido, que tiene muchos deseos de hacer las cosas bien y presentar nuestra mejor versión en este evento”.

Nicola Negro, Entrenador de México: “Ha sido una temporada larga. Hay algunas bajas en el equipo por lesión y por compromisos de estudio, pero contamos con un buen equipo. El objetivo principal es la sumatoria de puntos para clasificar a la Copa del Mundo 2027. Luego de acá tenemos el Final Six y buscamos defender o mejorar nuestra última posición y en cuanto a la Copa Panamericana, mejorar el quinto lugar de hace dos años acá en León”.

Claudia Noguera, Entrenadora de Nicaragua: “Para Nicaragua es una gran oportunidad participar en eventos de este nivel, nos garantiza competir contra equipos de alto nivel, además de que motiva a las jugadoras a mantener su compromiso en continuar preparándose con mayor esmero para competencias futuras. Traemos un equipo de jugadoras jóvenes, con experiencia reciente en la Copa Panamericana Sub-23, porque lo tomamos como un proyecto para los Juegos Centroamericanos”.

José Mieles, Entrenador de Puerto Rico: “El equipo viene bien, con un poco de cansancio por el exceso de torneos. Traemos prácticamente el mismo equipo con el que hemos competido durante el verano, con la baja de Decelise Champion, Shara Venegas y Diana Reyes, con miras de alcanzar el podio”.

Erik Sullivan, Entrenador de Estados Unidos: “Comenzamos a entrenar juntos hace aproximadamente dos semanas. Es un grupo un poco diferente al que tuvimos este verano. Algunas de las jugadoras han estado entrenando con nosotros durante todo el verano y también tenemos algunas nuevas, así que es una combinación diferente. Pero es un buen grupo que nos entusiasma mucho y estamos contentos de darles la oportunidad de competir. Esperamos con entusiasmo el inicio del torneo. Nuestro objetivo siempre es ganar la medalla de oro, pero sabemos que será un gran desafío y estamos preparados para afrontarlo”.

Yanini Antonio Capuzzi, Entrenador de Venezuela: “Venimos con un equipo muy joven que estamos preparando para el Campeonato Sudamericano Sub-19. Somos conscientes de que esta es una competencia de categoría mayor, pero buscamos que nuestras jugadoras se adapten a este nivel de juego y lleguen de la mejor manera al Sudamericano. Vamos a darlo todo para ser lo más competitivos posible y alcanzar buenos resultados”.
