United States Dominates Guatemala for Second Win at Men's Final Six

PONCE, Puerto Rico, August 24, 2026.- The United States earned its second consecutive victory at the NORCECA Men's Final Six, defeating Guatemala in straight sets 25-19, 25-13, 25-16 on Monday at the Juan "Pachín" Vicéns Auditorium.

For Guatemala, the result marked its second loss in as many matches in the tournament.

From the opening whistle, the United States imposed its rhythm, power and speed on offense. After taking the first two sets, the three-time defending champions continued to dictate play in the third, gradually pulling away to a 16-9 advantage on a back-row attack by Patrick Rogers before comfortably closing out the match.

The United States featured a balanced and efficient offense. Jacob Pasteur led all scorers with 16 points, followed by Patrick Rogers with 12 and Kyle Hobus with 11.

For Guatemala, Carlos López and Andy Blanco contributed six points apiece.

The United States held the advantage in attacks 41-23, blocks 11-4 and aces 5-0. Guatemala committed 18 errors compared to 21 by the United States.

Guatemala will face the Dominican Republic on Tuesday, while the United States will look to remain undefeated against Canada.

Troy Gooch (#25) – Libero, United States

"I think we did a really good job focusing on our side of the net. We talked about being strong in serve-receive and taking care of the easy plays. They put some pressure on us with their serving, but I think we handled it well. I also think we did an excellent job putting our serves in, so it was really good for us to come out and gain more momentum."

Andy Alexis Leonardo Blanco (#11) – Guatemala

"They are a high-level team with young and very fast athletes. We also have a young group, but their height and the speed of their game affected us quite a bit.

"Even so, this will help us for the rest of the tournament. We're calm, we know we could have done better, and there are still more matches ahead to adjust and improve. These were two very difficult matches; they always are. We always start with two strong opponents, and as the championship progresses, I think we need to strengthen the team's unity a bit more — which is already there and is actually very strong — but we still need to analyze a few things and study our other opponents."

Estados Unidos domina a Guatemala y suma su segunda victoria en el Final Six Masculino

PONCE, Puerto Rico, 24 de agosto de 2026.- Estados Unidos consiguió su segunda victoria consecutiva en el NORCECA Final Six Masculino al superar este lunes a Guatemala en sets corridos 25-19, 25-13, 25-16 en el Auditorio Juan “Pachín” Vicéns.

Para Guatemala, el resultado representó su segunda derrota en igual número de presentaciones en el torneo.

Desde el inicio, Estados Unidos impuso ritmo, potencia y velocidad en su sistema ofensivo. Tras asegurar los primeros dos sets, los tricampeones defensores continuaron marcando el ritmo en el tercero y se despegaron progresivamente hasta tomar ventaja de 16-9 con un ataque zaguero de Patrick Rogers, encaminándose con comodidad al cierre del encuentro.

Estados Unidos mostró un ataque balanceado y efectivo. Jacob Pasteur lideró a todos los anotadores con 16 puntos, seguido por Patrick Rogers con 12 y Kyle Hobus con 11.

Por Guatemala, Carlos López y Andy Blanco aportaron seis puntos cada uno.

Estados Unidos dominó en ataques 41-23, bloqueos 11-4 y servicios directos 5-0. Guatemala cometió 18 errores frente a 21 de Estados Unidos.

Guatemala enfrentará este martes a República Dominicana, mientras que Estados Unidos buscará mantener su invicto ante Canadá.

Troy Gooch (#25) – Líbero, Estados Unidos

“Creo que hicimos un muy buen trabajo enfocándonos en nuestro lado de la red. Hablamos de ser sólidos en recepción y de cuidar las jugadas fáciles. Ellos nos pusieron algo de presión con el saque, pero creo que lo manejamos muy bien. También pienso que hicimos un excelente trabajo poniendo nuestros saques en juego, así que fue realmente bueno para nosotros salir y seguir ganando impulso.”

Andy Alexis Leonardo Blanco (#11) – Guatemala

“Es un equipo de alto nivel, con atletas jóvenes y muy rápidos. Nosotros también tenemos un grupo joven, pero la altura y la velocidad de su juego nos afectaron bastante.

“Aun así, esto nos va a servir para el resto del torneo. Estamos tranquilos, sabemos que lo pudimos hacer mejor y que todavía quedan más partidos para ajustar y mejorar. Fueron dos partidos muy difíciles; como siempre, han sido así. Siempre arrancamos con dos rivales fuertes y, conforme avanza el campeonato, creo que tenemos que fortalecer un poco más la unión del equipo —que sí existe y es bastante fuerte—, pero todavía hace falta analizar algunas cosas y estudiar mejor a los demás rivales.”

Mexico Earns First Win with Straight-Set Victory Over Dominican Republic

PONCE, Puerto Rico, August 24, 2026.- Mexico earned its first victory at the NORCECA Men's Final Six, defeating the Dominican Republic 3-0 (25-22, 25-17, 32-30) on Monday at the Juan "Pachín" Vicéns Auditorium.

With the result, Mexico improved to a 1-1 record, while the Dominican Republic dropped to 0-2.

After taking the first two sets, Mexico faced a much tighter battle in the third. The teams traded points throughout the set before Mexico gained an 18-16 advantage on consecutive attacks by Diego González and Yasutaka Sanay.

The Dominican Republic responded with two straight points to tie the score at 18-18 and later reached set point first at 24-23 on an attack by Adrián Figueroa. Mexico denied the opportunity, and the teams continued exchanging points until the Mexicans prevailed 32-30 to complete the straight-set victory.

Mexico featured a balanced offense, led by Franky Hernández with 19 points. Yasutaka Sanay Heredia followed with 18 points and Diego González added 16.

For the Dominican Republic, Alexis Cruz led with 14 points, while Adrián Figueroa contributed 13.

Mexico held the advantage in attacks 53-42 and aces 7-3, while both teams recorded two blocks. The Dominican Republic committed 20 errors and Mexico 22.

Franky Adrián Hernández Milantony, Mexico: "The Dominican Republic is always a tough team for us. I think this is already the third or fourth time we've played against them. We accomplished our goal of winning today, and now we're focused on what comes tomorrow.

"I think we need to remain patient. On difficult balls, we have to try to keep them in play, stay calm and avoid getting desperate, while waiting for the other team to make mistakes so we can take advantage of those opportunities."

Mexico will face host Puerto Rico on Tuesday, while the Dominican Republic will take on Guatemala.

México consigue su primera victoria con triunfo en sets corridos sobre República Dominicana

PONCE, Puerto Rico, 24 de agosto de 2026.- México consiguió su primera victoria en el NORCECA Final Six Masculino al superar a República Dominicana 3-0 (25-22, 25-17, 32-30) este lunes en el Auditorio Juan "Pachín" Vicéns.

Con el resultado, México mejoró su récord a 1-1, mientras que República Dominicana quedó con marca de 0-2.

Después de llevarse los primeros dos sets, México encontró mayor resistencia en el tercero. Ambos equipos intercambiaron puntos durante gran parte del parcial, hasta que México tomó ventaja de 18-16 con ataques consecutivos de Diego González y Yasutaka Sanay.

República Dominicana respondió con dos puntos seguidos para igualar el marcador 18-18 y más adelante llegó primero al punto de set, 24-23, con un ataque de Adrián Figueroa. México evitó el cierre y ambos equipos continuaron intercambiando puntos hasta que los mexicanos se impusieron 32-30 para completar la victoria en sets corridos.

México contó con una ofensiva balanceada, encabezada por Franky Hernández con 19 puntos. Yasutaka Sanay Heredia aportó 18 y Diego González sumó 16.

Por República Dominicana, Alexis Cruz lideró con 14 puntos y Adrián Figueroa aportó 13.

México tuvo ventaja en ataques 53-42 y servicios directos 7-3, mientras que ambos equipos registraron dos bloqueos. República Dominicana cometió 20 errores y México 22.

Franky Adrián Hernández Milantony, México: “República Dominicana siempre es un equipo que nos pone las cosas difíciles. Creo que esta es ya la tercera o cuarta vez que jugamos contra ellos. Se logró el objetivo de ganar el día de hoy y ahora estamos enfocados en lo que viene mañana.

“Creo que debemos seguir pacientes. En las bolas difíciles, tratar de mantenerlas en juego, hacer las cosas con mucha tranquilidad para no caer en la desesperación y esperar a que el otro equipo falle para aprovechar esas oportunidades”.

México enfrentará este martes al anfitrión Puerto Rico, mientras que República Dominicana se medirá con Guatemala.

Puerto Rico Outlasts Canada in Five Sets for Second Final Six Win

PONCE, Puerto Rico, August 24, 2026.- Puerto Rico earned its second consecutive victory at the NORCECA Men's Final Six after outlasting Canada in a demanding five-set battle 3-2 (25-22, 23-25, 25-23, 18-25, 15-9) at the Juan "Pachín" Vicéns Auditorium.

For Canada, it was their first loss of the tournament, bringing their record to 1-1.

With the match tied at one set apiece, the third set developed into a tight battle down the stretch.

Klistan Lawrence broke a 22-22 tie with an attack from zone two, and Puerto Rico reached set point at 24-22 with a triple block against Kaden Schmidt.

A strong attack by Pelegrín Vargas from zone four sealed the set 25-23 and gave Puerto Rico a 2-1 lead.

Canada responded in the fourth set with better ball control and a stronger presence at the net to force a decisive fifth set.

An attack by Arthur Szwarc gave Canada an 18-13 advantage, a lead they never gave up. Canada closed the set 25-18 following a service error by Pelegrín Vargas.

Puerto Rico came out strong in the fifth set, taking an early 5-2 lead, which included a kill by Pedro Molina from zone four. The Puerto Ricans maintained their composure and closed the set 15-9 to secure their second victory of the tournament.

Puerto Rico held a 56-52 advantage in attacks, while Canada led 12-6 in blocks and 9-7 in aces. Puerto Rico committed 31 unforced errors compared to Canada's 37.

Klistan Lawrence led Puerto Rico with 21 points, followed by Pedro Molina with 17 and Pelegrín Vargas with 15.

For Canada, Arthur Szwarc and Kaden Schmidt finished with 17 points each, while Erik Siksnas added 16.

Pelegrín Vargas – Puerto Rico: "The difference between yesterday's match and today's is that they were completely different games, different challenges. It's something we need to keep working on, and we already discussed it as a group: not necessarily coming in to see what the other team brings, but focusing on implementing our own game. I think today we were more capable of doing that.

"Canada is a very competent team; they play very organized volleyball. And their players, if they're not competing in top collegiate programs, they're playing professionally overseas — they're a very good team.

“I think we were able to implement our game and, in the end, something that is becoming characteristic of us is staying mentally steady despite difficulties. That was the difference. The fourth set was probably our weakest today, but we recovered, and in the fifth set we came out strong.”

Daniil Hershtynovich – Canada: “Puerto Rico is a great competitor, a strong rival, and it’s difficult to play against Puerto Rico in Puerto Rico. We need to evaluate and start from scratch to figure out what we need to do to secure the win.

“It was a good match and they are a great team. We knew we had to adjust, and we will come back stronger.”

Puerto Rico will face Mexico on Tuesday, while Canada will take on the United States.

Puerto Rico supera a Canadá en cinco sets y suma su segunda victoria en el Final Six

PONCE, Puerto Rico, 24 de agosto de 2026.- Puerto Rico sumó su segunda victoria consecutiva en el NORCECA Final Six Masculino tras imponerse a Canadá en un exigente partido de cinco sets 3-2 (25-22, 23-25, 25-23, 18-25, 15-9), celebrado en el Auditorio Juan “Pachín” Vicéns.

Para Canadá, fue su primera derrota del torneo, dejando su récord en 1-1.

Con el partido igualado a un set por equipo, el tercer set se convirtió en una cerrada batalla en los puntos finales.

Klistan Lawrence rompió un empate a 22 con un ataque por zona dos, y Puerto Rico llegó al punto de set 24-22 gracias a un triple bloqueo sobre Kaden Schmidt.

Un ataque positivo de Pelegrín Vargas por zona cuatro selló el set 25-23 y dio ventaja de 2-1 a Puerto Rico.

Canadá respondió en el cuarto set con mejor control del balón y mayor presencia en la red para forzar un decisivo quinto set.

Un ataque de Arthur Szwarc dio a Canadá ventaja de 18-13, diferencia que nunca cedieron. Los canadienses cerraron el set 25-18 tras un error de servicio de Pelegrín Vargas.

Puerto Rico salió con fuerza en el quinto set y tomó una temprana ventaja de 5-2, que incluyó un remate positivo de Pedro Molina por zona cuatro. Los puertorriqueños mantuvieron la compostura y cerraron el set 15-9 para asegurar su segunda victoria del torneo.

Puerto Rico tuvo ventaja de 56-52 en ataques, mientras que Canadá dominó 12-6 en bloqueos y 9-7 en servicios directos. Puerto Rico cometió 31 errores no forzados frente a 37 de Canadá.

Klistan Lawrence encabezó la ofensiva de Puerto Rico con 21 puntos, seguido por Pedro Molina con 17 y Pelegrín Vargas con 15.

Por Canadá, Arthur Szwarc y Kaden Schmidt finalizaron con 17 puntos cada uno, mientras que Erik Siksna agregó 16.

Pelegrín Vargas – Puerto Rico: “La diferencia entre el partido que tuvimos ayer y este es que fueron juegos diferentes, retos diferentes. Es algo que tenemos que trabajar y ya lo hablamos como grupo: no necesariamente venir a ver qué trae el otro equipo, sino nosotros tratar de implementar nuestro partido. Creo que hoy fuimos más capaces de eso.

“Canadá es un equipo muy competente, juegan muy bien organizados. Y los muchachos, si no juegan en la liga colegial en los mejores equipos, juegan en ligas extranjeras, o sea que son un muy buen equipo.

“Creo que pudimos implementar el juego y, al final, algo que nos está caracterizando es poder mantenernos, a pesar de la dificultad, bastante ecuanímenes mentalmente. Esa fue la diferencia. El cuarto set probablemente fue el más flojo de nosotros hoy, pero pudimos recuperarnos y en el quinto set vinimos bien.”

Daniil Hershtynovich – Canadá: “Puerto Rico es un gran competidor, un gran rival, y es difícil jugar contra Puerto Rico en Puerto Rico. Tenemos que evaluar y volver a empezar desde cero para descifrar qué necesitamos hacer para amarrar la victoria.

“Fue un buen partido y ellos son un gran equipo. Sabíamos que teníamos que ajustarnos y volveremos más fuertes.”

Puerto Rico enfrentará este martes a México, mientras que Canadá se medirá ante Estados Unidos.
